Local Events.

U. S. G. Miller of the Miller Mercantile Co. was in the county seat Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King went to Portland to eat Christmas turkey with Mr. King's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fortune were down from Corvallis last week and remained until Monday.

Francis Brickley, typo in the Graphic office, went to Vancouver to eat Christmas dinner with his sister.

Mrs. Warner, of Portland, was in town the first of the week visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding.

Miss Ella Crawford who is down from Seattle visiting with the home folks above Dundee, was in town Tuesday calling on her Newberg friends.

Blake Adams, who has been improving his place on the west side of the Red Hills, has gotten things in good shape and will leave in a few days for Marshfield.

Albert Benson is putting in a news stand in one of Oliver's rooms near the postoffice. In addition to carrying magazines and newspapers he will also stock up with tablets and writing materials.

Allen Pemberton is expecting to move to Salem early in the year in order to be near his Rose-dale prune orchard. He says he finds that at this distance it is difficult to get it properly cared for.

"The Best Asset for Nineteen Hundred and Ten" will be the subject next Sabbath morning at the M. E. church. At night the theme will be "Looking Backwards and Forwards." All are invited.

Morris Hearcock has gone to Bay City, Tillamook county where we understand he intends to get in on the ground floor as a real estate agent before the arrival of the "toot! toot!" train, which is headed that way.

It is reported on pretty good authority that another change is to be made in the schedule of the afternoon train the first of the year, and that it will pass Newberg for Portland at 4:34 instead of 4:14, which will make it twenty minutes later.

J. C. McCrea got tired of crossing the river to get to his Marion county farm and has moved over on that side. He thinks however it will not be for any great length of time as he is liable to close out his Marion county land holdings.

Fred Werth is taking much pleasure showing his friends a new sixteen dollar suit of clothes presented him by J. D. Gordon a few days ago. Mr. Werth expressed a wish in the presence of Mr. Gordon that some one would buy him a five dollar suit, as his was getting worn, whereupon Mr. Gordon escorted him to Hodson Bro's, Clothing store and fitted him out with much better-toggery than he had called for.

Guy Bennett has bought out an old established hardware business at Vancouver and is planning to take possession the first of February. He says the firm has been employing four men and the years' business foots up the neat sum of $60,000. Mr. Bennett has a good knowledge of the hardware business, which, coupled with his energy, will no doubt insure his success in the new field. Vancouver is a good point for business and Mr. Bennett's Newberg friends will expect to hear good reports from his business venture. During the coming month he will spend considerable time in Newberg looking after collections.

Frank Morton and wife from Canton, Illinois, arrived here a few days ago and are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks. Mrs. Morton and Mrs. Brooks are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Evans, former residents of Newberg, were down from McMinnville to attend the annual Christmas feast of the Williams family and remained over until Monday.

A mistake was made in the date given the Graphic for the time for holding the caucus for the nomination of candidates for city offices. It is to be held on Tuesday evening of next week.

N. L. Wiley carried off three first prizes, one third and one fifth in the big poultry show held in Portland last week. Nate never fails to show up with the ribbons when he comes home from a poultry show.

Vernon Motschenbacher took advantage of the holiday excursion rates and came from Klamath Falls to spend the holidays in Newberg. He says they find the cost of living to be about one third higher there than here.

Hiram Smith who is taking the civil engineering course at O. A. C., and who spent the Christmas vacation at home said the attendance so far had not been up to that of last year, though an increased attendance had been expected. The enrollment has been 1000.

W. E. Purdy writes the Graphic that a very enthusiastic meeting of the Tri County Push Club was held in the Grange Hall recently at Butteville, when more than twenty-five new members were added to the roll. The club has taken up the proposition of building a walk between Butteville and Choponish, the station on the Oregon Electric line, and about $300 has already been raised for this purpose. Efforts are being put forth to compel the Oregon Electric to build a depot at Choponish according to agreement. Judge Dimick, of Oregon City, was present and gave a very interesting talk, after which refreshments were served by the ladies of the club and their friends.

Henry Versteeg, of Rainer spent Sunday in town.

E. U. Bancroft is at home from Winlock, Washington, to spend the holidays.

Herman Smith came up from Portland to spend the holidays with his parents.

L. M. Carey went to Mosier Thursday to visit one of his daughters.

Frank Evans who has a position with the Medford Tribune has been at home during the week.

The mother of Prof. Marcy arrived here the first of the week from her home in Pennsylvania and is visiting with her son.

F. A. Pozier, of Eugene, was here one day last week visiting with C. S. Hulin west of town.

Maynard Redmond came from Portland to eat Christmas turkey with the home folks.

J. F. Taylor is expecting the arrival today of his daughter, Mrs. J. R. McKillop and little one from the Philippines.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gunning, of McMinnville, and M. B. Green, of Portland, were in town last Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor.

The heart of our aged friend A. Dorn has been made glad during the week by the presence of his only son, who has been here from San Francisco visiting him.

Calvin Blair who was down from McMinnville to help put away the home Christmas dinner, indicated that he intended to give up the position of deputy sheriff at an early day.

J. W. Coffin who is head sawyer in the Booth-Kelly mill at Springfield, is at home this week spending the holiday season with his family. He says all the mills up in that section are doing a big business in the lumber trade.

Luther Newlin took advantage of the fine weather and with a good force of carpenters has rushed work on a new residence he is building on Center street and now has it enclosed. He says he has found it not only unsatisfactory but a losing proposition to pay house rent and proposes to have a home of his own.

J. E. Todd and family were down from Dayton the first of the week visiting relatives.

In answer to many inquiries we will state that the next number of the lyceum course will be given the latter part of January, though the exact date has not been determined. It will be announced in due time.

J. D. Gordon bought the E. M. Royce five acre tract east of town Wednesday, paying $2,500 for it. He also bought the southeast corner lot at the intersection of College and Hancock streets of Claude Cummings, where he expects to build a new barn.

E. R. Getchall persists in sticking to the affirmative side of the debatable question: "Resolved that there is more pleasure in pursuit than possession," and says the report circulated the first of the week that he was married was very much exaggerated. He says however that he had a pleasant visit at his old home at Lebanon.

Mervyn Harvey, the eighteen year old son of Edmund Harvey died at an early hour on last Monday morning of typhoid fever. He was a member of the High School and the announcement of his death came as a great shock to the teachers and his schoolmates, as he had been reported to be on the road to recovery up to a few days before. He was an unusually bright young man and he is mourned, not only by the bereaved family, but by those who were associated with him in school work. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon.

W. L. Robertson has resigned his position as engineer on the switch engine for the Spaulding Logging Co., and has gone to Willamina to take a similar position with the brick company. He went to Portland the first of the week and took an engine out from the city on the West Side line. W. L. is one of the pioneers of Newberg and we regret to see him go, but one of these days we shall expect to see him occupying a position in the cab of a Southern Pacific engine hauling trains on the Yamhill branch through Newberg when we can "hello!" to him and it won't be so bad.
