Mrs. Helen D. Harford was called home from the lecture field a few days ago on account of the illness of Mr. Harford who is now much better. Mrs. Harford has been appointed to the position of National Superintendent of Christian Citizenship for the W. C. T. U.

Expansion is the word just now with S. W. Potter, in anticipation of a big holiday trade. He has a force of men at work remodeling his building inside and out.

Miss Jessie Britt wishes to say that the use of her name in endorsement of a correspondence school of music, whose agent was in Newberg this week, was without authority.

Jesse Cook who came out to Salem on business from the Spaulding logging camp on the Luckiamute the first of the week, spent Monday night in Newberg with his daughters.

The road near Thomas Miles' and also the hill by S. W. Atkinson's are reported to be in need of repairs. These roads are the main thorough fares and are passed over each day by the rural carriers. Good drainage is needed at once or the roads will become impassable.

Mrs. Guy Adams and little son, of Los Angeles, visited at the home of E. H. Woodward from Friday evening until Tuesday morning, when they left for Cottage Grove where they will visit with her sister, Mrs. L. S. Hill, before returning home. They have been on a visit to Iowa.

G. H. Allen has bought a thirty acre tract of land some eight miles out from Portland in Washington county, on the electric line running to Forest Grove, where he proposes to get close to nature and do the granger act. Sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Allen go but hope they may beat the beater in growing big pumpkins for the fairs. They will probably take possession of the farm about the first of the year.

Elder George C. Ritchey arrived home from his trip east last week and is again enjoying family life in Newberg. Besides attending the great gathering of the Christian church held at Topeka, Kansas, in which he took a prominent part, he assisted his brother in holding some special meetings near Lincoln, Nebraska, where the latter is pastor of a church. He reports a very pleasant and profitable trip.

Morris Heacock, who has established a sash and door factory at Bay City, the only one in Tillamook county, is in town with his family who came out some time ago. In coming out he hoofed it forty miles up the beach to Seaside where he made connections with the railroad. He says they are expecting a large influx of beach goers from Portland and the valley with the completion of the railroad to Tillamook next season.

Sheriff Watt Henderson was down from McMinnville Monday making some inquiry as to the standing of our fellow townsman H. M. Williams, who made the run for sheriff on the prohibition ticket. He said that while Whiteson went wet, Williams received more votes in that precinct than he or the democratic candidate received and he is anxious to get onto the combination that was worked to bring about such a result.

Miss Blanche M. Graham was married Wednesday afternoon to Mr. James L. Shoemaker, of Portland, Rev. W. C. Reuter officiating. The wedding took place at three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents after which Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker took the afternoon train enroute for some point in Washington. On their return the young people will make their home in Portland. Miss Graham has given faithful and cheerful service to the patrons of the Mutual Telephone Company for several months and will be greatly missed.

J. M. Rittenhouse has sold his confectionery business to a new man in town named Sweet who has taken possession. Mr. Rittenhouse says he intends to build on a four acre tract he recently purchased of S. J. Madson, being a part of the Grafe mill tract lying on the north side of Chehalis creek.

Ross and Dan Wohlgenuth, forwards; Lee Robinson, center; Carl Conrad and Claire Fessler, guards.

In order to improve the service, the Newberg Telephone Company is increasing the switching capacity of the office sufficiently to allow room for two more operators, one of which will be added at once to work through the busy part of the day, and the other will be put on when the business demands it. Quick service and courteous treatment is what the public demands, and this is what the company proposes to give.

Theo St. Pierre has sold his gun and bicycle store to John Crosby who will continue the business. Mr. Crosby has taken a five year lease on the fifty foot lot owned by Mrs. F. H. Browning. The building used by Mrs. Browning for a photograph gallery is to be removed to some other location, when it is the intention of Mr. Crosby to erect a new building on the lot to be used as an automobile garage. With the coming of good weather in the Spring he expects to be in a position to take care of the auto trade and will also run an auto livery.

A good sized crowd of farmers and others interested gathered at the H. W. Kramer pasture near the brick plant on last Saturday afternoon, to witness the free exhibition of stump blowing made by E. B. Merchant, through a representative of the Dupont Powder Co., and a good exhibition it was of the lifting qualities of powerful explosives. Four stumps of very large red fir trees were tunneled under and heavily charged with sticks of dynamite. All were connected by wire, and with the crowd at a safe distance, an electric battery completed the circuit and when the smoke cleared away the great stumps were seen to have been lifted and torn from their moorings. Other smaller stumps were blasted and all went away feeling that explosives are the thing with which to clear land of big stumps.
