New Zealanders Gave a Good Entertainment.

On Saturday night of last week Duncans hall was well filled by a representative audience of the people of Newberg, who spent two hours very pleasantly listening to the New Zealanders tell of the wonderful progress of their people, the Maori's, during the sixty years since they have had the advantages of education and more or less association with English speaking people. This was the second number of the lyceum course and those who hold tickets have been very profuse in their expressions of appreciation of the evening's entertainment.
Ravei and Hine Tiamoa his wife, with their sixteen year old daughter are true and cultured artists in every respect, and with their wild ballads, songs and incantations, the quaint description of strange and curious customs of the Maorianders, and the numerous and beautiful pictures of the wonderland of the South, they can't fail to please any refined, cultured audience.

From Newberg to Points on the Beach by Auto.

The first of the week Abe Cooke received direct from the factory in Chicago a two cylinder, twenty-four horse power touring car of the "Black" make, which he proposes to put on the route between Newberg and points on the beach next season for carrying passengers. It will carry nine people but he anticipates that six passengers will be about the limit over the mountain roads. It is built for climbing hills over rough roads, having wood wheels with heavy steel tires. The body of the machine is painted black with the running gear a light straw color. The season for good roads for autoing will no doubt seem a long time coming to Mr. Cooke, though such a machine is supposed to go over ordinary country roads at all seasons.

Meeting of the Maccabees.

City Treasurer Werlin, of Portland, Judge Dimmick, of Oregon City, who is a candidate for governor, and J. W. Sherwood, Pacific Coast Organizer for the Maccabees, were in town one evening last week in attendance at a public meeting of that order.
W. E. Purdy, who acted as chairman, threw a bouquet in the direction of the Oregon City visitor by way of introducing him as the next governor of Oregon, a compliment, which, in view of the small army of candidates for this office, is liable to drop into the chestnut class before the daisies and buttercups show their heads again.

Two-Year-Old Brings Top Price.

The farmer and stockman is having his inning these days without question. A few days ago J. T. Carter, of West Che-halam, drove a two year old mare of his own raising into town and was soon accosted by J. D. Gordon who asked him to price the filly. He said he did not care to sell but would take $250. Mr. Gordon at once put his hand into his pocket for his check book, filled in the amount and took the mare. A few days later Mr. Carter brought a load of hogs to town which he sold for $25 a head. A farmer who can't raise a smile under such conditions has a bad case of the dumps and belongs in the too bad list.

Most schoolboys would rather eat a "piece" than speak one.

who indulge in too much Christmas cheer.
