is cheapest by the foot and by the pound even though the first cost is a fraction more. A little time wasted in the harvest season on account of inferior twine is often quite disastrous. Let us figure on your twine needs. We have just received our supply. It is early yet but we will take your order and have it here when harvest is ready.

Pretty Home Wedding.

The following account of the wedding of E. M. Hollingsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hollingsworth is taken from the Arbor State, published at Wymore, Nebraska.

"A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Mitchell, when their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mitchell and Mr. Elzie M. Hollingsworth were married by Rev. Volck."

Promptly at 8 p. m. Miss Anna Moon began playing a wedding march and the bride and groom entered the room and standing under a beautiful arch of white lilies, orange blossoms and evergreens the ceremony was performed in the presence of about thirty guests, only relatives and a few intimate friend being present.

The bride was dressed in cream silk and carried a bouquet of cream roses.

After the company had congratulated the couple an elegant three course supper was served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Mitchell who are old residents of this community and Miss Mitchell had been employed in the Home Telephone office until recently and possesses many qualifications necessary for a happy life companion.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hollingsworth, of Newberg, Oregon and has made his home in Wymore for some time, being employed as a fireman for the Burlington.

The young couple left Thursday morning for a short visit with the brides' relatives at Clay Center, Kan. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. The Arbor State joins their many friends in extending congratulations."
