

See Our Specials in Boys Clothing. Men's Clothing and Furnishings to Please

HODSON BROS. CLOTHIERS & FURNISHERS

608 FIRST ST., NEWBERG

WANTED AND FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Horse and buggy
—J. A. Kersey.

Good brooms 30 cents each at Harts Hardware store.

FOR RENT—Store building 10x 36 feet.—White & Nichols.

FOUND—Bunch of keys. Owner call and pay for this notice.

N. C. Christenson sells Old Hickory and Milburn wagons.

MONEY TO LOAN—See Atty. B.
A. Kliks, McMinnville, Oregon.

FOR SALE—A good young mare for sale at a reasonable price.— J. H. Rees. 34

N. C. Christenson says, "A Blue Ribbon buggy will make you glad."

Remember the Blue Ribbon Line when you want a buggy.
Sold by N. C. Christenson.

A unique line of spring and summer millinery at Miss Hutch-en's store. Prices to suit. tf.

Heating stoves taken down, stored, returned and set up any time. $1.00 for entire summer.
—E. L. Evans and Son. 33

Dr. E. P. Dixon, the dentist, is ready to do all kinds of dental work known to the dental profession. Office hours, 8 to 12 and 1 to 6. 26 tf

FOR SALE—Twelve shares of stock in the Union Building Company, Newberg, at par, by Howard Evans, of Freewater, Oregon. 35

WANTED—Young man with references, to learn real estate business. Good pay from start.
Monarch Investment Co., 401-2-3 Behnke Walker Bldg., Portland, Oregon. 1t pd.

Highest market price paid for dried prunes and berries at H. S.
Gile and Co.'s packing house. tf

WANTED—One large or two small tents. Write or call on J. P. Dodge, corner of Fifth and School streets. 1t pd.

"Our Busy Ladies' Aid" will be given only on Friday evening, June 2nd, at the Presbyterian church. Price of tickets 25c.
Come and have a good laugh.

FOR SALE—Late cabbage, cow kale, pepper plants, celery, salvias, geraniums, cauliflower.— John Gower, East Side Greenhouses, Newberg.

BIG BARGAIN—Mrs. J. Groff holds an order on Eiler's Piano House in Portland for which she will sell at fifty cents on the dollar. Order may be seen at the Graphic office.

City Transfer Co.

We have associated ourselves together under the name of the City Transfer Co. and respectfully solicit a share of your business.
Call phone Blue 72 for Company's barn or Thorne's residence.
T. H. Thorne,
David Johnson.

Bids For Rent of Poor Farm and For Keeping Indigent Inmates Committed Thereto.

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned, until June 7, 1911, at 10 o'clock a.m., for conducting the County Poor Farm, bidders to state monthly rent they will pay for the entire use of said farm, exclusive of the rock quarry now located thereon, and monthly charge per person they will make for boarding and lodging and doing washing for county indigents committed to said farm. Right is reserved to reject any or all bids. By order of commissioner's court.
G. W. JONES,
No. 33 County Clerk.

Telephone Notice.

After June 1st no collector will visit the residence district, please pay Telephone bills at the New-berg Telephone office or at your place of business by the 10th of the month.

Newberg Telephone Co.,
No. 33 By E. E. Goff, Mgr.

Civic Improvement.

There will be an important meeting of the Civic Improvement Association Friday, June Second at the Commercial club parlors. All ladies are invited to attend. By order of President.
VERONA H. NELSON,
Secretary.

2t

Thoroughbred White Leghorn Eggs.

Trapnested stock, Tancred strain, extra winter layers. Settings or by the hundred. Will make prices right. Correspondence and visitors solicited.

E. HEOFER, Champoez, 17 tf. Route 5, Aurora.

Excellent Pasturage.

We have one hundred acres of excellent pasturage with plenty of water. Stock of all kinds taken. For terms. Address Wm. F. Fenton, Chehalem Mt.
Orchards, Route 3, Newberg. 1t

Sunset Magazine For June.

In Apple Land, by Walter V.
Woelke, beautifully illustrated in four colors, The Biggest Job in the World by Frank Savile, the present status of the Panama Canal. The Spell by the Williamsons. Ask your News Dealer.
34

Excellent Pasturage.

100 acres of good pasture with plenty of water. Parties desiring terms will please communicate with the undersigned. Wm.
F. Fenton, Chehalem Mt. Orchards, Route 3, Newberg. 36

National Educational Associa- tion, San Francisco, July 8-15.

For parties desiring to attend the above meeting a special round trip rate of one and one-third fare has been made by the Southern Pacific Company, from all points on its lines in Oregon.
Tickets on sale, June 1, 10, 20 and 30; July 2nd to 8th inclusive, with going limit, July 10th and final return limit, September 15, 1911. Stop overs allowed within limit.

For more detailed information, fares, etc. consult any local agent. 38

Wanted.

Dried prunes, fresh prunes, dried black caps, dried logan berries, for which I will pay the highest market price. Will accept delivery at Springbrook, Newberg or Dundee. Wm. Kincaid, Springbrook, Ore. tf.

Call for Meeting.

Officers and members of Vesta Rebekah Lodge No. 76, L. O. O.
F. are requested to meet at Odd-fellows Hall Saturday, June 3rd, at 8:00 P.M. to arrange for Memorial exercises.
Anna M. Fogle N. G.

ALTA B. PETERSON, Sec'y.

One of the neatest of parliamentary apologies, says a writer in the London Chronicle, was that of an irate member of the house who described another as "not having even the manners of a pig."

At the cry of "Withdraw!" he did so. "I withdraw and apologize and beg to say that the honorable member has the manners of a pig."

Whistling For Health.

Whistling is a good thing for the lungs. It is said that whistling boys are seldom troubled with bronchitis or pneumonia.

Many medical men sometimes urge patients with weak lungs to whistle as often and as much as they possibly can.—Science Gift-ings.

A GRAND OPERA STAR.

The Way a Great Singer Felt the Night of Her Debut.

I had been kept in such a constant state of happiness that the night of my grand opera debut seemed like a beautiful dream, writes Marie Rappold in the Delineator. I was eager—not fearful—to come face to face with the audience.

Heinrich Corried came to my dressing room. He had promised me a surprise for that night, and there he stood in the doorway in the costume of a chorister, so that he could be near me on the stage.
If there was a trace of anxiety left that dissipated it.

The muffled sound of the orchestra was rising. Somewhere a call-boy cried my name, and Mr. Cor-ried led me into the wings. I heard my entrance cue. "Watch the conductor," he whispered. Next moment I was on the stage. Faces everywhere and reaching to high heaven—that was the moment's impression of my first Metropolitan audience.

A wave of welcoming applause that swept the house was kindly meant, but disconcerting. It caused me to lose track of the orchestra.
But the conductor's eye was on me.
In a moment I caught his nod and was singing. The faces grew blurred and distant. A consciousness of the audience as many in one came over me. I found myself singing to that one. I had so wanted to sing to it, I dreamed of it.

My dream had come true, and I sang with joy in my heart—a joy that overflowed when I stood dazed and spellbound by the volley of applause and cheers. "Famose!" boomed the voice of Mr. Corried behind me, and I drank life's sweetest draft from the cup of success.
The end of the night was like the beginning. I remember it only dimly. But the three weeks of preparation, I shall never forget them.

Oscar Saenger always said I would sing in opera. But he insisted just as firmly that the right opportunity would not come until I was perfectly ready. It took me seven years to learn that lesson, and I advise every young singer to take it to heart.

Not Ashamed of Him.

An Englishman named Crowe was a fine classical scholar and a distinguished orator. He made his own position in life, even at a time when classes were far more seriously regarded in England than they are at present.

His father was a carpenter working in the town of Winchester and on the most loving terms with his son. One day the son, then an eminent man, was standing near the cathedral door talking to the dean and warden when his father passed by.

The old man was in his working dress, with his rule sticking from his pocket, and was evidently willing to spare the son a salutation, but the young Crowe called out in good Hampshire dialect:

"Here, fayther! If thee baint shamed of I, I baint ashamed of thee!"

Fans in Shakespeare's Time.

Fans in Shakespeare's time seem to have been composed of ostrich and other feathers fastened to handles. Gentlemen carried fans in those days. According to an old manuscript in the Ashmolean museum, Sir Edward Cole rode the circuit with a prodigious fan, which had a long stick, with which he corrected his daughters.—London Spectator.

A NEW CREATION WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

THE MERRIAM WEBSTER

The Only New unabridged dictionary in many years.

Contains the plith and essence of an authoritative library.
Covers every field of knowledge. An Encyclopedia in a single book.

The Only Dictionary with the New Divided Page.

400,000 Words. 2700 Pages.

6000 Illustrations. Cost nearly half a million dollars.

Let us tell you about this most remarkable single volume.

Write for sample pages, full particulars, etc.

Name this paper and we will send free a set of Pocket
Maps

G. & C. Merriam Co.,
Springfield, Mass.