SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Suggestive Quotations on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Linde for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

DECEMBER 29th, 1909.

The Birth of Christ.—Matt. ii:1-12.

Golden Text.—And thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins.—Matt. i:21.

Verses 1.—Where is Bethlehem, the birth place of Jesus?

Where was the home of Mary and Joseph, the parents of Jesus, and how did it happen that they were at Bethlehem at this time?

What was the probable nationality of these "wise men?"

Verses 2.—Is there any evidence, and if so what is it, which indicates that God, in past ages, has revealed himself to other peoples than those of Jewish origin?

Give your own idea of this star that the wise men saw, which indicated to them that a Jewish king had been born; was it objective or only subjective?

Were the wise men right in their opinion, that Jesus was "the King of the Jews," as they were in the fact of his birth?

Verses 3.—What is the evidence for or against the idea that it was God's original intention for Jesus to be the literal King of the Jews, as the wise men stated, and as Herod feared?

Why should Herod and "all Jerusalem" be troubled at the announcement of the birth of a Jewish King?

Verses 4-6.—What prophet is here referred to, and where in the Bible did these priests and scribes quote from?

Did the prophet they quoted from,
and did these priests and scribes think that the expected Christ was to be an earthly King? Why?

Verses 7.—What is it which makes diligent study, of a worthy subject, either noble or ignoble?

Verses 8.—How would you describe a man with the motive of Herod, when he sent these wise men off on their mission of finding Jesus?

What, if any, reason is there to believe that there are those to-day who attend church, and thus pretend they are earnestly seeking Jesus, who have practically the same motive as Herod had?

Verses 9.—If a man to-day would see the Christ, what "star" does he need to follow to be sure of being led to him?

Give reason for your idea whether it is to the favored few only that God sends a "star," or its equivalent, pointing to where Jesus may be found, or are all men similarly treated?

Verses 10.—Mention some things which always produce joy, and then describe that which produces the greatest joy to mortals known?

Verses 11.—What is the ground for certainty for the statement that those who really seek Jesus always find him?

What are the emotions which are stirred, the motives which are formed, and the deeds which are done by everyone who really seeks and finds Jesus?

Verses 12.—Is there any liability that those who live in the presence of Jesus, will ever be duped into betraying Him or his cause?

Is the day of the supernatural guidance of God's children, past, or is there reason to believe that it is as operative as ever?
