THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1910.

McMinnville.

The annual May Day exercises at the college were not carried out last Saturday as planned, on account of the rain. If the weather will permit the exercises will be held next Thursday. Aside from the regular May Day festivities, features will be the automobile parade, tug of war across Cozine creek and track and field meet with Columbia University.

The Portland business men expressed themselves as well pleased with their brief stay here last Friday. Twenty-five autos met them at the depot and after taking them on a short trip about town, conveyed them to the Kono Club parlors where refreshments were served.

A charter has been granted by the department at Washington for the United States National bank at McMinnville with a capital of $50,000.00. The new bank will be open for business about June 15. The organizers are R. W. Lancefield, G. W. Briedwell, A. McPhillips, Ed Hendricks and Lynn Lancefield. The three last named have been recently cashier, vice president and bookkeeper respectively of the First National bank of this city. A. McPhillips will probably be president of the new bank and Lynn Lancefield cashier. This institution together with the newly organized Willamina State bank will make twelve banks for Yamhill county, six of them being nationals.

An urgent invitation has been extended by the Commercial Club to James J. Hill, the railroad magnate, to visit this part of the state during his visit to Oregon, but as yet no reply has been received.

The six-year-old apple orchard one-half mile north of town owned by Dr. W. H. Boyd, of Portland, was sold a few days ago to a gentleman from Ohio named Cox, for $600 per acre. This is the record sale for orchard land in this section.

Chehalem Center.

The great Jersey cattle sale at the Gordon ranch is over and the beautiful Jersey herd the Atkinson Brothers reared and maintained so long is a thing of the past.

Ray Brown has been quite sick of late but is slowly on the road to recovery.

Last week Robert and George Hodges were visiting in Portland and George returned home sick.

Miss Melody and Mr. Dickson were guests at the home of H. C. Paulsen Sunday.

Clinton Newhouse and family, of Dayton, visited at Shady Nook Sunday; also Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Newhouse, of Springbrook, and Mr. and Mrs. Dodge, of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wheeler, of North Yamhill, Miss Mildred Wills, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Chase, of Newberg, were visitors at the home of J. C. Wills the first of the week.

West Chehalem.

Mr. and Mrs. Prosser spent a few days recently visiting friends near Salem.

Mr. Amoth made a business trip to Portland last Saturday returning Monday.

George Nelson, who was severely hurt by a dynamite blast as reported last week, is improving nicely and will be out in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Shireman are the proud parents of a fine baby boy.

The regular minister of West Chehalem was called to Seattle. The vacancy will be filled by Prof. and Mrs. Thomas, of McMinnville.

Mr. Shields is building a home on a ten-acre tract of orchard land which he bought from the Yamhill Fruit & Land Company. This is the first home to be erected although numerous tracts have been sold.

Sweet Bouquets Given Away.

The Loyal Temperance Legion committee, of about 20 in number, celebrated April 30 as May Day and remembered the business men, by going in and out from store to store, shop to shop, office to office and all kinds of business places, with their bouquets of sweet remembrance, with flower texts tied with white ribbon. A few were missed but not intentionally. Their line of march extended from the U. S. National Bank eastward, then crossing the street they marched westward to Main, then north as far as depot returning on the other side to the starting point. It was certainly a pleasure to see their bright happy faces and hear their feet pattering into the busy places. They also distributed bouquets to a few sick ones. The number of boquets distributed was 160. Where asked what it meant the answer was "Lick the Liquors," another good meaning for the letters on their banner.

High School Items.

(By Priores Press Committee.)

On account of bad weather the May Day exercises could not be held, as had been planned.

Miss Gladys Bennet, of Portland, visited H. S. Friday.

The Y. W. C. A. girls are planning to send two representatives to the Summer conference and are endeavoring to increase their conference fund by giving the citizens of Newberg a chance to aid in their cause. Thus far they have met with good success.

Miss Ytrehus was ill Friday and Miss Ruth Romig taught her classes for her.
