If Taft should undertake to set down on the Teddy boomlet would't there be something doing?

Go tell it to the fellows who "didn't know it was loaded" the other time, that we are to vote on the high school site on Wednesday of next week.

It is evident that "general apathy" will be put to rout on next Wednesday. A battle of ballots is booked for that date to do the high school site again.

Newberg has had a reputation for being on the water wagon for a long time but we have the real thing now. It cost $400 and it makes our city look quite metropolitan.

Hand-painted shoes are the latest fad, but the fellows who live in the red hill country in Oregon need not worry. Mother earth furnishes free all necessary colorings for their shoe leather.

If we must have a curfew law, in order to get at the real offenders let's mete the punishment out to the parents who fail to look after their tender offsprings. Get at the seat of the trouble at the first stroke, for instance.

Detroit is to have a woman's whistling club and considerable mention is being made of it in the papers, but they are so slow "back east." Why we already have one right here in Newberg it seems, for as long ago as last week we heard a woman whistle to a fellow across the street, and a married man at that. Some will hope however that the diversion will not become popular.

On Friday of next week the Portland business men's excursion is to spend an hour in Newberg, from 2:35 to 3:35 in the afternoon. These representative business men of the city are to be out making all the towns on the West Side. They are keen observers and are out to see and get acquainted with the people and the conditions. It stands Newberg in hand to put on her best clothes and give them a royal welcome.

The Eugene Register says: "Evidently the man who authorized census takers to classify our American women who keep house as among those 'having no occupation,' must be a bachelor, and is not familiar with the cares and responsibilities resting upon the wives and mothers of this country. If the woman who does all of her own housework, and has the care of from three to five children as well, has no occupation, then we misunderstand the meaning of the word. The man who thus interprets woman's work ought to be put on the list as an Othello, with his occupation gone."

C. Johnson has bought a fine new single buggy.

The Misses Elsie and Anna Tangen, Edna Everest and Mrs. John Crater are on the sick list of late.

Another of our highly respected residents has sold his farm, Mr. F. A. Hayes. The Hayes family have lived in their mountain home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wills, Miss Maude Wills and Mrs. M. J. Johnson attended a fine lecture in Dundee last Sunday morning by Mrs. Shepherd, one of the noted W. C. T. U. lecturers.

Last Saturday School Sup't. Belt held a spelling contest in McMinnville and those representing our school were the Misses Elsie Tangen, Florence McGuire, Alice Green and Master Lawrence Baker. They all did well in spelling but another country school district took the medals. Miss Barber accompanied them.

Last Wednesday a week some of the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Howie surprised them. The ladies baking up and taking lunch baskets, the men taking their teams to help about the farm work. Robert Howie having been sick all winter and spring they were in need of work being done about the farm. Report came that Robert went down to a Portland hospital last Monday.

The W. C. T. U. meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Mary Palmer Johnson last Wednesday afternoon. There were twelve ladies present. Miss Mabel Paulsen gave the scripture lesson followed by prayer by Mrs. M. J. Johnson and others. After the business session Mrs. R. W. Everest, Sup't. of Mothers Meetings, held a program. Mrs. Carrie Johnson, Mrs. Everest and Mrs. M. J. Johnson read some very helpful and interesting selections about parents and management of children after which Miss Fdna Everest recited some poetry about "The Little Mother" in a very pleasing manner. Meeting then adjourned to meet with Mrs. S. W. Newhouse in May. A social hour was spent over refreshments.

Warning and Invitation. Matt. 11: 20-30.

Golden Text. Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Matt. 11: 28.

Verses 20, 21.—Have all sinners the power to repent? Why or why not?

What reason can you give for or against the view, that a sinner will immediately repent, on the presentation of the gospel, unless he resists his good impulses?

Why did not Chorazin and Bethsaida repent under the preaching of Jesus, when it was backed up with such mighty works?

What is the woe which Jesus pronounces upon the unrepentant?

Do sinners now, or will they in the future, suffer any punishment other than the natural results of sin in themselves?

Verse 22.—Will there be degrees in the punishment of the lost, and if so, by what method do you suppose it will be gauged?

How and by what method, are the just rewarded in this life, and will the same method, probably, be operative in the future life?

How far will the lowest man in heaven, be from the highest man in hell?

Verses 23, 24.—If Sodom would have repented under the influences which Capernaum rejected, does that, or not, imply that it is simply a matter of the strength of the influence whether a sinner repents or not?

If a sinner rejects under one influence and repents under a stronger one, is it right to put the blame of a sinner rejecting the gospel upon the too weak influence brought to bear upon him?

Are there influences, which could be brought to bear, strong enough to cause the most hardened sinner to repent?

Verse 25.—Why or why not, are culture, education and scientific research, any necessary aid or hindrance to spiritual discernment?

Why have children, and those with a child like spirit, a keener spiritual vision, than others with more knowledge?

Are uneducated people, with the same kind of moral character, more liable to see and yield to spiritual truth, than those who are highly educated?

What are the eyes with which we see spiritual truth, are they of the human intellect, or of the immortal soul, and how do you explain the process?

Verse 26.—Why did God make spiritual perception not to depend upon the intellect?

Verse 27.—Explain how, and why it is that God has given Jesus the control of all things?

To whom does the Father and Jesus reveal themselves?

Verses 28-30.—To what kind of rest does Jesus invite those who will come unto him?

What is your view, as to whether Jesus is a hard, or an easy, master to please?

Can a sincere person of ordinary attainments, perfectly please God in all things, and then find that Jesus, "burden is light?"

Lesson for Sunday May 1st, 1910.
Two Sabbath Incidents. Matt. 12: 1-14.

Are You a Booster?

Do you know there's lots of people Setting 'round in every town, Growling like a broody chicken, Knocking every good thing down? Don't you be that kind of cattle, 'Cause they ain't no use on earth; You just be a rooster, crow And boost for all you're worth. If your town needs boosting boosters, Don't hold back and wait to see If some other feller's willing— Sail right in, this country's free. No one's got a mortgage on it, It's just yours as much as his; If your town is shy on boosters, You get in the boostin' biz. If things just don't seem to suit you, And the world seems kinder wrong, What's the matter of boostin' Just to help the thing along? 'Cause if things would stop a-goin' We'd be in a sorry plight; You just keep that horn a-blowing, Boost'er with all your might. If you see some other feller Tryin' to make some project go, And you boost it up a little, That's your cue to let him know That you're not a-goin' to knock it, Just because it ain't your shout. But you're goin' to boost a little, 'Cause he's got the best thing out. If you knew some feller's failings, Just forget 'em for you know The same feller's got some good points; Them's the ones you want to show. Cast your loves upon the waters, They'll come back—a sayin' true, Maybe they'll come back buttered, When some feller boosts for you. W. W. Evening Bulletin.
