

Locals and Personals

A. C. Seely was in Eugene on business the first of the week.

Frank Duncan was over from Hillsboro on business last Saturday.

County Assessor Martin Miller was down from the county seat Wednesday.

Herman Smith was up from Portland Sunday to spend the day with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wrage were up from Portland visiting with friends last Sunday.

Mrs. L. M. Parker visited in Salem with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Pemberton last week.

Miss Amy Harger returned home Tuesday from a visit with friends at McMinnville and Yamhill.

Dave Coyle has been up from Portland during the week visiting with his sister, Mrs. J. B. Mount.

Miss Laura Blair came out from the city and spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blair.

Mrs. C. A. Crabtree, Mrs. W. Boyes and children visited last Friday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wight.

Wm. Brooks came out from Portland the first of the week for a visit with his son W. B. Brooks, foreman in the Graphic office.

Mrs. N. N. Nonken, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. B. M. Nonken, at 415 West First Street.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Laplante, who are spending the summer in Newberg with their son Isaac, left last Monday for a few weeks' visit in Puyallup, Washington.

Miss Ella Macy went to Newport Tuesday where she will remain during the summer. She has leased the Miss Inglis' cottage at Nye Creek and will take roomers.

G. A. Graves, former owner of the Enterprise, who is now traveling as organizer for the Maccabees, spent a day or two in Newberg last week, visiting with the home folks.

Prof. Oliver Weesner left here on Monday evening for a trip to the home of his mother and sister near Mooresville, Indiana. He will return in September to resume his work as teacher of mathematics in Pacific College.

Mrs. Laura Terrell and son Robert, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, and Miss Beulah Robinson, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, are in Newberg visiting with Mrs. W. E. Crozer. Mrs. Terrell is a sister-in-law and Miss Robinson a niece of Mrs. Crozer.

Louie Adolph, a former resident of this section who is now located at American Falls, Idaho, has been here this week visiting with friends. In answer to the question as to how he liked his location he said it was a good country but not as good as this.

H. R. Morris and family arrived home the first of the week. H. R. coming from the hot springs of the upper Columbia, while Mrs. Morris and the little one came from Baker where they visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carter.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford who has been spending her time at home in the Chehalem Center neighborhood of late, responded to the second call from Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of Albany, on last Saturday and went to that city to aid in the W. C. T. U. Chautauqua program.

Dr. Bowers, having concluded to remain here, has purchased the Charley Baker home located a half mile northeast of Newberg and will complete the new residence which Mr. Baker had begun. After trying California he and Mrs. Bowers are content to remain in Oregon.

E. B. Sitton was over from Carlton last Monday on business with J. L. Hoskins.

Miss Ida Woods came out from Portland Saturday for a visit at the home of her mother.

Miss Jessie Angus has been up from Wilsonville for several days visiting her friend, Miss Jessie Britt.

Mrs. W. E. Terrell and children returned home Monday after a week's visit with friends in Salem.

Mrs. E. A. Newby and son were guests of relatives at Rose-dale and Salem during the cherry fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hurd, of Sandpoint, Idaho, are in Newberg, visiting their sons, H. C. and G. A. Hurd.

Miss Margaret Hodge visited at her home in Salem Saturday and Sunday and saw the finish of the cherry fair.

J. Carl Nelson is shipping his crop of Royal Anne cherries to Lang & Co., of Portland, for canning purposes.

Several Newberg people went to Salem to see the close of the cherry festival Saturday night, which proved to be a bedlam of noise more than anything else.

Mrs. Irene Heater spent two days last week with one of her daughters who lives in Portland, and who is afflicted with cancer.

A called meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the College is announced for 3 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, when important business is to be transacted.

The band boys have decided on the date of July 29 for making their trip to Bay Ocean Park where they will play for the Park promoters for two weeks, during which time they will be entertained free of charge.

Uncle George Sykes, the veteran promoter and speculator, was up from Portland on business Saturday. Just at present he is boosting a coal mine proposition up at Bucoda, Washington, one hundred miles north of Portland.

George M. Bales went to Portland Wednesday to meet his sister, Mrs. Mary Patterson and her daughter Nellie, of Kansas City, who are out on a trip visiting relatives and seeing the Northwest.

Mrs. Ella Pickett, of Waitsburg, Washington, who came for a visit in her old home community some weeks ago, left Saturday afternoon. After a short visit in Portland she expected to return to Waitsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Madson started Saturday morning in their machine for Springfield to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Shirley and family. Before returning they expected to spend a few days fishing.

Will Heston came over from Hemlock, Tillamook County last Saturday, he having been a resident of that county for the past two years or more. He is back to stay and will rent a small place in the country if he can find one to suit him.

Mrs. C. J. Hoskins, of McMinnville, spent the early part of the week with relatives in Newberg and on Tuesday took her old place at the postoffice window in order to let her sister, Miss Jessie Gardner, have a day off for shopping in Portland.

H. R. Morris, who has been a sufferer from chronic stomach trouble for several years, has decided to take the advice of physicians and submit to a surgical operation which he has been preparing for by a course of treatment at the mineral springs. The operation will be performed at St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland on Saturday.

A. Smith, who was working in a wood camp on Chehalem mountain, died Wednesday.

J. D. Kelty, of Polk county, was in Newberg the first of the week visiting his son, George L. Kelty.

Postal Inspector C. E. Clement came in this, Thursday, morning without previous announcement as his custom is.

Moyle B. Hurd, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hurd, died last Monday at the age of three years and nine months.

Mrs. A. G. Kelty and little son, the latter having been born in old Mexico, were in Newberg a day or two last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Kelty. The husband of Mrs. Kelty is a brother of George L., who has been located in Mexico for several years where he is interested in mining.

Miss Clara Frossard came out from Portland Friday evening and remained over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Parker and family. On Sunday morning Miss Frossard favored the Friends' congregation with a solo, sung in clear, sweet, high soprano voice.

Mrs. David Martin received a telephone message from Hillsboro Saturday telling of the death of Arthur Lyons, a pupil of hers here some fifteen years ago. He died at the open air sanitarium in Portland where Mrs. Martin had visited him a few weeks' previous.

Mrs. W. S. Bean and Mrs. Arthur Hodson spent last week visiting friends at Joseph, Walla Walla County, and on the Fourth they attended a celebration where Mrs. Hodson entered her baby boy in the baby show, taking first prize, thus upholding the standard for Yamhill products when put in competition with those of other sections of the universe.

On Wednesday afternoon a heavy smoke floated over Chehalem mountain from the north side, coming from the direction of the Pinney sawmill and causing apprehension lest the mill was burning. It is learned that a fire started in the brush where timber had been cut off immediately surrounding the mill seriously threatened its destruction, but a favorable wind carried the flames in the opposite direction and the plant was saved.

Anniver'y Corset Sale

Friday and Saturday, July 14 and 15

THIS is the fiftieth year for the Royal Worcester Corset Company and they have put on the market a CORSET and marked it "Golden Anniversary Special" which they instruct us to sell at 98 Cents. This corset is made of batiste, good length, well stayed, has extra good hose supporters and is a $1.50 value. These corsets are just in from the factory at Worcester, Mass., so you get new, up-to-date goods. We have only 10 dozen of this special and when they are gone can get no more. We can supply only 120 ladies so come early before they are all gone.

Miller Mercantile Co.

E. U. Will, the well-known piano tuner of Portland, was tuning pianos most of this week in Newberg. His next trip here will be in September.

Architects S. E. Watkins & Son are busy getting out plans for the proposed Carnegie Library for this place. Also a brick business building to be erected at Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Taylor and a niece of theirs are here from Mapleton, Minnesota, and are visiting with Mrs. Taylor's brother, Dr. Cornell and calling on the other former Mapleton people who are now residents of Newberg. Besides being president of the Mapleton State Bank, Mr. Taylor is an extensive stock buyer and shipper. This is his second visit to Newberg and he notes many changes that have taken place since he was here some eighteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flaughter, of Anderson, Indiana, who are out for a rest and a change of climate, arrived in Newberg Monday, coming here from Spokane where they spent three months. They are visiting at present with A. J. Palmer in the Chehalem Center neighborhood, Mr. Palmer and Mrs. Flaughter being cousins. They are pleased with the country and will remain for some time.

Prof. Fred C. Jackson, of the class of 1899, Pacific College, who holds a position as public school principal in Seattle, is in Newberg visiting his brother Ernest, and sister, Mrs. C. N. Terrell, and will remain for some time. Mrs. Jackson and the babe are visiting her father, E. Soper, in Portland at present, but will come to Newberg later. Fred's many Newberg friends are glad to greet him again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Baker and son, Morris, of Sheridan, were reported as fatally injured in a railroad wreck on the Oregon Trunk road, which occurred last Monday. The passenger train while running at 40 miles an hour struck a spread rail and went over a 40-foot embankment.

Mrs. G. W. Baker came out from Portland the first of the week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Morris. She with Mr. Baker and the children left Newberg a year or more ago and made the trip overland with a wagon to Illinois and later drifted down into Florida, but they failed to find any country that pleased them as well as Oregon and they decided to return. They say the Florida soil is poor and unproductive without the aid of fertilizers and irrigation.

A Delight to the Home!

OF INTEREST TO ALL HOME FURNISHERS

Nearly every man, woman and child in Newberg, and people outside the city as well, are keenly interested in

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons store's handsome

Kitchen Cabinet and Dining Table which will be given away absolutely FREE on our

Opening Day, Aug. 12th

Solid Quartered Oak Dining Table, Golden Oak Finish, 6 foot

Every Man, Woman or Child Has Equal Opportunity

You have until August 12th to try for these beautiful pieces of furniture. IF YOU HAVE NOT A TICKET CALL AT OUR STORE FOR ONE. Detailed information.

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

400 FIRST STREET.

NEWBERG, OREGON