Dundee.

Messrs. Herring and Lehmann were Portland visitors Saturday. Mrs. Keeling visited her son at Springbrook this week.

Mr. A. D. McEwan and family have returned from a visit in Portland.

Mrs. Conlee, Mrs. Imus, Miss Ella Groth and Miss Rhoda Imus were Newberg visitors recently.

Tariff Inspector Choat of the Southern Pacific visited Dundee last Thursday.

Mrs. Ellis, of Portland, sister of Rev. Alford visited the Alford home last Tuesday.

Silas Broadwell and family spent Sunday with relatives in Dundee.

Children's Day will be observed on the second of June in the forenoon, at the Dundee church.

Rev. Julian Alford conducted the services at the church Sunday in the absence of Rev. Knotts.

Mr. Always who has been the guest of William Meyer for two months returned last week to his home in Bloomington, Illinois.

The families of H. B. Powell and Edward Broadwell attended Sells Bros' circus at McMinnville Saturday.

Miss Anna Thune, who is in Portland receiving massage treatment for inflammatory rheumatism, is improving rapidly.

Mr. Thomas Warner is still confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism. The last few days have brought a slight change for the better.

Mr. and Mrs. Swink attended the eighth grade graduation exercises at Springbrook Saturday evening. They report an unusually entertaining and beautiful program.

Mr. and Mrs. Thune enjoyed a family re-union last week when several of the children and their families were able to spend a day or two with the home folks.

Word has been received at the Otterbrook, of the death in Portland Monday of Manlins F. Spencer. The interment will be in the family cemetery, on Wednesday morning.

"Free Scholarship in Nursing."

The Philadelphia School for Nurses, 2219 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., offers free scholarships in trained nursing to young women in every state in the union. The scholarships cover the full two years' course, with room, board, uniforms, laundrying, etc., included, and railroad fare paid to home town or district upon completion of the course.

A Home Study Course and a short resident course are also provided, which quickly open the door to opportunity and enable progressive students to render a noble service to humanity and at the same time acquire for themselves a substantial income from the best paid occupation now open to women; besides qualifying every student to deal with emergencies in the home that may mean the saving of a loved one's life.

Far-seeing philanthropists are adding to the resources of this school with the view of ultimately extending these benefits to earnest, energetic young women in all country districts and in all the smaller towns and cities.

The institution is approved and endorsed by leading physicians and educators of the entire country. Some of the leading men of this state are its strong supporters and endorsers, as will be seen by the catalogue which will be sent to anyone who writes to the school for it.

Obituary.

The mother of Mrs. H. L. Christenson, well known as Grandma Wilkes passed away, May 8, 1910. She was born in Chautauqua County, New York, June 15, 1830. She was laid to rest beside her husband, William Wilkes who died in his 81st year. She was living with her daughter, Mrs. Krake, at Tillamook. About eight years ago she was baptized and united with the Baptist church, at Ontario, Oregon. Wherever she lived she was well loved. The funeral service was held in the Christian church, at Tillamook. She was the mother of fourteen children seven of whom have preceded her to the beyond. The children left to mourn her loss are Mrs. H. L. Christenson, Newberg; John Wilkes, of Idaho; Mrs. Olive Burnett, California; C. F. Wilkes, Mrs. Ella Krake, H. B. Wilkes, and A. E. Wilkes, of Tillamook; also six sisters, Mrs. Geo. Crance, Mrs. Olive Amworth, Emma Drake, Ellen Drake, of Wisconsin; Mrs. Churner, of Colorado and Mrs. Sylvia Fulmer, Dunkirk, New York. Her grandchildren number about 40 and great grandchildren about 25. The old must die, the young may die but there is not always time for the getting ready to go when he calls us. Christ said "Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour."

"We cannot say, and we will not say That she is dead, she is just away, With a cherry smile and a wave of the hand She has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming, how very fair It needs must be since she lingers there."

The Yamhill County Prohibition Convention will be held, May 31 at 10:30 a.m., in Crater's Hall. Clinton N. Howard, of Rochester, New York, will speak in the evening. This will be a mass convention and a large attendance is desired.

D. A. SNIDER, Chairman.
