

Locals and Personals

E. S. Craven was up from Portland on business Friday.

Remember the Library benefit on the 28th and 29th of April.

Dr. Spang is closing his office in Newberg and will return to Portland.

A number of Newberg people went to Portland Wednesday to hear Roosevelt.

Watt Henderson, of McMinnville, made the Graphic a call the last of the week.

John I. Hadley who spent three months seeing California, arrived home last week.

J. H. Moore, of Salem, was in town visiting with his family the first of the week.

Mrs. E. C. Hanson recently from California, is visiting at the David Martin home this week.

Miss Ella Moffitt came out from Portland Saturday evening to spend a few days with friends.

Harlan Smith and family, who recently moved to Portland, spent Sunday with relatives here.

John Pemberton, president of the Salem insurance company, was in town on business Wednesday.

George Metcalf was down from Salem the first of the week, visiting with his brother, L. M. Metcalf.

Arthur Hill was up from Portland Tuesday visiting at the home of his mother on Meridian street.

Sam Gardner and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday here with his brother, T. H. Gardner, and family.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. M. Bowerman Tuesday, April 12.

G. E. Kienle and family are now riding in a new Overland auto purchased of the Newberg Auto Co.

Mrs. Al Clark came up from Portland Wednesday morning for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. P. Dixon.

Elmer Hodson has been down from Willamina during the week attending at the bedside of his aged mother.

Mrs. B. C. Miles came down from Salem Sunday to hear her cousin, Charles E. Tebbetts at the Friends church.

Ed. Hess, who sold his barber shop in Newberg a year ago and went to Oklahoma, arrived here Wednesday with his family.

Miss Dorothy Ehret left Wednesday for Redmond, expecting to spend the summer with her uncle, Carl Ehret, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Pemberton, of Salem, have been in town for several days, visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Crozer and family.

Mrs. W. E. Terrell left Friday for Pasco, Washington to visit her brother, Walter Kirk, and family, Mrs. Kirk recently having died.

Miss Lulu Trueblood, of Portland, who toured Southern California with Miss Pearl Cummings, visited the latter here over Sunday.

Demsey Smith was down from the Goodnough hills country on the upper Columbia the first of the week, calling on his many Newberg friends.

The entertainment which is being prepared by local talent for the benefit of the public library on the 28th and 29th will be one of the best of the season.

Mrs. Priscilla Hodson died at the home of her son, Emory W. Hodson, on North Meridian street, this, Thursday morning at 3 o'clock at the age of 82 years. Funeral services will be conducted at the home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Robert Horning has moved his candy kitchen from North Main street to the building vacated by Leavitt & Hardwick, corner of First and Main.

Cashier Fred Epler, of the Bank of Sherwood and owner of the electric light plant in that growing city, was in Newberg on business Wednesday.

W. S. Montgomery, of Hood River, in company with W. E. Campbell and W. B. Gaunt, of McMinnville, called at the Graphic office Tuesday.

Owners of autos are complaining of boys throwing stones as they pass. Parents will do well to make investigation and administer the proper remedies.

W. P. Pleasant and family are arranging to leave for their former home at Bristol, Tennessee within a few days. They expect to remain several months and may stay permanently.

John Larkin informs the Graphic that it is likely that the company will rebuild the milk condensing plant, if satisfactory terms can be made with those holding the outstanding bonds.

Mrs. Albert H. Sherer, of Dayton, Ohio, who had been visiting in Southern California for several weeks, stopped off here for a visit last Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Weaver.

Leavitt & Hardwick, who were located on the corner of First and Main streets, have purchased the building at 109 Main street, which they have been remodeling and fitting up for their real estate office.

J. J. Hagman and Wm. Schaad have been down from Butler during the week. Mr. Schaad is a good roads booster and he says he is engaged in a campaign of education along this line in his new location.

Mabel C. Higgins, daughter of B. F. Higgins, who came out from Michigan recently an invalid, died at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland last Monday. The remains were brought to Newberg for burial.

Mrs. Dr. N. Morrison went to Portland Tuesday evening to attend the wedding of her niece, Arna G. Tamplin, and take in the Roosevelt parade on Wednesday afternoon, returning home Wednesday evening.

John Brown, who is up on a business trip from California, was in town Monday in company with Dock Smith, of Portland. They took a look through the new college building and were much pleased with it.

The Misses Lillie Harrison, of Portland, and Maude Hosfelt, the latter a trained nurse from Seattle, were in Newberg the first of the week, visiting with their former High School classmate, Mrs. J. B. Hollingsworth.

Seth A. Mills received a carload of Overland autos the first of the week direct from the factory at Cleveland, Ohio. The machines are housed in the new garage on College street which is nearing completion, where they may be seen.

Mrs. Marie Holst, the mother of Charley Holst, died on Tuesday morning at the age of 85 years and 11 months. The deceased was born in Denmark. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. C. Stannard on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Mills arrived home from their trip to California the first of the week and report a very pleasant time visiting relatives and friends and sight seeing. Their son, Lewis Mills, and wife who have been located at Haywards, a suburb of San Francisco, for some time, returned with them with the expectation of remaining.

Warren Merchant, of North Yamhill, an uncle of E. B. Merchant, was in town Wednesday. For a number of years he was connected with the Portland stock yards, but he says under the new regime the methods in vogue became to questionable and he retired.

Remember the Easter sale to be given by the ladies of the Friends church Saturday, April 15. Come and get aprons, sunbonnets, baby dresses, bags, ties and fancy articles, also bread, pies, cakes, canned fruit, jellies, candies, colored eggs, etc. Place announced next week.

Abner Blair was up from Portland the first of the week feeding at the table of his brother, A. T. Blair north of town, where he said he was served with real cow cream of the yellow "yum, yum" brand, the kind that touches the right spot and carries one's memory back to "first principles." He sold out his hardware business in Portland some time ago and is now traveling for the Remington Arms Co.

Miss Pearl Cummings invited in a few friends Wednesday evening to a treat of California oranges; real ripe, sweet ones which she brought from the south. The invited guests were Mrs. A. C. Seely, Mrs. M. M. York, Mrs. F. E. Vestal, Mrs. W. A. King, Mrs. E. A. Newby, Mrs. H. E. Gordon, Mrs. W. S. Parker, and the Misses Jessie Britt, Mabelle Gardner, Jessie Gardner, Sibyl Woodward and Margaret Hodge.

An elderly lady while waiting at the railway depot Wednesday morning, took a good look at the erect form of one of our worthy county officials who was standing near, and whose hair is neither black nor brown, and remarked in an undertone to the Graphic scribe, that Mr. — did not have a white hair and that he looked as young as ever. All of which goes to show that said official is carrying the honors and responsibilities of the office with becoming poise and easy grace.

The singing birds, the babbling mountain brooks and the bright sunshine made such a strong appeal to Freeman L. Harford that resistance was no longer possible, and consequently he turned the key in the door of the print shop and hid himself back to the home nest at the foot of Chehalem mountain, where he will commune with nature and delve in the earth to make things grow. In this issue of the Graphic will be found a bit of verse from the pen of Mr. Harford, entitled "The Pilgrimage," which is well worth reading and doubtless many of the Graphic readers will appreciate the sentiment of it.

Rev. Charles E. Tebbetts, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Five Years' Meeting of Friends church, whose headquarters is at Richmond, Indiana, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Newberg in company with Mrs. Tebbetts. He delivered a number of addresses at Friends church, covering the various phases of foreign missionary work in a masterful manner, showing that he has a grasp of the subject that is held by few, if any other members of the church anywhere. He has been in the field lecturing since January, and will not reach home for some time yet.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will hold its regular meeting, next Sunday at 3:30, in the Baptist church. Subject, "The Old Oaken Bucket."

MARY E. SCOTT, Supt.

Some folks are forever planning ahead and figuring how to make chickens pay, and while they are pottering along with their plans and figures the hens and their broods are neglected.

There is no better time than now to set geese eggs. Set them under a hen, allowing her five eggs, which are about all she can conveniently cover.

Boys and Children's Clothes

Proper Clothes.

Our spring assortment of Boys' Clothing is the largest in this vicinity. It is our purpose to make our boys clothing one of the strongest departments in our store.

Knickerbocker suits in fancy worsteds; tweeds and serges—sizes from 5 to 16 years. Boy's School suits, long pants in all the new shades of tans and brown mixtures, just like the young men's styles.

THE "WIDOW" STRAP PUMP

A Dress Shoe—beautiful, graceful, dainty, right-up-to-the-minute in style—makes the foot look handsome. Every woman will admire its fine footwear qualities and Utz & Dunn's perfection of workmanship and material that would make it cheap at a high price.

Miller Mercantile Co.

Jesse Hobson came up from Portland last Sunday in company with a former schoolmate, Mrs. Butler who was on the way to her home in Iowa from a visit with relatives in California. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blair.

C. S. Calkins, who was down from Benton county Tuesday on business, spent his spare time, greeting his many Newberg friends. He said things were prospering on the farm and that he and the boys had been "making hay" during the fine bright weather of the past month.

The remains of Mrs. Jensen, the wife of Andrew Jensen, who died of measles at her home on the farm seven miles from Oregon City, were brought to West Chehalem, their former home, for burial on Tuesday. She left a husband and several small children.

Levi M. Gilbert came down from Rosedale last Sunday to attend a meeting of a missionary committee of which he is a member, and to hear the great sermon on foreign missionary work by Rev. Charles E. Tebbetts, of Richmond, Indiana.

G. P. Skelton will take an appeal to the Supreme court in the case of the city of Newberg against him for possession of the spring on his land for the use of the city.

Charles White and family came over from Scott's Mills in their machine Saturday afternoon, remaining until Sunday evening with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary White, and his sisters, Mrs. Thomas Miles and Mrs. Kentner. Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. J. S. Richie, accompanied the family for a brief visit at the Woodward home.

Economy in Painting Your House does not mean buying the paint sold at the lowest price per gallon. It means getting the paint that covers the most surface per gallon and gives the greatest number of years of service—in other words, the best value for your dollar.

ACME QUALITY HOUSE PAINT

costs less because it takes less and lasts longer. Let us show you pleasing color combinations, estimate quantity needed, or be of any other service we can, whether you buy or not.

Come in and get an Acme Quality Painting Guide Book and some color suggestions.

THE E. B. MERCHANT HARDWARE CO.