The MILLER MERCANTILE CO.

AGENTS FOR SINCERITY CLOTHES FOR MEN

This is the time to Get Together on the Suit Question

There are so many ways in which a suit of clothes can be reduced in quality that it is absolutely folly to force a reduction in price.

SINCERITY CLOTHES

are sold at a just price, a price that quality will live up to. We are building up such confidence in this store that we can better afford to miss the trade of any one man than turn a suit over to a customer which misses the SINCERITY quality.

We are running this business on straight lines, because a straight line is the shortest distance between two points—YOU and US. If you are ready, we are, with a magnificent assortment of new styles and fabrics.

SINCERITY CLOTHES. 13.50 to $25

OTHER MAKES 5.00 to $12

George Leach who recently went to Montana, his former home, has returned to Newberg to dispose of his personal effects with a view of locating in Montana where he has bought a farm.

D. W. Cummins has bought property at Modesto, California, and is preparing to leave Independence for that point. Mrs. Cummins has gone on a visit to Missouri before joining him in their new home.

On Thursday night of next week W. C. Reuter, Ph. B. A. M. will lecture on "Great Deeds of Great Women" at the M. E. church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Admission free. Collection taken at close of lecture.

S. E. Watkins has the contract for putting a new glass front in the building formerly occupied as the postoffice, which is now owned by Hodson Bros. He is also to fit it up with shelving suitable for a store room.

J. T. Crews had his goods packed ready to leave Newberg the first of the week but thought better of it on taking a little more time for reflection, and bought the six acre tract of Ed. Hodson on Wynoski street.

L. W. Charles, who has a position as foreman in the office of the Albany Herald, came down the first of the week to make arrangements to send one of his little boys to Iowa where he is to have a home in the family of a relative.

Mr. J. Ransford and Wm. Brotherton who have a large contract for wood cutting with J. D. Gordon & Son, moved here from LaFayette Monday and have rented the Henry Mills property on River street near the end of the bridge.

Mrs. A. S. Wright from Madras, with her two children, are visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Cook. Mr. Wright accompanied them to Newberg but has returned to Madras where he is pastor of the Free Methodist Church.

Mrs. J. E. Bennett and children, friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burke, of Springbrook, who came here a short time ago from New Rockford, North Dakota, are expecting the husband and father to arrive in a few days. It is likely that others will come with him.

Judge Burnett is no respecter of persons. Over at Tillamook on pronouncing sentence on a lot of violators of the local option law he sent a fellow who is reputed to be worth $20,000 to jail for thirty days, along with the fellows who possess little worldly goods.

E. R. Getchell arrived home from his trip to the Alberta country the first of the week. He says he found much fine country and splendid crops of grain. He bought of Marvin Blair and A. E. Bowman a tract of three hundred and four acres, but as to his going to that country to live he has not decided.

Charley Leavitt reports the sale of the M. Motschenbacher bungalow on the corner of Fifth street and Dayton Avenue to L. Laughlin, who sold his farm on Parrott mountain to Walter Parrott. Also the sale of a lot on the corner of Main and Illinois streets to Charley Stephens who intends to build.

E. Crede started in a small way some time ago in a fish and chicken market and he is fast building up a nice business. He is endowed with the know how and this coupled with industry always counts in business. He ships eggs and dressed poultry to Seattle and gets top prices, but he says he is obliged to fatten all the poultry he buys before it is ready for market.

Miss Katie Dimond was married to Claude Oppen at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dimond, on Main Street at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The bride worked at the case in the Graphic office for several months and the office force extends hearty congratulations, knowing her to be a worthy, conscientious young lady. The groom formerly lived at Hopewell in this county but is at present working in Portland.

Stephen Cross, banker, lumberman, grain dealer and general contractor and Mr. Hyden, from Iowa Falls, Iowa, who are out seeing the Northwest country, have been spending several days with Mr. Cross' friends, Charles Calkins, S. M. Hoskins and J. H. Rees of the Springbrook neighborhood. Mrs. Calkins made her home with Mr. Cross for a number of years. Mr. Cross visited this country twenty-five years ago, coming up to "Rogers Landing" by boat and called on Mr. and Mrs. Rees at that time in their little cabin where L. E. Lewis' fine new home has just been built. Mr. Hyden has been in the employ of Mr. Cross for a long time but is looking for a home in this country.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. J. F. Taylor gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Lenna Langton, whose marriage to Mr. Watson Rinard, of McMinnville, had been announced to take place on Wednesday of this week. For amusement the ladies present spent a pleasant hour hemming dish cloths for the bride to be. Those present were the Misses Jennie D. Miller, Margaret Inglis, Mina Langton, Pearl Cummings, Bertha Nicholson, Maybelle Miller, Eva Miller, Lenora Parker, Lenna Langton, Mrs. A. C. Seeley, Mrs. L. H. Shirley, Mrs. W. S. Parker, Mrs. Wm. Langton, Mrs. J. F. Taylor.

On Tuesday of last week Free Hodges left his home north of Newberg rather unceremoniously and has not returned. He had harnessed his horses for work in the morning but when his wife called him to breakfast he said he would get his breakfast in Newberg, and went away, giving the impression to the family that he did not expect to return. The property is not incumbered in any way and in fact it is understood they have money ahead, and since the family claim they have not had any trouble the actions of Mr. Hodges are peculiar to say the least. Eli Haworth says he saw the missing man in Portland since he went away.

On account of the expected departure of Miss Jennie D. Miller for Portland, and Mrs. James H. Mills for Chicago, Mrs. George Larkin gave a reception in their honor at her home on Sheridan street on Thursday of last week.

Christensen, W. H. Nelson, John Larkin, Jr., J. A. Jones, C. C. Ferguson, C. K. Spaulding, David Ireland, J. D. Gordon, C. E. Fuller, E. S. Greer, F. A. Elliott, Sarah E. Fuller, W. S. Parker, George Larkin, James H. Mills.

An enterprise which gives promise of being very beneficial to the town, was inaugurated last Thursday afternoon in the Commercial Club rooms, when the ladies who responded to the call of the Mayer, decided to form a Civic Improvement League. The need of an organization of this kind has been long lamented by many, and the hearty response with which the Mayer's call was received indicates that the time is ripe for activity. Many other towns in the state have been reaping the benefits of such organizations for years. A meeting will be held in the same place on Friday, December 3 at 3 o'clock to complete its organization; to which all ladies of our town are invited.

Congressman Hawley Here Thursday.

Congressman W. C. Hawley will arrive in Newberg Thanksgiving morning on the 8:42 train, and will remain until Friday morning, departing on the 9:05 train. A public reception will be tendered him by the Commercial Club in the club parlors from 4:00 to 5:00 and from 7:30 to 9:00 after which a banquet will be held in the diningroom of the Imperial Hotel.

Those desiring plates at the banquet should have them reserved at once, as the number is limited. Reservations may be made at the office of the Imperial Hotel. All of our citizens are invited to meet Mr. Hawley.

If you are ever beaten it will be by your own self. Nobody else can beat you.

A wishbone won't do a man much good unless along with it goes a deal of backbone.

Many public speeches may be compared to a wheel—the longer the spoke the greater the tire.

We are never satisfied to have our happiness on the installment plan. We want it all at once.
