LOCALS FROM SHERIDAN SUN

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Noyes and daughter Grace, and Mr. Williams drove over from Newberg Monday to take in the first day's events.

The case of Druggist Belt, of Willamina, who was last fined $100 in the justice court at McMinnville and sentenced to ten days in jail, was appealed to the circuit court.

E. H. Woodward, editor of the Graphic, left evidence of his call upon The Sun Tuesday during the absence of the force. If he will drop in again when our patriotism cools and we have forgotten the results of the ball game we promise to be real good.

A count of the horses at the various stables and those tied on streets and vacant lots on the 4th total nearly 1000. Add to these the 65 autos counted at the same time and one can get a fair idea of the number of people brought to Sheridan in these conveyances. Many came in by train, and a conservative estimate places the whole number of people here on Tuesday as exceeding 6000.
