SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Subject: Discipline on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Linquist for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

FEBRUARY 27, 1910.
False and True Discipleship. Matt. 7:18-29.

Golden Text. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven, Matt. 7:21.

Verses 13, 14.—In what sense is the gate to eternal life narrow, and the way to destruction broad?

What are the conditions for entering into eternal life?

If a man repents of, and gives up all his sins but one, why is it impossible for him to pass through the gate which leads to eternal life?

Verses 15.—Are there any false prophets these days, and, if so, describe them?

Is a pastor, or a Sunday School teacher, a false prophet if he preaches what he does not practice?

Verses 16.—If a man is a good husband, a kind father, an agreeable neighbor, charitable, honest, and industrious, but does not belong to any church, what reason is there for us to conclude that he is not a Christian?

Verses 17.—If a man attends church and prayer meeting regularly, and takes part in the services, but is ugly and cross to his wife and children, what reason is there for us to conclude that he is not a hypocrite?

How would you class a woman, active in church and missionary work, who habitually repeats stories, whether true or false, against the character of her neighbors?

Verses 18.—From the teaching of Jesus, how would you demonstrate that a person may, or may not, be his follower who does not delight to do good, and, having the opportunity, is not actively engaged in doing it?

Verses 19.—What is the law which operates, to eternally destroy the hope and happiness of all who persist in doing evil?

Verses 20.—What is the natural "fruit" of a follower of Jesus, and that of a follower of evil?

Verses 21-23.—Jesus intimates here, that a man may be quite successful in religious work, and yet be a worker of iniquity, show how that can be possible?

How does God regard a man who prays, and yet knowingly commits sin? Does God expect, and is it reasonable to expect, that ordinary mortals can do his will in all things?

How do you account for the self-deception of men, who according to the teaching of Jesus, will walk up to the gate of heaven, thinking they are saved, but be turned back as workers of iniquity? This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.

Verses 24-27.—Does Jesus mean that we are to do literally as his words read in this sermon on the mount, or to take them as principles and do as he did, form the personal acquaintance of the Father, and then do His will in the details?

If a man loves God and his fellows, and is following Jesus in doing good, always being true to the voice of God in his soul, what reason is there to believe that that is building upon the impregnable rock?

Verses 28, 29.—What was it that distinguished the teaching of Jesus from that of the scribes?

Lesson for Sunday, March 6th, 1910. Jesus the Healer. Matt. 8:1-17.

High School Items.

(By Priora Press Committee.)

The student body was well pleased with the result of Saturday's voting and would like to thank the voters.

The students of the High School were very much pleased to learn of the P. C.'s victory in the debate with McMinnville in the recent debate; especially because Miss Bryan is an alumnus of the High School.

There was no senior essay this week because Tuesday was a holiday.

Mrs. Martin taught in Miss Ytrehus' place three days last week, while the latter was taking the teacher's examination.

Mr. Replogle spoke in assembly last Thursday and also addressed the Y. W. C. A. on Friday at 3:30 p.m.

The High School added another scalp to their ball Tuesday evening by defeating the Allen Preparatory team of Portland by a score of 24 to 17. The game was closely contested, the Prep. boys taking a small lead in the opening of the 2nd half. The first half stood 11 to 5 for the locals. The defeated team is one of the strongest in the city league and the Newberg boys have lost but one game this season that was by Salem High. But they reversed the score on the latter court by a larger margin. Last evening's game had no special features. One or two brief wrestling matches were thrown in to add spice but no one was hurt and the audience appreciated the entertainment. Referee—Learned, Allens. Umpire Wiest, Newberg.
