Too Far Entirely.

A young married pair prominent in exclusive circles have a child who has just reached the age when its hands are simply way stations to its mouth—things reaching the former being sure to reach the latter and in the shortest possible space of time.

The father of this infant is forced for business reasons to travel a great deal and always has a mileage book on hand. This the youngster found one day and proceeded to devour.

When he was discovered he had used, alas, about 500 miles. The mother at once told her husband of her baby's destructiveness, and quick as a flash he responded:

"Really, my dear, don't you think that's going a little too far?"—Philadelphia Times.

It's Never Given Away.

"Pa," said Johnny, who is a persistent knowledge seeker, "what is a lawyer?"

"There isn't any such thing, Johnny," replied the old gentleman, who had been involved in considerable litigation in his time.

"But this book says that somebody was a great lawyer," persisted the youngster.

"Then it's a mistake," rejoined his father. "Law is never given; it's retailed in very small quantities at very high figures."

DUNDEE

Mrs. Imus made a business trip to McMinnville last Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Yoe, of Little Falls, Washington, visited her niece, Mrs. Frank Keyes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Miller are attending the Rose Festival in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Groth are spending the week with their daughter, Mrs. A. A. Parrett in Hood River. They expect to visit the Rose Festival on the way home.

Mrs. H. B. Powell gave a delightful dinner party on Wednesday in honor of the birthday of her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Powell. Mrs. Powell received many tokens of esteem from her host of friends and relatives and is to be congratulated upon having found the secret of keeping young in heart and feature. As one friend said, "She looks just as young as she did twenty years ago."

On Saturday there will be a basket picnic at noon on the school campus, followed by a program given by the children of the upper grades. It is hoped that Dundee will take a half holiday and enjoy the picnic with the young folks. Following the program what promises to be the most interesting ball game of the season will be played at the baseball park. The school boys and their young friends will make up a nine to compete with the married men's nine. The latter has been re-enforced by some well known old-time ball players who at their practice games are demonstrating their ability to "come back." A. A. Parrett is captain and has been promised the support of the following gentlemen: K. D. Hatch, H. B. Powell, L. L. Eddens, John Hearing, A. Livengood, Reinhart Groth, Clyde Ryan and Clarence Hess. Everybody come.

Mr. Fred Hess received the sad news last week of the death of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hornsby who was living at Camasville, Georgia. The news of her death was a great shock to her father who did not know that she was ill. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Hess in this his second bereavement in the last few months.

Miss Ruby Poole is spending a few weeks with her mother in Portland. Mrs. Poole recently received the news of her sister's death in the East and is much shattered in health from the shock.
