Former Newberg Girl Married.

The following is the account given in Sunday's Oregonian of the marriage of Miss Mabelle Cooper, who grew up in Newberg where she has many friends: One of the June weddings was solemnized Wednesday evening before a large number of friends, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper, 1060 East Taylor street, when their daughter, Mabelle, became the bride of Burgess F. Ford. The ceremony was read by Dr. T. B. Ford, of Hood River, father of the bridegroom. Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of "Lohengrin," played by Miss Leonora Magins. She was gowned in white crepe de chine over silk, cut en traine. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Her only attendant was Miss Katherine Romig, of Newberg, who wore a gown of blue silk, with gold lace trimmings and carried pink sweet peas. Mr. Ford was attended by his brother, Olin F. Ford. Shortly before the ceremony, Dr. George Ainslie sang, "I Know a Lovely Garden." The two large drawing-rooms and hall were filled with marguerites and clematis. The dining-room was in red roses. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Myrtle Chamberlain.

The bride was a student of Pacific College and the bridegroom is a graduate of Willamette University, and took post-graduate course at North western University, Chicago. He is now in business with his brother in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Ford left Wednesday night for Seattle and Victoria, B. C., to be gone two weeks. Their home will be at 1067 East Main.

On the Trail of Dr. Cook.

The first of a series of several articles by C. E. Rusk, describing the adventures of the Mazama party now attempting the ascent of Mount McKinley will appear either in the August or September issue of The Pacific Monthly. It is expected that this party of four thoroughly experienced and splendidly equipped mountaineers will be able definitely to settle the problem of that famous mountain and ascertain with absolute impartiality, and without prejudice to any man, the truth regarding the conflicting claims of former parties. The expedition was organized in Portland by the Mazamas, the most noted mountain-climbing club of America, and is supported by The Pacific Monthly, the Portland Oregonian, the New York Herald and individual members of the Mazamas.

Mr. Rusk, the leader of the party, owing to his experience, personal integrity, innate sense of justice, and expert training in gathering evidence, is peculiarly fitted for handling the Mount McKinley task. The articles will be copiously illustrated from photographs by the expert photographer of the party, and will undoubtedly form one of the most unique and interesting of contributions to the literature of mountain-climbing.

Rabbitville Shortcake.

Strawberry shortcake is now in season at the Bunco house. It is short, very short, on strawberries and long, very long on short cake—not shortcake, but short cake. And they is munny in the bizness for no one has been found brash enuff to eat the short cake, so the two short cake they have will do the season out, for they fill it up with strawberries again and use it over and over and over and over and over and over—ad lib forever, or until sum feller gets hylarious and commits suicide by eating of it.

In these times of high prices everybody has to pay. Even the oyster is compelled to shell out.
