STOCK RANCHES near the TIMBER, rich soil, water, wood, grass. An easy living for the man who has a place to trade and wants to get into a higher altitude. The winters are as a usual thing mild, and you get the cool air from the mountains in the summer. In the early morning you go out with hook and line and pull in enough trout for breakfast, or go out with your gun and kill a grouse. Your stock are grazing on the grass, or pasturing on the stubble after the grain is cut. You feed every thing you raise and drive your stock to the station and ship to Portland instead of hauling your produce out in a wagon. If you want something like this, come in and we'll try to give you a square deal.

Looking for a business in Newberg? We have a grocery to sell. Good location, but must change on account of health.

960 acres in Ferry canyon, N. W. of Condon, in Gilliam county. Over 600 acres tillable, 400 in fall wheat now, over 200 acres in summer fallow, $20,000. Would take a fruit farm near Newberg as part payment, and give good terms on the balance.

1100 acres 3 miles from Condon, good box house, large frame barn, sheds and granary, plenty of water. About 500 acres in cultivation, balance good pasture, sheltered from the winter storms. All fenced and cross fenced. This is one of the best stock ranches in the country, and is cheap at $20 per acre. Would trade for a small farm or fruit ranch near Newberg.

Farmers, if you have "something good" for the other fellow, come in and put it up and we'll try and work up a deal for you. A turn in the right direction might make you rich. See, White & Company, 705 East First street.

Thoroughbred White Leghorn Eggs.

Trapnested stock, Tancred strain, extra winter layers. Settings or by the hundred. Will make prices right. Correspondence and visitors solicited.

E. HOFFER, Champoege, 17 tf. Route 5, Aurora.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fortune have gone to the Soda Springs near Lebanon where he hopes to get relief from chronic kidney trouble.

Miss Clara Frossard, an instructor in history, music and literature in the schools of Carma, Idaho, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jennie L. Parker.

Mrs. G. Du Buisson, of Tacoma, Washington, has been visiting at the Dr. Larkin home for several days, she being a sister of Mrs. Larkin. With her little daughter, Dorothy Dean, she went to Portland Wednesday to spend a few days before returning home.

The Langton and Best ladies who recently went to North Dakota on a visit to their former homes, write that the pleasure of their visit is greatly marred by the hot weather and the diligence of the pesky mosquitoes. Possibly the "men folks" who were left at home to do the dish washing are not wishing for a sudden change in Dakota temperature.

On last Sunday morning Constable H. R. Morris received a message instructing him to meet the morning train from Portland and arrest and hold Wm. Saunders who was on the train. He did as requested and held the prisoner until evening when a deputy sheriff came out from Portland and took Saunders to the city. It was reported that there was an effort being made by the authorities to connect him with one of the recent murders committed in or near Portland. He is being held on a technical charge of stealing an overcoat. Saunders is the eccentric character who has been in and about Newberg more or less during the past year, and who poses as an expert in the treatment of diseases of fruit trees.

Rush S. Selders of 130 W. Broadway, Mishawaka, Indiana has written a letter to the "oldest settler" at Dundee, asking for information of an uncle, Anthony Selders, a wealthy bachelor who he thinks lived somewhere in Yamhill county and died about 1885. He will be glad to hear from anyone who may know anything of the lost uncle.

A. W. and Ralph Ellis had a close call at the gravel bank on the river opposite Dundee some days ago. At the dinner hour they left their wagons standing at the bank while they ate their lunch a little distance away. During the time the bank caved in and covered one wagon to such a depth that four horses and considerable digging was required to extricate it.

Mrs. A. E. Bowman and Master Otto left Newberg this Thursday morning for Spokane where they will visit with relatives, after which they will be joined by Mr. Bowman and son George, who are now at Hot Lake, and they will go to their new home in the Alberta country.

J. A. George who came to Newberg two months ago from Franklin, Nebraska and bought property on the Southwest corner of Fourth and Meridian streets was joined a few days ago by his wife, two sons and an unmarried daughter, and also by a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sprout.

Will Nelson arrived home from Lebanon the first of the week and Mrs. Nelson and Joe, who stopped over in McMinnville came two days later. They report a pleasant visit. The strawberry show was something of a disappointment as the growers and the merchants of the city who were promoting the "show" did not work in harmony. Lebanon has 1800 inhabitants and many good residences have been built in the past year but the business houses are not up to the standard.

Rev. Walter H. Wilson, formerly from Nebraska, will take the parsonage at Springbrook and preach at the Friends church there on Sunday mornings and at Rex in the evening.
