The Best Family Paper

For thirty-three years FARM AND FIRESIDE has stood as the standard farm and home paper in America. All these years it has championed the best interests of the farmer and his family. For a third of a century FARM AND FIRESIDE has grown and grown until now over two millions of the most intelligent and progressive men and women in America read its pages twice each month.

FARM AND FIRESIDE has just spent $60,000 in making for its readers the best farm paper published—the new and greater FARM AND FIRESIDE.

In addition to the Managing Editor and staff of associate editors, FARM AND FIRESIDE has secured as Editor-in-Chief, Mr. Herbert Quick, of Sioux City, Iowa. Mr. Quick is a farmer himself and has lived among farmers all his life. He has been in addition, a writer of national reputation, a successful business man and Mayor of Sioux City.

The new and greater FARM AND FIRESIDE is spending more money for first-class accurate, authoritative, strictly agricultural articles and for stories than has ever been spent before by a farm paper—and for illustrations and pictures in particular. Every issue of FARM AND FIRESIDE has a beautiful cover, printed in full colors.

The Farmers' Lobby

FARM AND FIRESIDE has undertaken for its readers perhaps the most important co-operative work ever begun by a farm paper. A lobby for farmers at Washington.

The director of FARM AND FIRESIDE'S Farmers' Lobby will be Judson C. Welliver, one of the best known legislative writers in the country.

The Farmers' Lobby means that every FARM AND FIRESIDE subscriber will have a special representative at Washington who will look out for his special interests.

NOT only is FARM AND FIRESIDE a great practical paper, written by experts, essential to every progressive wide awake farmer. It is besides one of the best family magazines, of interest to every member of the family.

The best writers of stories contribute to FARM AND FIRESIDE. Louis Tracy's latest and greatest story is to appear in FARM AND FIRESIDE as a serial. Millions of this author's books have been sold. His latest story, "Twice Cup and Lip" which will appear in FARM AND FIRESIDE is one of the greatest stories of adventure ever written.

Hot-shot political talks from Alfred Henry Lewis' pen will continue from time to time to stimulate the minds of FARM AND FIRESIDE readers on the important political subjects of the day.

The Fashion Department of FARM AND FIRESIDE is a fashion magazine in itself. There are dozens of patterns in each issue of FARM AND FIRESIDE—patterns which are easy to follow and have a stylish air of their own when developed.

The woman who wishes to keep pace with the fashions may do so. The Fashion Department is conducted by the great fashion authority, Grace Margaret Cook.

There are other practical departments for women. The Girls' Department grows more popular each issue. It tells all about the newest fads and fashions, ideas for entertaining, church fairs, bazaars, notes on etiquette and beauty hints.

Then come the little folks. The Children's Department is better than ever before—the stories more interesting and contributed by writers of repute in the "children's" world.

These are but a few features. FARM AND FIRESIDE is the best farm and home paper published. It comes twice a month. You can get it without a cent's expense.
