Nellie Crow is going to Portland this week to attend school during the winter.

L. M. Parker has gone to his Morrow County ranch to remain a couple of weeks.

T. H. Thorne went to Portland Tuesday to get a new outfit for his express business.

Miss Downs, sister of Martin Downs, left for her home in the east the first of the week.

Charley Hubbard and his sister, Miss Sadie, enrolled as students at O. A. C. the first of the week.

From the present time up to October 20 voters may register. Better do it now lest you forget.

Mrs. E. Spaulding will go to Salem to live in a few days, much to the regret of her many Newberg friends.

Miss Jean and Master Jack Donovan arrived here from Victoria, B. C. on Tuesday and have entered college.

The Pleasant View Sunday School was closed last Sunday for the want of teachers, much to the regret of Enos Ellis, the Superintendent.

F. S. Black has sold his photo gallery to Chas. Bradley from Oregon City and contemplates going to San Diego.

Mrs. C. H. Nichols, Mrs. W. E. White and Joseph Hall attended the M. E. conference at Hillsboro two days last week.

Mrs. George Ramsey and daughter, who had been down from Willamina on a visit, returned home Tuesday.

Master Belden Clemmens captured the prize of $25 for the best collection of home grown stuff at the School Fair last week.

Mrs. E. J. Hoots has rented her property in Newberg and has gone to Oregon City to spend the winter with one of her daughters.

Services at St. Peter's Catholic church, Sunday, Oct. 2nd. Early Mass, 8:00 a. m., Instruction for children, 10:00, High Mass, 10:30.

L. M. Kirk who left Newberg with his family a few weeks ago, writes the Graphic that they have located at Hutchinson, Kansas.

Tyra Hutchens and family returned to their home in Portland the first of the week after having spent a couple of weeks here visiting.

S. A. Mills has rented the Forsythe property on College street. The daughters are already here and we hear S. A. and Mrs. Mills will come later.

R. W. Swink, of Dundee, who had been elected as principal of the Springbrook school has resigned and Russel Lewis has been elected to fill the place. Miss Markell will be the assistant teacher.

Mrs. Clough, wife of Dr. H. B. Clough, formerly of Newberg, who was down from their Washington home on business in Portland came out and spent Sunday visiting at the home of her uncle, J. H. Rees.

Wanted to Purchase.

One or two young, fresh, cows with calves. Grade Jerseys preferred. Address E. A. Sessions, 209 Abington Building, Portland, Oregon. 1t

J. D. Gordon had good success in nailing premiums in the horse show at the Walla Walla fair and he was also used as judge on horses in certain classes.

Please don't mention it, but a resident of the county seat who was in town Wednesday was heard to remark that there was "more going on" in Newberg than in McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lagree, of Mound Ridge, Kansas, were here last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brouillette. Mrs. Lagree and Mr. Brouillette are cousins.

Rev. Tufts who spoke on "Sabbath Observance" at a union service held at Friends church on last Sunday night is so well pleased with Newberg that he contemplates locating here.

A special invitation is extended to the public to attend the opening musical in the college chapel, this, Thursday evening. A special feature will be a Scotch duet given by Mr. Hull and Mr. Beuhler.

D. B. Smith has traded his University Park property to J. R. Finley, for a ten acre tract near Newberg on the northwest and will return here to live. Mr. Finley will occupy his property on Third street.

Miss Elizabeth Pearson, who had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ruth Heston for several months left for her home at Redlands, California, the first of the week. Mrs. Heston went with her as far as Portland.

Will Thomas, who traded his Carlton farm to Charley Jensen is a resident of Newberg again and is living on Franklin street. Will is one of the pioneers of Newberg and we are glad to see him back for roll call again.

Matthew Terrell arrived home from his visit with his son-in-law, L. B. Charles and family in Lake County Wednesday morning. He brought back a favorable report of the country and says the Newberg colony is prospering.

Earl Paulsen says he has been measured to fit the vocation of farmer and consequently he went to Corvallis the first of the week to enter O. A. C. for the purpose of learning up-to-date methods. Earl belongs to the steady class of young men and he will make good.

Mrs. James Heater brought to this office on Monday a sprig from a black cap raspberry briar that was full of berries in all stages from the first setting to well matured and well ripened berries. Pretty good showing for vines that have not been irrigated, considering the extremely dry season.

Anna B. Alsop and Eugene D. Smith were married Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of the officiating minister, Geo. C. Ritchey. Mr. Smith is a millwright of Forest Grove and Mrs. Smith recently moved into the property at the corner of 3rd and River streets. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Newberg.

Miss Edna Trueblood, of Indianapolis, who spent several weeks with friends in Seattle, stopped off in Newberg for a visit of a few days with her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Weaver. She left for home by way of California Wednesday morning, Mrs. Weaver and Master Harold going with her as far as Portland.

H. E. Keim, secretary and manager of the Apple Growers Association asks the Graphic to say that he has a call for a carload of apples and he would like to hear from those who have first class fruit. He says he finds it difficult to get fruit growers to respond with the necessary promptness when he gets a call from buyers.

The Pomona, California, Times says: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheldon entertained on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Bond, who is their guest, and at that time the announcement was made of the engagement of their eldest daughter, Martha May, to Raymond Forrest Sturges, of Newberg, Oregon, formerly of Excelsior, Minn.

Mrs. N. L. Wiley received the news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Lily Hiatt, a few days ago. The home of the deceased was in Whittier but she died in a Pasadena hospital after a lingering illness. The mother of Mrs. Wiley who is well known in Newberg, Mrs. Mary Jane Jessup, also fell recently and sustained a fracture of high bone.

C. F. Moore writes a very interesting letter, telling of the pleasant trip they had by water from Portland to San Pedro, California, and of the hospitality shown them in their new home at Whittier. They are now pleasantly located in their new home, with Paul in the High School and Miss Pearl attending college, while C. F. is again behind the counter of his own book store meeting the wants of the school children.

A few of her friends, gave a dinner party in honor of Miss Emma Dorrance Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. S. Parker. Covers were laid for eleven, and the place cards were suggestive of the future intentions of the guest of honor. The party consisted of Mrs. W. S. Parker, Mrs. W. A. King, Mrs. A. C. Seely, and the Misses Emma Dorrance, Pearl Cummings, Ione Hill, Jessie Britt, Lenora Parker, Mabelle Gardner, Jessie Gardner, and Sibyl Woodward.

On last Monday Victor Rees received a box of fruit from his brother Ralph, who is on the Experiment station staff of O. A. C., and has been engaged during the summer and fall about Medford and Ashland in investigation work among their best orchards. The box contained Yellow Newtown, Delicious, Bennett Seedling, Jonathan and Milo apples and Cornice, Bosc, Howell, Doyenne and Nellis pears, all very fine specimens. While the Rees family were not specially hungry for fruit the box was highly appreciated.

Will Pool was up from Portland last Saturday and Sunday visiting with his aunt, Lizzie White. He remarked that he was a little late in getting out the morning he started, and consequently it required about as much haste to make the train as he used back at Mooresville, Indiana, when a kid, in arranging his wardrobe on being informed that he might attend Barnum's show. Said he washed his face, neck and ears and dressed from head to foot in exactly five minutes by the clock. We knew Will in those days and we know also that all the boys regarded Barnum's show as being worth the price, and more, but most of us had more time for dressing—we slept with one eye open, lest we might forget.

Mrs. J. E. Eldridge brought to this office on Monday a limb from a peach tree of the Salway variety, well loaded with fine peaches, which she took from the orchard of W. H. Eagan on Mission Bottom above Wheatland. Mr. Eagan has the reputation for being one of the most progressive, diversified farmers in the Willamette valley and takes great interest in his chosen vacation. In his home place on the river he has 500 acres on which he successfully produces everything in the way of farm products, from grain, hops and potatoes to fruits and berries of all varieties. He has made good all along the line, and Mrs. Eldridge says it is a pleasure to look over the farm and see what well directed, intelligent effort in the growing of farm products will result in.

In the history of prune growing in Oregon there has probably never been a better season for taking care of the crop than the present one. The fruit ripened earlier than usual, enabling the evaporators to start in good season and the weather has been perfect. W. G. Allen who is managing the big Dundee orchard, said the first of the week that he had 250 tons of the dried product already in the bins, and with good weather continuing through the week he thought the total output would go beyond 300 tons. Think of 300 tons of evaporated prunes in one pile. Some one good in figures might make an estimate of the number of dishes of sauce it will make.

A jolly company of young ladies took by storm the home of Mrs. Ruth Heston Friday evening for the purpose of surprising her niece, Miss Elizabeth Pearson, who left the first of the week for her home in Redlands, California, after a six months' stay in Newberg. The ladies were detained at dinner with Mrs. Keeney until the guests had arrived, and on their return found a full house. Games progressed in the house and on the lawn until a late hour when an old fashioned taffy pull followed. With the joy of the evening a sadness was felt over the loss of Miss Pearson who has won many friends during her visit here and many expressed the hope that she would soon return to make Newberg her home. Those present were the Misses Eula Hodson, Lena Spangle, Lola Kaufman, Mary Barrett, Lenora Parker, Maud Switzer, Ruth Wiley, Lorena Keeney, Leota Howard, Laura Blair, Dorris Gregory, Myrtle Gause, Erma Heacock, Nettie Morse, Mary Morse, Sibyl Woodward, Jessie Gardner and the Mesdames Austin Keeney, Vin Vincent, E. A. Newby and W. A. King.

Lyman Boldon, of Ontario, Wisconsin, an uncle of Miss Lora Young, is out looking at Oregon and is much pleased with Newberg.

Mary Haworth who will be ninety-five years old at her next birthday anniversary, arrived here from Long Beach, California, last Saturday evening and will make her home with her son, Enoch Haworth who lives on a farm out southeast of Newberg. She was accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Haworth, and made the long journey without mishap or special weariness. She is in good health and sleeps well, and aside from a slight defect in hearing and some loss of memory she is quite well preserved.

Miss Lenora Parker and Miss Sibyl Woodward entertained the junior choir of the Friends church at the Parker home Tuesday evening. A merry time at games and refreshments followed the evening's practice. Those present were the Misses Hazel Comer, Eula Colcord, Alberta Anderson, Myrtle Range, Hazel Elliott, Florence Kaufman, Lorene Otis, Retta McDonald, Gertrude and Esther Hollingsworth. The fellows were Henry Keeney, Ralph Otis, Lester Moore, Omer Gause, Clarence Kienle, Russell Parker, Leo Kyes, and Clair Williams.

Meth. Episcopal Church.

Rev. W. C. Reuter has been appointed as pastor of the Newberg M. E. church for a second year. The subject of his first sermon next Sabbath morning will be: "Rainbows" based on the text, "And there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald." Rev. IV-3. At night Rev. M. T. Wire, who is a graduate of Northwestern University Evanston Illinois, and who for several years filled the important office of secretary of the Oregon Conference, will occupy the pulpit. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

A number of Atchison women whose hair on their head is growing there, are so proud of it there is talk of organizing All Our Own club.

When a girl comes into the parlor with a white dust on her clothes, the young man may believe she has been near the flour barrel, but every woman knows better.
