POLL BOOK OF '64 FOUND.

McMinnville Courthouse Produces Relic of Presidential Election.

McMinnville, Jan. 9.—(Special to the Oregonian.)—The poll book of "South Fork Precinct" for the Presidential election, November 8, 1864, was found in a dusty corner of the Courthouse basement a few days ago, and taken in charge by County Treasurer Harrison Z. Foster, to whom the old document bears tender significance. Mr. Foster cast his first vote on that day, favoring the Lincoln electors.

J. Lamson, Jefferson Davis and William Chapman were the election judges, and Thomas N. Faulconer and H. W. Lamson were clerks. Jefferson Davis, singularly enough, is on record as having favored the Lincoln electors. There were 95 votes in the precinct, 52 being cast for the Lincoln and Johnson electors and 43 being cast for the McClellan and Pendleton electors. South Fork precinct at that time embraced a wide strip of territory extending from the Tillamook County line on the west to McMinnville precinct on the east.

The poll book was a simple affair, very different from the printed forms in use now. It was made from three sheets of "foolscap" stitched together and ruled with blue pencil and ink. Of the 95 voters, they were all, with a single exception, personal acquaintances of Mr. Foster. Nearly all of them continued to be residents of Yamhill County until their death, four or five of the number having died within the past year. About a dozen of the old voters are known to be living yet, stolidly voting as they did in the old days.

Womanly Wisdom.

The young wife: "This rabbit (sob) I've been plucking it (sob) all the afternoon, and it isn't half done yet."

Grind up the meat that is left over, stir it up with potatoes and make croquettes for supper. Nice as can be.

Some girls would be successful in obtaining a husband if they would remove the hatpin before setting their caps.

Never wash flannels in water in which cotton clothing has been washed, as there is lint always left in the water that "fills" the flannel.

When making boys' pants, if mothers will put in a large piece of the same material in the knees between the lining and outside, it will be there ready when needed.

Books, music and good lights may not increase the corn crop, but they wonderfully increase the heart crop; and that is worth a good deal more when it comes to keeping the boys and girls on the farm.

If your oven does not bake, don't get mad about it and think that the stove is a nuisance. Just clean out the top and bottom of the stove. You will be surprised at the amount of soot you will get and how much better the stove will bake.

A week filled up with selfishness and a Sabbath stuffed full of religious exercises will make a good Pharisee but a poor Christian. There are many persons who think Sunday is a sponge with which to wipe out the sins of the week.

It is natural for children to like candy; and good candy is wholesome for them, taken at the proper time,—which is not between meals. A good plan is to serve it for dessert several times a week; a few pieces are enough for each child. Used in this way it is not extravagant, as it saves the making of other desserts.

There are too many people who are like my new teakettle. You can pile fire under it, and polish it all you please, but it won't sing; all it will do is to grunt a little, and if you take the lid off, it will scald the hand. Isn't that a picture of grumpy, surly people who don't appreciate kindness? Give me the old iron kettle that can sing, and the old jolly people who can sing, also.
