

Locals and Personals

Rev. Joseph Hepp, of Salem, was in town last Sunday.

Warner Mills and family were down from Dayton Sunday.

W. T. Macy and family were down from McMinnville Sunday.

State Forester F. A. Elliott, of Salem, joined Mrs. Elliott here Sunday.

Andrew Kersey recently removed with his family to Sisson, California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hoskins of McMinnville visited the home folks Sunday.

Prof. J. C. VanDyke, of Pocatello, Idaho, was in Newberg the first of the week visiting with O. M. Welch.

Miss Anna Rogers was up from Portland last Sunday visiting with the Misses Harriet and Leila Bixby.

Miss Elma Paulsen left this, Thursday, morning for "The Breakers" to attend the Y. W. C. A. conference.

Joaquin Ellis left here for New Mexico the first of the week in company with his cousin, Mrs. Webster and children.

Charles Hubbard left Friday for the Cascade Forest Reserve where he has a position as topographer for the government.

George M. Keiler who bought a fifteen acre tract of Ernest Heater some time ago, has arrived from Verdon, Nebraska.

P. J. Clibborn, a member of Dublin, Ireland, Y. M. of Friends church, came out from Portland to attend last Sunday's services.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris and sons, Ralph and Homer, were out from Portland Sunday visiting at the Woodward and King homes.

Mrs. William Manning, a former resident of Newberg, now living in Portland, has been in town for a few days visiting friends.

J. E. Moreback, a prominent merchant of Sherwood, in company with his family attended services at the Friends church Sunday.

Frank Moore, of Laurel, who has been working on a dairy ranch over in Washington for some time was in Newberg last Saturday.

Miss Berta Kirk and little brother are down from Spokane, Washington, visiting their aunt, Mrs. Walter Terrell, and other relatives.

Miss Ethel Weed, who taught in the Newberg public schools the past winter, returned to her home at Vernonia Wednesday, to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln West attended Yearly Meeting Sunday, coming from Salem in their machine and bringing with them L. M. Crozer and family.

At the annual school election held Monday, G. W. Best was elected director without opposition, in place of J. C. Hodson whose term had expired.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd Ong, of Portland, who for several years were residents of Newberg, were in attendance at Friends Yearly Meeting the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bales, who were residents of Newberg for several years, are here from Hollister, California, and will remain for some time. Hollister is a city of some 3,000 inhabitants and has nineteen saloons with all the accompanying side lines that go with booze shops.

Charley Leavitt reports the sale of the George Woolston property, corner of Illinois and Main streets to J. L. Marshall. Also the Lindsey White farm on Chehalem Mountain to Mr. Arney and his nephew, and a lot on Howard near Fifth to Mr. Bellmire.

George Lea, of Cottage Grove, is in Newberg on business with the city council.

Mrs. Will Paxson went to Dayton Wednesday to attend a funeral of a former neighbor.

Frank Evans was down from Salem last Sunday calling on some of his young lady friends.

L. M. Gilbert and daughter, Miss Marjorie, of Rosedale, visited relatives here over Sunday.

W. G. Allen and family came down by automobile from Salem Sunday, returning the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vickery of Lafayette greeted old friends on the Yearly Meeting grounds Sunday.

Virgil Hinshaw, attorney and prominent prohibition speaker, of Portland, came out Saturday evening to attend the temperance meeting at the Friends church.

Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Mills and daughter Helen have been down from Corvallis during the week visiting a host of relatives and friends in Newberg and Springbrook.

The sawmill force went on a strike the first of the week on account of the discharge of one of the men, but they reconsidered their action and returned to work.

In the Rex school district Gottlieb Schaad was elected director and N. L. Wiley clerk at the annual school meeting. Mr. Wiley has been on the board for twenty years.

Mrs. Frances Litter who has been engaged in missionary work in Douglas, Alaska, for the past year, arrived in Newberg Thursday evening to attend Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Attorney Whitney L. Boise, of Portland, in company with Mrs. Boise and some lady friends passed through Newberg Monday on their way home from a trip to Meadow Lake.

C. E. Bentley, a cousin of Mrs. George Morris, with his wife and three children who live at Ozawie, Kansas, were here the first of the week. They are out for a short trip seeing the Northwest.

Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Ong, the former a student of Pacific College and now a prominent physician and surgeon of Portland, came out in their machine Sunday to attend Yearly Meeting.

Prof. and Mrs. John B. Weed, of Whittier, California, have arrived for their annual summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Weed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heater near Springbrook.

Aunt Jane B. Votaw and her grand-daughter, Miss Kathreen, came from their home in Tacoma last week and were given a very warm welcome by their many friends in Newberg. It was the remark of all that Mrs. Votaw looked scarcely a day older than when she left Newberg.

There was rejoicing in the Paulsen home Tuesday over the return of their daughter and sister, Miss Nellie, who has been absent for two years. Since her graduation at Penn College, Osakaloo, Iowa, she has been teaching at Marshalltown, in the same state. She is also a member of the class of '07, Pacific College, and a host of young friends are glad to welcome her home.

L. W. Nordyke, who left Newberg a few months ago for Iowa, writes requesting S. A. Mills to secure an auto license for him in this state as he intends to make the overland trip from Iowa to Oregon with his family in an auto some time during the season. Mr. and Mrs. Nordyke made many friends during their residence of a few months in Newberg who will be glad to see them return.

After considerable delay work is to begin on the sewer contract Friday.

Miss Katherine Votaw, of Tacoma, Washington, was the guest of Miss Mamie Marr Monday evening.

Miss Eula Hodson left Tuesday evening for California. She will visit friends in Berkeley and several others points before returning.

Miss Isole Ewbank who has been the guest of her friends the Misses Nell and Lillian Reuter for several days, returned to her home in Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Behnke, of Seattle, has been visiting her brother-in-law, A. T. Behnke and wife for the past ten days. She returned to her home on Wednesday.

William D. Comer, of Seattle, spent a few days the first of the week with Mrs. Katherine Comer and family, returning to Portland Tuesday evening to meet Mrs. Comer who was returning from Pasadena, California, where she spent the winter months.

Prof. W. J. and Mrs. Reagan and little one took their departure for Illinois on last Saturday evening, many of their friends going to the station to see them off. He will do work in Chicago University during the Summer while Mrs. Reagan will visit with her parents at Neoga, Illinois. At the opening of the new school year they will go to Wichita, Kansas where he will do work in Friends University.

Miss Mabel Beck and Miss Eunice Lewis, both instructors in Pacific College, left Tuesday morning for Berkeley, California, where they will attend summer school at the University of California. Miss Myrtle Gause accompanied them and will visit for several weeks with relatives in Berkeley. At the close of the course Miss Beck will go to her home at Highland, Ohio, to remain until the opening of College next fall.

Miss Vera Seely has just returned from a week's stay in Lafayette where she was helping Rev. Edith Hill Booker in the Evangelistic services held there. The meetings were a success and proved a blessing to the town. Miss Seely is home for a vacation of about three weeks, at the end of which time she expects to go to the Chataqua at Gladstone where she will sing for Rev. Edith Booker, who will speak in the forum every other morning.

You'll Want a New Suit of Clothes for July 4th

You'll take a lot of pleasure in wearing the kind of clothes we'll sell you; they are more than simply clothes; they'll give you a comfortable sense of being well dressed. That's worth a good deal. These clothes are made for us by Hert, Schaffner & Marx.

Florsheim Shoes for Men

Utz & Dunn Shoes for Women

The two greatest lines of shoes on earth for style and service, for comfort and satisfaction. We have them in all leathers both black and tan, regular heights and oxfords.

Groceries

Especial attention is given to our Grocery department. Everything neat and clean. Just phone us your wants and we will do the rest. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Miller Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Amanda Donovan Laughlin died Wednesday at the home of her son, A. W. Laughlin, in Newberg, at the age of 68 years.

Mrs. George I. Montgomery, nee Esther Winslow, of Portland, visited her aunt, Mrs. L. M. Parker, Wednesday and Thursday.

Capt. Pike and wife left this, Thursday, morning for an overland trip by auto for Ashland where they will attend the annual G. A. R. Encampment. N. E. Britt will also go as a delegate.

Prof. R. W. Kirk, of Corvallis, visited his brother, Carroll, and family Saturday and Sunday on the farm north of Newberg. He returned home Monday to fill a place as lecturer in a Summer school for teachers. He will continue his work next year as Superintendent of the Corvallis schools at an increased salary.

Rev. J. D. Cook left for his new home at Waldport Tuesday.

L. M. Parker left for the Morrow county wheat ranch the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nelson have gone to Lebanon to visit with relatives during the festival week in that city.

Miss Mary Johnson, of Portland, who was a former student of Pacific College, was the guest of her friend, Miss Gladys Hannon, the first of the week. The young ladies were associated at Goldendale, Washington.

Prof. Albertson, principal of Central Academy, Plainfield, Indiana, in company with Mrs. Albertson, who is a cousin of Mrs. J. L. Hoskins and others here, attended Y. M. and visited in the meantime. They went on south and will attend the big Sunday School Convention in San Francisco.

Miss Grace Wilson is visiting with an aunt at Dayton.

S. R. Jones, a gentleman recently from Weiser, Idaho, has rented the C. F. Moore store room on First street and is preparing to open up with a stock of clothing and gents furnishings.

The following officers of the local chapter of The American Woman's League were elected at the last business meeting of the American Woman's League. Word of approval has been received from headquarters. Mrs. L. Hannon, president; Mrs. M. McDonald, vice president; Mrs. Mattie S. Hodson, secretary; Mrs. Maria Bowerman, trustee, and Mrs. Anna Newall, treasurer. Mrs. Newall will be the local business representative and will have charge of Magazine Subscriptions, the sale of Correspondent Courses and Art Wares.

FREE!

Cut your kitchen hours in two. Apply a little science to your kitchen work. This cabinet saves from 1 to 3 hrs. time each day

$25.00 ROUND TOP

DINING TABLE

with pedestal base and claw feet in quartered golden oak. 45 inch top, 6 foot extension

These splendid pieces of furniture to be GIVEN AWAY ABSOLUTELY FREE on

OUR OPENING DAY. Full details will be furnished at our store

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

400 FIRST STREET.

NEWBERG, OREGON