

The Adams

The ADAMS WASHER—We said "Washer," not "machine." It has no machinery, no cogs, no springs, no levers, no oil required, it runs on ball bearings, and has no wearing parts.

The Adams effects by agitation in three minutes what it requires other devices fifteen (15) minutes to accomplish—make us prove this FREE—we're willing to send you an Adams on trial. You would not take $100.00 for it if you couldn't replace it with another Adams. Guaranteed for five (5) Years.—260 weeks use at 3 or 4 cents per week.

When It All Started.

When Adam met Eve he was bashful and shy, And he stammered and blushed every time she came nigh, Till at last he grew bold and began to pay court

(You may put all your trust in this faithful report,) And he murmured to her on an evening serene, "You're the prettiest girl that I ever have seen!"

And that's how that started. When Eve, with a beautiful blush on her face,

Yielded shyly and sweetly to Adam's embrace, And put up her lips for the true lover's pact

(You may put this all down as an absolute fact,) She inquired, while he breathed the fond names on his list:

"Have you said that to all of the girls you have kissed?" And that's how that started.

When Adam asked Eve if she would be his bride,

She looked up and looked down, and she sighed and she sighed, And she let him take hold of her lily-white hand

(This is history now, as you must understand.) Then she said, in a voice that was dulcetly low:

"I must take time to think. 'Tis so sudden, you know." And that's how that started.

When they had been married a few years or so, Then Adam told Eve: "We're invited to go

To a dinner and dance with some friends down in Nod." (This is truly authentic, although it sounds odd.)

Eve replied with a sad and a sorrowful air: "I can't go. Don't you see, I have nothing to wear?"

And that's how that started. —Wilbur D. Nesbit, in Life.
