"Mother Knows"

"I used to complain about the stove—but not since I began using OLYMPIC FLOUR"

—Mother

You always bake successfully when you use Olympic. It is pure and wholesome—nutritious and clean—just what is required to make good things to eat.

Every sack of Olympic is made from most carefully selected Northwestern wheat and manufactured under ideal sanitary conditions—only the plumpest, hardest grains are used, the choicest of the entire Northwestern crop. Insist upon Olympic—"there isn't any just as good."

Pacific College Notes.

A new piano has been purchased for the college and the old one taken to the dormitory.

The first number of the lyceum course was well patronized by the students and members of the faculty.

Maude Gregory showed an unusual amount of grit at the time of the explosion in the laboratory last Tuesday. Both her hands are still bandaged.

On Monday morning President Kelsey gave a talk on the significance of President Taft's visit with President Diaz, of Mexico on the International bridge over the Rio Grande river.

Rea Smith spent Thanksgiving with his mother and sister, Jesse Hammer with his sister Laura and the Misses Mamie Coulson and Eva Frazier with D. D. Coulson, the brother of the former, all in Portland.

Studies were resumed at 8:10 o'clock Monday morning after a pleasant Thanksgiving vacation. Having had a rest it is time to get in and dig as examination time will soon be here.

Mrs. Douglas is continuing her series of talks on foods, the last one being on air foods. She showed very graphically the necessity of proper breathing and also our dependence on pure air around us for maintaining health. When Oregon has such an abundance of pure air why do we cage part of it up in our public buildings, depots, cars and halls until it is filled with poisonous gases?

High School Items.

(By Priors Press Committee.)

Donald Stretch, a former student, was a visitor here Monday.

John Hamilton, of Portland, visited school Wednesday and Friday.

Glenn Paxson, a member of the class of '09, now a student at O. A. C., was a visitor Wednesday and Friday.

The visitors Friday were the Misses Ruth Agnew and Sue Hills, Portland; Alice and Avic Cross, Dundee; Rosa Dunlap, Nellie Stanton and Violet Slater, Newberg; Messrs James Ryder, Corvallis; Bert Miller and Benj. Craven, Newberg.

The classes have organized basketball teams and competed for the championship of the school Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The results will be given next week as the last game was played too late to give an entire report this week.

The Thanksgiving football game was played with Columbia University on the college campus. Neither team succeeded in scoring. The game was both fast and hard. The local team excelled in team work. The C. U. team used the forward passes to a great extent. This game ended the football season for N. H. S. The year's record is not good, but we have the satisfaction of knowing that with the same advantages as those of the teams we played, we would have made a better showing.

The Priors program to be given Friday is as follows: Anecdote, Inez Bailey; Allegory, Myrtle Walton; Current Events, Bessie Williams, Gertie Kunkel; Prepared Talk, Edna Damon; Vocal Solo, Fred Butterfield; Recitation, Florence Kaufman; Essay, Floyd Parker; Paper, Gladys Trew, Sylvia Baker; Story, Laurene Otis; Recitation, Basil Goodrich; Optional, Lilian Reuter; Essay, Neal Heacock; Autobiography, Martin Lichthenthaler; Recitation, Hazel Elliott; Pre-

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The Newberg W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Bowerman, November 24.

At this meeting it was decided to appropriate fifty cents quarterly to the improvement of the State Headquarters in Portland. This, of course, is in addition to our share in the current expenses of the state organization.

Fifty-two half-gallon fruit jars were forwarded in the early autumn from the Children's Home in Portland, to us, and were returned filled at the Thanksgiving season. The discussion at this meeting upon the boys in our town who are using cigarettes indicates the organization is not indifferent to its department of anti-narcotics.

The committee appointed for the month of November to visit the sick and shut-ins report good work done.

Resolutions were directed to be written for our departed member, Mrs. Estle, and are as follows: Whereas one of the members of our union in Newberg, Mrs. Loretta Estle, has passed to the beyond.

Resolved that we give public expression to our appreciation of her services in our union. Also to our appreciation of the influence which must emanate from a Christian character such as hers was. Resolved that we extend our sincere sympathy. First to the husband bereft of a worthy and loyal companion. Second to the two little sons so early deprived of the tender, loving care of a conscientious mother. Third to the family relatives in the East bereft of a loved one when they were unable to give any last ministrations in her need.

Evangelistic Meetings.

Rev. H. Wyse Jones will be in Newberg next Sunday to begin a series of meetings at the Baptist church. Brother Jones is a deeply spiritual man, an earnest inspiring preacher, and his methods are free from sensationalism and objectionable features. All Christians are cordially invited to unite with us in this work, and non-professors are especially asked to give heed to the claims of the Gospel. Meetings every afternoon through the week at 3 o'clock and every evening at 7:30. F. C. STANNARD, Pastor.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Lincoln for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

DECEMBER 5th, 1909.

Paul or the Grace of Giving. II Cor. viii:1-15.

Golden Text—Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx:35.

Are these words in the Golden Text quoted from Jesus, hyperbolic, that is, a rhetorical over-statement, or is it literally true, that it is more blessed to give than to receive, and if so, why?

Verses 1-6—Is it according to animal nature, or to average human nature, or to average human nature, or to average human nature, to give to others outside of kith and kin?

Is giving liberally, intelligently and systematically, to religion and charity, always a "grace," that is, an inclination Divinely imparted?

What is the relation between giving and loving?

If we are in need or "affliction" ourselves, will the grace of giving still operate in us, if our hearts are right?

May "deep poverty," great "joy" and rich "liberality" be in the same life, and is such a combination natural or supernatural?

There was great poverty and suffering among the Christians at Jerusalem, and the liberality of the poor churches at Macedonia to relieve their need is what Paul here refers to; contrast the evil at Jerusalem, with the resultant good grace giving developed at Macedonia, and say which is the greater; that is did the result do as much good, or exceed the evil done by the cause?

Titus it would appear was appointed to present to the Corinthians the need of the Jerusalem Christians, to take up a collection, and to develop in them the grace of giving; why is there no work more noble, or duty more imperative, than for ministers and teachers to teach the people the duty and joy of giving?

Verses 7, 8—Paul apparently assumes that a person may abound "in faith and utterance, and knowledge, and in love," and not abound in the grace of giving; but is he right, for how can such a thing be possible?

Paul states that he did not urge the grace of giving by "commandment;" is it therefore any less the duty, and privilege of every Christian, rich and poor, to abound in this grace?

Verse 9—What should be the supreme motive, and what is the greatest inducement to give liberally?

What is the chief grace in the repleting character of Jesus?

Did the giving of Jesus of himself, and all he had for us, imply permanent poverty for him, or was it the surest way to all that great wealth is supposed to stand for?

Why does giving of all kinds finally result in getting more of that which we give, than would be possible if we kept it? (Think of money, love, knowledge, experience, encouragement, etc.)

Verses 10, 11—What is the difference in promising a subscription to religion or benevolence and not paying it, and not paying your grocer or baker?

Verses 12-14—What is the proportion of our income which the Bible demands of us, as a minimum?

What are some of the many advantages of the tithing system?

Verse 15—What reason is there to believe that if we give systematically to God's cause that we ourselves shall never lack?
