

THE CITY HAPPENINGS

Newberg

W. S. Parker turned in off the road here Saturday to spend the Sabbath day at home.

Riley Kaufman left Friday to take a fortnight's vacation over on the Nehalem, hunting and fishing.

Mrs. Elmer Hodson and children came down from Willamina Friday for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hobson and young son, Lincoln, came up from Portland Sunday and visited at A. T. Blair's.

Harry Walther, of The Dalles, made a short visit in town the last of the week. He is now starring as an auto salesman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith took their departure for classic Nye Creek Saturday, expecting to remain at the beach until fall.

Arthur Carter, of Baker City, a former Newberg lad, has been visiting here for several days with his sister, Mrs. H. R. Morris.

Mrs. Emma Bell, of Portland, has been visiting in town this week with her daughter, Mrs. Orville Hollingsworth, and with friends.

Miss Ethel Barber, who has been teaching in the Newberg schools, left Saturday to spend the summer vacation out at Newport.

Mrs. H. T. Botts, of Tillamook, who had been attending the convention of the Eastern Star in Portland, visited in town Saturday with Supt. and Mrs. W. W. Wiley.

At the close of the school year at Dundee last week the Pacific College scholarship was awarded to Alfred Allan, son of W. S. Allan, as having made the highest grades in his classes.

Master Homer Nelson is kicking up his heels on the Fletcher farm at LaFayette.

Work is now progressing steadily on the new High School building at the foot of Edwards street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whitten have been attending the annual G. A. R. encampment at Astoria this week.

Mrs. M. J. Nash departed Monday for Crookston, Minnesota, where she expects to spend the summer visiting with a married daughter.

Hon. J. C. Nelson and wife made their annual pilgrimage to Portland the first of the week to mingle with the Oregon pioneers at their reunion.

Mrs. Will Sleppy, of South Bend, Washington, visited here this week with her sister, Mrs. S. P. Timberlake. She went up to Willamina last evening to visit her mother.

Miss Mary Burrows, a teacher in the Seattle schools who is visiting the family of her brother, C. F. Burrows in Portland, spent Monday in town. She was formerly a teacher in the Newberg schools.

Prof. Edwin R. Hadley who has a good position in the San Luis Obispo High School, California, writes that they will be at Berkeley this summer where he will attend summer school at the university.

The old Newberg House has been rented by W. E. Purdy to N. E. Schaubel, recently from Wyoming, who expects to open it up as a rooming house and possibly as a hotel. Mr. Purdy is arranging to move the building around to face east on Edwards street.

W. P. Heacock came down from Salem Monday to spend a few days at home.

Guy Bennett, of Vancouver, Washington, spent Sunday in town with W. A. King's.

J. H. Bidgood, who lives two miles west of town, is reported to be critically ill.

Born, on Thursday, June 16, at the Littlefield home here, to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson, of St. Paul, a daughter.

Fred Bent, a pioneer blacksmith in Newberg, died of pneumonia, June 12th, at his home at Springwater, Clackamas county.

Very interesting children's day exercises were given by the Sunday School of the Baptist church Sunday evening before a good audience.

Miss Louise Leatherman returned home to Albany to-day after visiting two or three weeks with her cousins, the Stannard girls.

R. B. Linville, who is attending the G. A. R. encampment at Astoria, was elected as a member of the State Council of administration.

Miss Jennie D. Miller came up from Portland Wednesday, preparatory to joining the Newbergers at the North Dakota picnic to-morrow at LaFayette Locks.

A company of Salem boosters, led by A. F. Hofer, are in town today working up interest in the approaching Salem cherry fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parker are happy in the recapture of Buster, their fine young Scotch Collie which was stolen from the farm on the hill several months ago. He was located near Sherwood.

Ed. Hatch, familiarly known as "snowball" in his prep. days in Pacific College, spent Sunday in town with friends. He has a responsible position in the wholesale department of the Woodard & Clark Drug Company in Portland.

A. J. Barrell went to Rainier on a business trip Tuesday.

Sidney Root and C. S. Hulin joined the gathering of the old pioneers in Portland yesterday.

Everett McCoy and Miss Minnie Miller were married on Wednesday afternoon, the officiating minister being Rev. George C. Ritchey.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Smith and young son, cousins of Miss Lizzie Hibbs and Mrs. Maria Bowerman, arrived this week from South Dakota and may locate. Always room for another John Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Van Dyke, who bought a tract of land out from Newberg last season and who have been teaching at Pocatello, Idaho, the past year, are in town for a short visit. He is a brother of Elder S. P. Van Dyke.

At a meeting of the city council held Tuesday evening officers were chosen to preside at the special city election of July 5th, as follows: judges, first ward, N. E. Britt, second ward, A. P. Oliver, third ward, F. H. Caldwell; clerks, W. A. King, W. W. Nelson.

Since returning from California Frank H. Rogers has succeeded in selling his 5½ lots and two residences on Fifth Street. The two residences were sold to Mr. L. L. Dye and lot to Mrs. Alice Poe who is erecting upon same a neat cottage to be the future home of their son-in-law, Howard Sherlock.

Mrs. C. B. Frissel, a former resident of Newberg where she had many friends, died at Oregon City last week, after an extended illness, the funeral services taking place on Sunday. Her husband, Chas. B. Frissel, who was for some years the station agent here, died three years ago. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sawyer, who are also were known as former Newberg residents.

The four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heacock got one finger cut off and others injured, in a lawn mower, one day last week.

Rev. E. S. Greer, an Oregon pioneer of 1852, went down to the city Tuesday to attend the thirty-eighth annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association.

F. J. Deach and family moved back here from McMinnville the first of the week. Frank has been in poor health for some weeks and is far from robust yet.

Harvey Wright, a member of this year's graduating class of Pacific College, has been chosen to teach German and English next year in the Newberg High School.

Miss Veva Chapman, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hinshaw, arrived last week from Goldendale, Washington, and has taken a position as typewriter in the real estate office of White & Nichols.

The Young Peoples' Branch of the W. C. T. U. meets next Monday night at the Baptist Church at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to come and all young people are invited. The boys of the society will give a special program.

Miss Ethel Weed, who has been making her home here with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom and attending college and who was graduated from the academic department last week, returned home to Veronia Friday. She will return in the fall as a teacher in the Newberg schools.

Miss Mabel Miller, daughter of U. S. G. Miller of the Miller Mercantile Company, was graduated from the department of music of McMinnville College this week. The Miller family, Miss Grace Wilson and Mrs. Walter Wilson went up to McMinnville Monday evening to attend the piano recital which she gave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gardner returned home Wednesday from a two weeks' visit at Lebanon with his brother Roy and family.

"Fifty-two Elim Stations" will be the topic at the M. E. church next Sabbath at 11 a. m. At night the subject will be "Palm-tree Christians." All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kienle enjoyed a visit the first of the week from Mr. and Mrs. Heiden, of Spokane, who are out on their honeymoon. The ladies are cousins.

A fine new set of record books has just been purchased by the city council. There are seven of the ponderous tomes and they provide for complete records of all departments of the city business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lin Talbert, the latter a sister of Mrs. A. Buchanan, arrived Friday from Hesper, Iowa. They will spend some time visiting relatives here and at Salem, and will probably locate somewhere in this vicinity eventually.

J. H. Comer, who lived out west of town, died on Monday from cancer. He was born in North Carolina seventy-five years ago. The funeral services were conducted at the Hollingsworth undertaking parlors Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Elder H. E. Keim of the Brethren church.

Miss Alice Heater, who returned to Oregon three weeks ago from Philadelphia, came up from Portland Tuesday evening to visit Miss Sibyl Woodward. The girls went up to Chemawa today to visit Miss Gertrude Brewer. Since she left Newberg nine years ago, Miss Heater was graduated from Carlisle, after which she completed the nurse's training course in Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. Since then she has been successfully following her profession in the Quaker city. A pretty good record for a girl thrown upon her own resources.

AGENTS FOR THE ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS, STANDARD PATTERNS, UTZ & DUNN SHOES FOR LADIES, SINCERITY CLOTHES, FLORSHEIM SHOES FOR MEN

NEWBERG'S
POPULAR
STORE

Miller Mercantile Company

NEWBERG'S
POPULAR
STORE

Just One More Week and this Great Merchandise Event will be passed into history. We feel very grateful with the results of our efforts and the liberal patronage which this store has enjoyed during our First Anniversary Sale, and we fully realize that "No great commercial Institution was ever built on misrepresentation" speaks the truth, and the public will answer with their patronage. So for the next week we have gathered together all the broken lines from all departments—not many of a kind, but just enough to make it WORTH YOUR WHILE TO INVESTIGATE THIS, OUR GREAT

BIG CLEAN-UP SALE

Prices of all goods included, which will mean that our store ought to be crowded with happy purchasers from the opening till closing hours for THE REMAINING NINE DAYS OF OUR BIG FIRST ANNIVERSARY SALE

Which Will Close on Saturday Evening, July 2d

1 LOT OF MEN'S UNDERWEAR

A lot of men's underwear in cream—Ribbed Balbriggan; Clean-up Sale price per garment.....

39c

1 LOT OF MEN'S WORK SHIRTS

Lot of men's work shirts, heavy black and white twill, regular 50c seller; Clean-up sale price each.....

44c

1 LOT OF MEN'S SUSPENDERS

One lot men's suspenders, good values at the regular price; Clean-up sale price per pair.....

34c

All our new spring line of new wash fabrics—a splendid assortment of colors and patterns in Batiste, Tissues, fine French Ginghams; sale price

22c yd

On all white goods, Table Linen, Lace Cnrtains, Bed Spreads, Sheetting, Swisses, Towels and Toweling; Clean-up sale price discount.....

10 Per Ct

All ladies muslin underwear, good clean stock well made highly finished garments, entire stock; Clean-up sale discount

10 Per Ct

LADIES SATEEN SKIRTS

One lot of ladies black sateen skirts—good cloth and well made. Clean-up sale price for this First Anniversary sale

89 cents each

All of our fancy waist and suit silks; Clean-up sale price discount

20 Per Ct

All of our large stock of Embroideries; Clean-up sale price discount

10 Per Ct

All of our 15 cent Ginghams during this First Anniversary Clean-up sale.....

12c a yd

All of our 12½ cent Ginghams during this First Anniversary Clean-up sale.....

11c a yd

WHITE MUSLIN SKIRTS

One lot of show room samples of ladies' white muslin skirts. Regular prices $1.00 to $5.00. Clean-up sale price is

50 cents and up

100 PIECES

Cotton Dress Goods, all kinds, values to 35c yd. These accumulated during our sale, are 2 1-2 to 5 yards long. Have placed all on one table for Clean-up sale. Sold in the mornings only for

5 cents the Yd

WE ADVISE THE EARLY MORNING SHOPPING