

Locals and Personals

Miss Margaret Hodge went to Independence to celebrate.

L. M. Parker is serving on the Federal grand jury in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Booth are down from Sheridan on a visit.

J. H. Moore was down from Salem for a visit with his family Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jackson are up from Portland visiting at the home of C. N. Terrell.

Postmaster H. M. and Mrs. Hoskins came down from McMinnville to spend a quiet Fourth.

R. J. Davey left for his work at Goldfield, Nevada, Sunday, leaving Mrs. Davey and little babe to follow later in the season.

Rev. Wm. Barnfather, who is out from the East looking for a location as pastor, preached at the Baptist church last Sunday.

N. D. Elliott, the Salem printer and little daughter, Maxine, came down last Friday to attend the funeral of Matthew Terrell.

A. W. Dimond, a linotype operator from Spokane, was in Newberg the first of the week, visiting with his brother, H. A. Dimond.

J. W. Coffin was down from Springfield on business for a day the first of the week and took time to shake hands once around with his old friends.

Fred Davies Jr., of Minneapolis, Minnesota, arrived in Newberg Thursday morning and will spend some time visiting with his uncle, F. A. Morris.

Sarg Britt and Charley Cavit have gone to the Santiam on a hunting and fishing trip and have promised the Graphic a fine string of fish stories on their return.

John Knowles who had been in Newberg for the past six months with his sister, Mrs. Mary Morris, left for his home in Oakland, California, the first of the week.

S. P. Timberlake and family attended the celebration at Sheridan Tuesday where Master Merritt distinguished himself and upheld the honor of Newberg by winning the boy's foot race.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Coulson came up from Portland last Monday. They will occupy rooms in the Cummings residence until the Walter Inman cottage, which they have rented, is completed.

Harvey D. Crumly has been assigned to government survey work for the season in Western Washington and will leave for his field in a few days. He will be accompanied by his right hand man, Clyde Carey.

Prof. Ralph W. Rees who came home to celebrate, said he expected to return to Medford soon to take up orchard work in connection with his position at O. A. C. He has been covering different points in the state for some time.

Attorney Ore L. Price and family were up from Portland Sunday visiting at the home of his father, Rev. James P. Price. They recently returned from a trip to Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky which they said they greatly enjoyed, despite the hot weather they had to contend with.

Dr. E. A. Romig whose injury by a fall from an electric car in Portland was noted last week, was worse hurt that it was first thought, and he has suffered intensely from the wound in the head. He is reported to be improving, however, and it is thought he will soon be able to leave St Vincents hospital where he is being cared for.

Frank Evans came home from Salem to celebrate.

Hon. J. C. and Mrs. Nelson went to LaFayette to celebrate and visit with relatives.

The new bridge over the canyon on First street was opened for travel last Saturday.

Mrs. T. E. Snyder has gone to make a visit with relatives at Glenwood and other points in Washington.

Elder George C. and Mrs. Ritchey are attending the big convention of the Christian church in Portland.

The report comes to the Graphic that G. E. Martin has sold the Telephone-Register to a new man from Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Luca and Mrs. Wernlie, of LeMars, Iowa, were in Newberg Wednesday visiting with their former neighbors, the Kienles.

Dr. C. E. McAyael was out from Portland last Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. McAyael who is visiting with Mrs. N. F. Byers.

The band concert, the program of which was published last week, was given at the park Sunday afternoon and was greatly enjoyed by the people.

E. B. Ridgeway is building a new fruit evaporator of the Like-fresh patent on his fruit ranch north of Newberg, which he is very much pleased with.

Mrs. Almira Davis, of Cleston, Washington, and Mrs. Campbell, of Bay City, were here recently visiting their brother, E. B. Ridgeway on his fruit farm north of Newberg.

Chris Smith and Harvey Wright took their departure on Wednesday for the harvest fields of Eastern Oregon where they expect to remain until the schools open in the Fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Acocock who had been visiting friends in Albany for two weeks, stopped off here the first of the week to see their daughter, Mrs. Lester Townsend before returning to Portland.

C. C. Hammerly of the News-Reporter, in company with Mrs. Hammerly, passed through Newberg on the Thursday morning train bound for San Francisco where they will spend ten days.

A fruit evaporator which had just been completed at LaFayette was fired up for trial last Friday and while the men in charge were gone to dinner, it caught fire and was completely destroyed. It is said the interested parties will rebuild.

Mrs. Mary E. Williams and sons, Richard and Claire have gone to Acme, Lane county, located near the beach, for a visit with her parents. They went by rail to Eugene, from which point they connected with a stage for a sixty mile ride over the mountains.

Miss Jones who lives in Breckenridge, Missouri, and has been visiting for three weeks with her uncle, John Pitts, of West Newberg, left Wednesday morning for California where she will visit before returning home. She is well pleased with Oregon and may come back here to live.

Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin, a former Newberg girl, has been elected queen of the Salem Cherry fair. At the close of the contest Saturday she had over 30,000 votes, making her at least 4,000 in advance of her nearest rival. She was christened "Queen Anne," her title coming from the Royal Anne cherry. Miss McLaughlin is stenographer for state forester, F. A. Elliott and is the daughter of William McLaughlin who for many years has been connected with the Spaulding Logging company.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith and son, Jay went to Newport last Saturday to spend the Summer months.

A man named Smith who was working with one of the wood saws in town had a finger amputated by the saw the first of the week.

Dr. John S. Rankin would be greatly pleased to get an interview with the fellow who borrowed his wheel when the clerk was not in.

J. L. Davis has been down from Hood River during the week visiting with his sons, Harry and Dr. A. M. Davis. He reports things prospering at Hood River.

Charley Baker and Dale True have leased the Bijou for six months and say that while they have the management, the pictures shown will be satisfactory to the public from a moral and artistic standpoint.

J. H. Conrad, aged about fifty years, died at the home of his friend, Mrs. Mary Alexander, on River street Wednesday, of jaundice. The funeral was conducted from the funeral parlors by Rev. A. J. Weaver Thursday morning.

S. A. Mills, Riley Kaufman, A. P. Oliver and C. Marsh went on a fishing trip by auto to the Nehalem river the first of the week but with rather poor success as the "signs" were not right for trout taking the hook. Owing to rains they had some difficulty in getting out of the mountains.

The Fernwood celebration is reported by those who attended to have been a great success. There were songs and recitations by the children and a patriotic address by Elder George C. Ritchey, a ball game by the Fernwood and Scholls teams, the former winning, and also other amusements that were greatly enjoyed. The attendance was large.

The readers of the Graphic have no doubt heard of green blackberries but probably few have seen white strawberries. A few days ago W. F. Fenton, manager for the Chehalem Mountain Orchard Co., brought to this office a box of the latter variety which is something new in this neck of the woods. They were of good size, thoroughly ripe and whiter in color than the ordinary strawberry before beginning to ripen.

W. C. Woodward, member of the faculty of Earlham College, Indiana, reached Portland Sunday morning on his way home to spend the summer vacation. His parents and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King brought him up home in the latter's machine in good time for Sunday dinner. He returns to the same position sometime near the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clemmens who are now classed with the largest growers of sweet peas in the state, were in Portland Saturday attending the sweet pea show where they had thirty-three varieties on exhibition, this being a larger number than any other grower exhibited. They were awarded a gold medal as first prize on the best collection. They now have forty-four varieties growing.

A very successful celebration was held at West Butteville where Will E. Purdy was chairman, Col. E. Hofer orator and music was furnished by the Parrott band. A full report of Mr. Purdy's introductory speech was furnished the Graphic which we could not take time to set up, owing to a day taken off by the office force to celebrate.

ONE LEFT THE HOUSE.
"What's the matter, Bilkins? You look discouraged," said Slithers.

"I am," said Bilkins. "I had to discharge the cook this morning. She was on the rampage all night."

"Fine!" laughed Slithers. "What did you say to her?"

"I told her to leave the house," said Bilkins.

"And did she?" asked Slithers. "She did," sighed Bilkins, "but you wouldn't know it for the same house after she'd left it."—Harper's Weekly.

The Faith of a Child.
A little boy whose grandmother had just died wrote the following letter, which he duly posted: "Dear Angels—We have sent you grandma. Please give her a harp to play, as she is short winded and can't blow a trumpet."—Vanity Fair.

It Nearly Killed Him.
"Medicine won't help you any," the doctor told his patient. "What you need is a complete change of living. Get away to some quiet country place for a month. Go to bed early, eat more roast beef, drink plenty of good rich milk and smoke just one cigar a day."

A month later the patient walked into the doctor's office. He looked like a new man, and the doctor told him so.

"Yes, doctor, your advice certainly did the business. I went to bed early and did all the other things you told me. But, say, doctor, that one cigar a day almost killed me at first. It's no joke starting in to smoke at my time of life."

If you want a dandy good Suit of Clothes

You'll take a lot of pleasure in wearing the kind of clothes we'll sell you; they are more than simply clothes; they'll give you a comfortable sense of being well dressed. That's worth a good deal. These clothes are made for us by Hart, Schaffner & Marx.

Florsheim Shoes for Men

Utz & Dunn Shoes for Women

The two greatest lines of shoes on earth for style and service, for comfort and satisfaction. We have them in all leathers both black and tan, regular heights and oxfords.

Groceries Especial attention is given to our Grocery department. Everything neat and clean. Just phone us your wants and we will do the rest. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Miller Mercantile Co.

FREE!

Cut your kitchen hours in two. Apply a little science to your kitchen work. This cabinet saves from 1 to 3 hrs. time each day

$25.00 ROUND TOP

DINING TABLE

with pedestal base and claw feet in quartered golden oak. 45 inch top, 6 foot extension

These splendid pieces of furniture to be GIVEN AWAY ABSOLUTELY FREE on OUR OPENING DAY. Full details will be furnished at our store

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

400 FIRST STREET.

NEWBERG, OREGON