SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Subject: John the Baptist. Lesson for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

JANUARY 2nd, 1910.

John The Forerunner of Jesus. Matt. iii:1-12.

Golden Text.—The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Matt. iii:3.

Verse 1.—What were the days referred to verse in one?

What are the facts concerning John the Baptist, his parents, the time and place of his birth, his early training, the commencement of his ministry, his characteristics, and the nature of his preaching?

Where and what was the wilderness of Judaea?

Verse 2.—What did John want the people to do when he urged them to repent?

Why was it then, and why is it now, impossible for any person to enjoy the favor of God without repentance?

What did John mean by saying "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand"?

Has the kingdom of heaven been established on earth, and if so, what is that kingdom, and who are its citizens?

Verse 3.—What did Esaias (Isaiah) foretell concerning John, and where is the passage to be found?

In what sense did John prepare the way for Jesus?

Verse 4.—Why did John dress in such a plain way and eat such simple food?

To what extent should good people, to-day, take John for an example in the matter of food and clothing?

To what extent does God care as to what we eat, and what we wear?

If all you know of a man is that he is fastidious in the matter of dress, and an epicure in his food, how would you rate him as to personal piety?

Can men work as hard, think as clearly and accomplish as much, or more, in all departments of life on a vegetable, as on a meat diet?

Verses 5-6.—How do you account for the wonderful interest which John's preaching created?

If John were the permanent pastor of a church, in this town, do you suppose that he would be able to constantly keep up such great revival as this story records?

What did John's baptism signify? Was baptism then, and is baptism now for adults of any avail without a full confession of sin?

Verse 7.—When a member of a church is not a devoted man, is he better or worse than any other sinner?

If a minister of the gospel is not a truly good man, whose word is as good as his bond, how would you compare him with a layman of similar character?

What is the tendency of the office of a pastor, or of a Bible class teacher as to making it incumbent a truly noble and an all-round morally and financially, trustworthy man?

Is a pastor of a church under any greater obligation to be a truly devoted man than his members? Why or why not?

These scribes and pharisees were in those days what our pastors and church officials are in these days. How do you account for the fact that they were such bad men?

Verses 8-9.—What are the fruits which prove genuine repentance?

To what extent does the fact that a man has a noble and devoted ancestry recommend him to God?

Can any person be saved because of his parents' goodness?

Verse 10.—Is it the fact, and why, that incompetent men fail, and that bad men always come to grief?

Verse 11.—What is the difference between the personal results of John's baptism and that of the baptism of the Holy Spirit from Jesus?

Verse 12.—What reason is there for the belief that men and women make their own hell or heaven?

Lesson for Sunday, January 9, 1910.—The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus. Matt. iii:13-17; 4:1-11.

Don't Lose Time.

People are always talking about luck and pluck, the laws of success in life, etc., but absolutely one of the greatest sources of success is the proper use of time. One of the most successful men of America when asked to what he attributed his success, replied: "I built my fortune on the dial of my watch; seconds became pennies, minutes became dimes, hours became dollars. I gave a money value to every tick and took advantage of everything that economized time. I never procrastinate; I never wait for other people to get ahead of me, I keep my eyes and ears open for opportunities; I look well into whatever seems good to me; when my judgment approves I act promptly and with decision. I don't know that there is any particular rule or law of success, but I'm pretty sure that one of the foundation principles is "Don't lose time."

A Perfume That Perfumes.

In making a selection of a brand of perfumery for the handkerchief it has always been a difficult matter to find an extract that has the lasting qualities to make it satisfactory, but the new brand that will no doubt be put on the market in Newberg at an early day will meet the requirements of the trade in this particular without question.

The first shipment of the proper ingredients was made to Newberg the first of the week and arrived safely on Tuesday morning. The box containing the same was left on the truck at the railway station for some time, though the aroma given off made its presence known to those about the station. Some of the boys however tried hard to locate it in a bread basket that was near by, and peeping into the same said it was wrapped in a newspaper.

"Spilogale putorius" will probably be the name blown in the bottle in which the new perfume will be put on the market, but in looking the name up in the dictionary to find its meaning it will be easier to turn to the word that spells the name of a little spotted animal that roams about at night.

Further information regarding the shipment may be obtained by interviewing the Newberg salesman who returned from a visit to Eugene the first of the week.

Christian Tabernacle.

Revival services will begin in Christian Tabernacle about January 16. A more definite announcement will be made later. Miss Ellen Flook, of Portland, will assist the pastor in the meetings.

For Sunday, January 2, the pastor will speak at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Evening subject chapters 17 and 18 of Revelation. All are welcome.

GEO. C. RITCHEY,
Pastor.
