

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Horton were up from Portland the first of the week.

Attorney Clarence Butt made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

Mr. L. D. Collard made a business trip to Independence the first of the week.

Mrs. C. A. McArael, of Portland, is visiting in Newberg with Mrs. N. F. Byers.

N. E. Britt left for Ashland on Monday to attend the State G. A. R. Encampment.

Tyra Hutchins and family were out from Portland Sunday, visiting with relatives.

O. K. Edwards and family, of Portland, spent last Sunday in Newberg visiting with relatives.

Miss Jennie D. Miller has been up from Portland for several days, visiting at the Dr. Larkin home.

Will Vestal and family left this Thursday morning, for several days' visit with Mrs. Vestal's parents in Salem.

The Vosburg confectionery on the corner of First and Main Streets has been sold to a gentleman named Manion.

Chris Ehret, of Redmond, was in Newberg the first of the week, visiting his brother Henry and his father, Adam Ehret.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson and little daughter were over from across the river to attend the Rose Show Saturday.

Miss Beulah Blum, who is attending Business College in Portland, witnessed the rose show here Saturday and visited friends.

Prof. and Mrs. Eli Hadley came out from Portland Saturday evening to spend a few days with his brother, Lon Hadley and wife.

The Newberg fellows, who attended the V. M. C. A. convention at Columbia Beach, are at home again and report a splendid convention and a jolly good time.

The Misses Stella and Clara Hardwick were down from Salem the first of the week in company with gentleman friends, visiting their aunt, Mrs. C. J. Leavitt.

The Misses Grace Duncan, Elva Cory, Etta Andrews, Esther Wallen, Bernice Benson and the Benton sisters went to McMinnville last week to take teachers' examinations.

A nephew of ex-sheriff Penumbra Kelly, who grew up in Portland, made his first trip to Newberg Monday on business and was greatly surprised to see our city and its improvements.

Mr. L. Paulsen and son left Tuesday morning for their home at Virginia City, Nevada, after several days' visit with the former's brother, H. C. Paulsen and family at Chehalis Center.

Our old friend, F. T. Keyes though eighty years of age, walked down from his home on the Red Hill farm three miles west of Newberg last Saturday to attend the Rose Festival, and appeared to stand the jaunt as well as a youngster of twenty.

W. R. Everest brought to the Graphic office a few days ago sample apples from a seedling tree growing on his place, that have the appearance of being a cross between the White Winter Pearmain and the Yellow Newtown. The apple is a good keeper.

Miss Ruth Bell, daughter of Mrs. Emma Bell, who has had a good position as stenographer in Portland for several months, returned home last Thursday. She was compelled to give up her work on account of poor health and will remain with her mother for some time.

J. H. Wood, a former resident of Newberg, was up from Portland the first of the week.

Prof. Ernest Jackson, of Portland, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Clifford Terrell and family.

Mrs. Frank Post, of Portland, visited in Newberg the first of the week with the McNay families.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoskins entertained with a royal feast for their McMinnville children Sunday.

Judge W. M. Ramsey has opened a law office in McMinnville. His card will be found in the Graphic.

F. C. Mills and Fred L. Ames went to Portland Wednesday to get some fixtures for their house-moving outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills came down from Salem Wednesday to attend the Miller-Sherwood wedding.

Arthur Benson and Leo Kyes left for Pendleton Wednesday evening where they will take up the harvester's burden during vacation time.

Miss Edna Broom arrived the first of the week from Minneapolis, Minnesota, and will be the summer guest of her aunt, Miss Mina Langton.

Mrs. E. Heddeleston and little one of Red Lodge, Montana are in Newberg visiting with Mrs. George Morris. They were formerly neighbors in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Rieker, wife of Rev. G. J. Rieker, who has been in a Portland hospital for several weeks, returned to her home the last of the week and is improving slowly.

George Hardwick is back again at his old stand on the corner of First and Main streets selling second hand goods, he having traded his real estate interests at West Woodburn for the stock.

Mrs. G. E. Stretch left here for Eastern Iowa Tuesday evening in response to a message announcing the death of her mother. She will be gone about a month.

J. Hammer, of Oregon City, was in Newberg the first of the week visiting with Dr. Stuart. He spent some time in the doctor's office in the study of medicine two years ago and expects to resume his studies in the near future.

J. G. Bennett came over from Vancouver, Washington, Sunday evening for a brief visit with W. A. King. He said that while nearly all the hardware firms in the country report a falling off in business his store shows a good per cent of increase.

Last week W. S. Stull made the trip by auto to the Black Eagle mine which several Newberg people are interested in, returning on Friday. Those making the trip with him were Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Timberlake and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor. They report a very pleasant and interesting time.

County Commissioner S. E. Cummins who was in Newberg Tuesday said his health had been none too good for some time, he having some trouble in the intestines that so far has failed to respond to treatment. On Wednesday he went to a Portland hospital for an examination and possible treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hodson surprised themselves and their friends last Monday by deciding to pack their suitcases and leave on the evening train for a trip to Southern California. Besides visiting relatives and friends and seeing the sights they will attend California Yearly Meeting of Friends' church at Whittier which is now in session.

Dr. John S. Rankin and Master Larome made their first visit to Astoria last week to attend the K. of P. Grand Lodge and report a great time in the city by the sea.

The city council is about buying the Otis spring located two miles east of Newberg, better known as the Myers spring, for the purpose of increasing the city water supply.

C. F. Keck who travels for a Milwaukee, Wisconsin house visited in Newberg the first of the week with Rev. W. C. Leuter and family. He and Mrs. Reuter are old-time friends.

Mrs. M. E. Allen who has been with her niece Mrs. E. H. Woodward for the past two weeks, went to Salem this Thursday morning to spend some time at the home of her son Will before returning to Eugene.

The sewer contractors shipped in a big traction machine for cutting the sewer ditch the first of the week, which looks like it would be death to moles and gophers that may get in its way.

E. L. Crain, of McLeod, Alberta, is in Newberg visiting with Henry Lane. He has a piece of land in the Alberta country but being an old-time printer he has been keeping busy in a print shop in McLeod where he says they get fancy prices for job work. Minnesota was his former state.

A. R. Mills, of Springbrook, who has never been quite able to get enough hunting and fishing in a single season, has accepted a position with the Southern Pacific as fire warden during the dry season and expects to be assigned to a district in the Coast Mountains on the Siuslaw river in a few days.

On Monday and Tuesday nights the Star Theater gave the entire programs to the reproduction of scenes from the Passion Play, portraying vividly the important acts in the life of Christ from birth until his ascension. The program was especially good and much appreciated by large houses.

Mrs. J. W. Zebley, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Heston, who had been here visiting for the past month, left for the Sound country last Sunday evening where she expected to join her husband. Before returning to their home at Dayton, Washington, they expect to visit friends in Tacoma, Seattle and Victoria, B. C.

You'll Want a New Suit of Clothes for July 4th

You'll take a lot of pleasure in wearing the kind of clothes we'll sell you; they are more than simply clothes; they'll give you a comfortable sense of being well dressed. That's worth a good deal. These clothes are made for us by Hart, Schaffner & Marx.

Florsheim Shoes for Men Utz & Dunn Shoes for Women

The two greatest lines of shoes on earth for style and service, for comfort and satisfaction. We have them in all leathers both black and tan, regular heights and oxfords.

Groceries Especial attention is given to our Grocery department. Everything neat and clean. Just phone us your wants and we will do the rest. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Miller Mercantile Co.

H. R. Morris who went to Hot Lake a short time ago, has been at home during the week. After leaving Hot Lake he came down the Columbia to the hot springs on the Washington side above the Cascades where he remained for several days. He finds the water there suits him best and he contemplates returning soon for an indefinite stay.

Dr. E. A. Romig was quite severely injured on the street near the home of his son-in-law, Chas. E. Fuller, in Portland Tuesday evening. In alighting from an electric car he in some way fell on the pavement and was rendered unconscious. His daughters, the Misses Ruth and Katherine went down to see him Wednesday morning and on the return of the former in the evening she reported him to be slowly recovering from the shock.

Abe Cooke came out from Cloverdale recently pretty badly knocked out as a result of exposure while digging clams on the beach. On Wednesday morning he took his departure for his old home in Minnesota where he will visit his mother who is now ninety-three years old. Before his return he will also visit a brother who lives in North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Holt made a visit to the L. M. Parker & Son's wheat farm at Morgan, Morrow county last week and have since traded their home just north of Newberg to the Parkers for their stock and farming outfit, and have leased the farm for a term of three years. In the outfit there are sixteen head of horses and mules and among the number there is said to be some extra good teams of heavy young mules.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Doolittle, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, are in Newberg visiting their son Dr. Doolittle, and will remain during the week. They are taking a look at the Northwest with a view of locating.

On last Saturday while a force of men were digging the ditch for the sewer in the river bottom the earth caved in, catching C. E. Yarnall and Bruce Parrish so firmly that nearly a half hour's time was required to extricate them. Yarnall sustained a fracture of one arm and Parrish was considerably bruised but both are getting along nicely. Thomas S. Shepperd, the foreman, says the earth had shown no indication of caving in and the accident was wholly unexpected. In the future he says due precaution will be taken to prevent a recurrence of an accident.

FREE!

Cut your kitchen hours in two. Apply a little science to your kitchen work. This cabinet saves from 1 to 3 hrs. time each day

$25.00 ROUND TOP

DINING TABLE with pedestal base and claw feet in quartered golden oak. 45 inch top, 6 foot extension

These splendid pieces of furniture to be GIVEN AWAY ABSOLUTELY FREE on OUR OPENING DAY. Full details will be furnished at our store

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

400 FIRST STREET.

NEWBERG, OREGON