M. E. Church.

Last Sabbath was a glorious day at the M. E. church. Considering the other attractions in the city a larger congregation gathered at the morning service than was anticipated. It being "Children's Day" the pastor preached on "Christian Education" taking for a text Hosea 4:6, "My people die for lack of knowledge." The following thoughts were emphasized:

1. The great advantages resulting from Christian education.
2. It is the only true education because it concerns itself with all three departments of man's being.
3. Because it is the only true education it is best (1) for the individual; (2) for the state and nation.

At night the house was packed, aisles full and part of the audience standing in the vestibule. The program, consisting of songs, recitations, class exercises and a fishing performance by the pastor, was greatly enjoyed by the congregation. The closing number was a tableau entitled "Rock of Ages" by eleven girls of the Sabbath School, and while singing the last verse the church was darkened, and as one of the girls clung to the cross in the glare of the red fire, the scene was beautifully impressive. The committees on program and decorating worked hard and success crowned their efforts.

Next Sabbath will be another special day at this church. It will be "Old Folks' Day." The pastor will preach a sermon addressed to the aged. A special invitation is extended to all who are over 60 years of age and under 100. The church will be beautifully decorated. At night the subject will be "Four Classes of Church-Goers" Come and ascertain to which class you belong. The public is cordially invited. THE PASTOR.

A little vanity keeps a man keyed up to his best, while too much renders him obnoxious to his fellows.
