

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

W. Hitchen has bought a half interest in the grocery store with J. H. Wilson.

Come to the ice cream social on the lawn of the Baptist church Tuesday evening.

Jesse Edwards is excavating for a cottage on the west side of College street between Fifth and Sixth, which is to be built of brick.

Elwood Minchin, who is clerking in a hardware store at Hood River, is down on a vacation and is visiting his parents near Dundee.

W. S. Bean and wife were in Portland the first of the week laying in a stock of groceries for the new store which he will open next Monday.

It is rumored that the S. P. is contemplating putting on an exclusive Newberg and Portland passenger train. A good way to get a lead on the Oregon Electric.

Rev. Scofield, who was at one time pastor of the Baptist church in Newberg, has been in town during the week in company with his wife. They reside in Coos county.

James Shoemaker, a young gentleman from Portland, came up Sunday to look at the country and returned in the evening, having located a claim here—in the region of Lovers' Lane!

Kingsbury, Carey & Hallock, of Portland, have been selected as the architects for the new First National Bank building and are working on plans and specifications for the same.

W. G. Bennett was down from his Dundee home Wednesday. He says they have the water piped to the house from a fine spring and are now fixed to keep things green about the door yard.

C. H. McCeady and wife, of McPherson, Kansas, and Mrs. C. A. Broliar, of Cascade Locks, spent the first of the week in town visiting the J. F. Ridenour family. The ladies are sisters of Mr. Ridenour.

Rev. A. J. Weaver has accepted the call of Friends church to remain another year as pastor and will enter on the third year with the local church in this capacity. He is not only loved and appreciated by the membership but is held in high esteem by the public at large who will be glad to know that he and his estimable wife are to remain in Newberg.

Rev. F. C. Stannard, pastor of the Baptist church, read his resignation to his congregation Sunday morning. The church has taken no action on it yet, and the members are making a vigorous, concerted effort to persuade him to reconsider. The pressure upon Rev. Stannard, both by members and non-members, is so strong that we hope and believe he is wavering in his thought of leaving.

Miss Lenora Parker, assisted by Mrs. W. S. Parker, gave her class of Sunday school girls a jolly time Tuesday afternoon and evening in the way of a picnic spread in the canyon back of the college. The girls were Ruth Hinshaw, Lucile Dixon, Frances Elliott, Lydia Ehret, Leona and Angie Smith, Jessie Range, Lesta Newlin, Lorena Keeney, Esther Hodson, Anita Kelsey and Grace Benson.

Fred McDonald was arrested in San Francisco the first of the week on a charge of embezzlement and running off from Glendale, Oregon, with another man's wife. The woman in the case who was found at the same hotel occupied by McDonald, declared there was nothing to the latter accusation and Fred denied the former. Gov. Gillette honored the requisition papers sent by Gov. Bowerman for his return and he will be brought back to Glendale to face the charge of embezzlement. It is claimed that he was operating a collection agency and kept some funds received belonging to others.

A grist of Pleasant View items came in too late for this week's issue.

Miss Dorothy Hull, who has been in attendance at summer school at the University of California, arrived home Monday evening. She is enthusiastic over her work in the university and over Berkeley as a fine college town.

John Heston, a former Newberg lad, whose home is now in Humboldt county, California, is in town with his wife. They are on their return trip from Montana and Eastern Oregon where he has been shearing sheep. He has followed this vocation for several years, and he now wears the belt as champion sheep shearer of the country, he having sheared 300 sheep in a day of ten and a half hours.
