

Locals and Personals

Miss Mary Cook has gone to Corvallis to remain a couple of weeks.

Miss Catherine Savings visited with Miss Minnie Kincaid at Springbrook last Sunday.

The B. H. Neal property on Fifth street has been sold by Charley Leavitt to Mrs. Sage.

Miss Grace Noyes left for an extended visit with friends at Bay City, Wednesday evening.

Nathan Cook has been out from the Black Eagle mine during the week taking a vacation.

Rev. A. J. Weaver went to Portland Wednesday to see H. R. Morris at St. Vincent Hospital.

Born, on Monday, July, seventeenth to Atty. C. R. Chapin and wife at 2143 Sheridan street, a son.

Marion George has leased his rock quarry to Fred F. Weimann instead of to the parties named last week.

Mrs. E. Crede and daughter, Miss Nellie, spent Sunday and Monday in Portland, visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Odell of McMinnville came down Monday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Will Paxon.

Tyra Hutchens and family of Portland, who are off on a vacation are in town preparing to take a trip to the seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King and little one, Mrs. E. H. Woodward and Miss Margaret Inglis went to Newport today, Thursday.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott and son John came down from Salem Tuesday for a short visit at the home of her father, Rev. James P. Price.

President Pennington and J. L. and Marvin Gilbert who are here from Indiana, went to Willamina Wednesday evening on a fishing trip.

Elder S. G. Lehmer, a wealthy orange grower of Los Angeles, is here the guest of H. H. Keim and is taking a look at the country.

Miss Fleeta Hill has returned home from Portland and has taken a position as sales lady for the Charles E. Lapp confectionery store.

Erwin Pease has quit his job at the Enterprise office and has joined his parents who located on a dairy farm near Monmouth some time ago.

Mrs. W. B. Sims came out from Portland Tuesday evening for a visit with Mr. Sims on the ranch and with her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Cummings in town.

Mrs. F. E. Vestal and Miss Minnie Ehret, two stand-bys at the telephone office, were absent from duty a few days last week on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Aris M. Sherwood were down from McMinnville Sunday, visiting at the home of Mrs. Sherwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. G. Miller.

Miss Alice Mendenhall and her father, of Hay Springs, Nebraska have been here during the week visiting with the Marshall family who are former Nebraska friends.

Mrs. R. A. N. Reymer, daughter of G. W. Byers Sr., who, with her daughter, had been visiting here for some time, left for their home at Grants Pass on Tuesday.

Laverne Philipps, of Brownsburg, Indiana, is in Newberg visiting his cousin, Mrs. Emma Bell. He is on his way home from Los Angeles where he spent eight months.

Miss Amy Grafe and Mrs. Harry Patterson and little one went to Gates, Marion County, Wednesday, where they will spend two weeks, visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Grafe.

Rev. Joseph Hepp, of Salem, was in Newberg last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Holt spent last Sunday at Forest Grove visiting Rev. Hiram Goulds.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles came down from Salem Saturday afternoon of last week.

Rev. A. J. Weaver made a short business trip to Salem on Friday of last week.

W. A. King and family and the Graphic family visited in Portland last Sunday at the home of N. C. Maris.

Mrs. Eli Haworth and children were up from Portland last Sunday, visiting with her brother, Prof. A. C. Stanbrough.

Chester Holt left here Monday evening for Morgan, Morrow County where he will work at harvesting on the Parker ranch.

Uncle Sidney Root made a business trip to McMinnville last Saturday despite the hot weather and his age of eighty-two years.

U. S. G. Miller left for his former home in Nebraska last Sunday in response to a message giving information of the serious illness of his mother.

Sanford Reece, of New Providence, Iowa, who is making a tour of the Coast, is in Newberg visiting his nephews Riley, Lee and Clint Smith.

Dr. E. A. Romig came home from Portland last Saturday and is resting at his home, he not having recovered sufficiently to resume his practice.

Mrs. Lizzie Judd who spent several weeks in this vicinity visiting at the home of her brother, J. H. Rees, and with other relatives left on Monday.

Kenneth Chase and Reid Smith left for Eastern Washington last Sunday to seek work in the harvest fields where crops are reported to be abundant.

A. E. Bowman and son George have returned from the hot springs and are shipping their goods to their new location at Airdie, Alberta, Canada.

Miss Edna Forsyth returned to her work as stenographer in Portland Monday evening, after having spent two weeks visiting at home with her mother.

L. M. Smith and wife came out from Newport Monday evening for a visit with Sanford Reece, an uncle of the former, who is out from Iowa on a visit.

H. R. Morris who went to the St. Vincent Hospital in Portland last week for a surgical operation for stomach trouble, stood the operation well and is getting along nicely.

W. A. King has sold his residence on North River street to W. D. Honens. After taking a vacation at Newport with his family he will begin the erection of a new residence.

J. W. Trew left here on Tuesday evening for Tonganoxie, Kansas, to be with his father, now past 80 years old, in what is supposed to be his last sickness.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, secretary of the State Library Association, was down from Salem Tuesday evening conferring with the library committee regarding the plans for the Carnegie library building.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Gilbert and sons J. L. and Marvin, of Wabash, Indiana, are in Newberg visiting their former Indiana friends, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rood and President Pennington and family. They came north from Whittier, California where a part of the family spent the Winter and Spring, and on the way visited Yosemite Park. Mr. Gilbert is a prosperous Indiana farmer.

Mrs. R. L. Booth came down from Sheridan Wednesday morning.

Rev. Duncan of the First Baptist church of Baker will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday, morning and evening.

Mrs. Sheets, the wife of Judge Sheets, of Columbus, Ohio, and her daughter, are in Newberg visiting the N. E. Britt family.

The members of Friends church will hold a lawn social at the residence of J. C. Colcord, this, Thursday evening. Ice cream and cake will be served.

Mrs. Hulda Ramsey has been up from Portland during the week visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Nelson Morrison who has been sick for two weeks.

A surprise party was given Saturday evening at Chas. Collimore's home on Tenth and Chehalem streets, in honor of Pearl Collimore. Refreshments were served.

Too much booze and auto speeding on the streets made business good in Recorder Nelson's court Wednesday afternoon. For further information see the records.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lemon and little daughter, of Albany, who are making a tour of the valley, were in Newberg Wednesday informing themselves regarding the price of real estate.

Will Vestal has traded his home in Newberg to George Walling for a farm of 66 acres located on Chehalem mountain. The exchange has been made and Will is now a full fledged granger.

R. M. Rosensteel left here Wednesday evening for Enterprise, Wallowa County where he will visit a brother-in-law and in the meantime look up a location for the printing business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Coulson were called to Portland on Friday of last week on account of the death of Mrs. Coulson's father, J. S. Fordyce, who had been an invalid for fifteen years. His age was 67 years.

Mrs. Agnes Wilson and children of Bremerton, Washington, who are spending the summer with her home folks, the Garlands in the Rex neighborhood, visited here Monday with the family of Granville Everest.

A very interesting letter written for the Graphic by Mrs. F. A. Hayes, formerly of the Chehalem Center neighborhood, will be found on the first page. Accompanying the letter were pictures of "Ye Olde Tavern" built in 1760, of which she speaks in the letter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hodson arrived home last Saturday from their trip to California and express great satisfaction with their visit. Like everybody else they say they found Southern California to be the meeting-place for everybody they ever knew.

Mrs. Harry Linley left for Seattle Tuesday morning to attend the Golden Potlatch and visit Mr. Linley's sister, Mrs. Streeter. She will go from there to Bellingham to visit Mr. Linley's brother.

On last Saturday evening Roy Slater took J. L. Van Blaricom and son Elgin and Riley Kaufman by auto to Corvallis. Mrs. Van Blaricom who had been visiting in Corvallis, returned home with them.

Dr. C. H. Newth and family, of Philomath, stopped over in Newberg one evening last week when on the return from an auto trip to Portland and visited with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom. On the following day Mrs. Van Blaricom went with them as far as Corvallis for a visit.

Miss Ione Hutchens is enjoying a vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Hutchens east of town. She has been for some time with a mercantile company at North Bend, for whom she makes trips to San Francisco each season as buyer.

Anniver'y Corset Sale

Friday and Saturday, July 21 and 22

THIS is the fiftieth year for the Royal Worcester Corset Company and they have put on the market a CORSET and marked it "Golden Anniversary Special" which they instruct us to sell at 98 Cents. This corset is made of batiste, good length, well stayed, has extra good hose supporters and is a $1.50 value. These corsets are just in from the factory at Worcester, Mass., so you get new, up-to-date goods. We have only 10 dozen of this special and when they are gone can get no more. We can supply only 120 ladies so come early before they are all gone.

Miller Mercantile Co.

B. F. Hevland and family were down from Amity on a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deach, the first of the week.

F. E. Vestal has sold his barber shop to "Cad" McKern, a former Newberg barber, and will take up some outdoor employment better suited for his health.

Rev. Elmer Pemberton, of Salem, was in Newberg a few days ago on business in connection with his position as Evangelistic Superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends church.

Postmaster C. B. Wilson and Lloyd Edwards joined the fans in Portland Tuesday afternoon and saw Portland win the opening game of the series with San Francisco by a score of 3-0.

H. W. Miller was released from the county jail on Thursday of last week, John Wortman, of McMinnville, standing for him as bondsman. His attorneys are McCain and Vinton, of McMinnville.

John Wortman, president of the First National Bank of McMinnville, was in Newberg on Thursday evening of last week and took a look through the new banking rooms of the First National of Newberg, expressing himself as being highly pleased with the rooms.

Miss Amy E. Hall, who had been visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. R. Rundell, left for her home at Siletz Wednesday morning. Miss Hall is living alone on a timber claim seven miles from the settlement and carries in her own supplies. The claim, which she is contesting, is said to be worth $12,000.

Pastor H. H. Kiem of the Brethren church arrived home from Myrtle Point, Coos County, Wednesday evening where he went to attend the District Conference of the church. He went in by stage from Roseburg, a distance of sixty miles over mountain roads, and came out by steamer, thus getting some new experiences in travel.

Bert Miller and Ralph Cook left here on Tuesday evening for the mountains of Tillamook County, loaded down with equipment for deer hunting. If the success the young men have had here at home in bagging game of this kind is to be taken as a measure of their prowess as hunters, they ought to come home with their arms full, and then some.

S. A. Mills left for Tillamook Wednesday morning with his auto, taking C. A. Hodson and family over for a visit with Mrs. Hodson's sister, Mrs. Edna Lamb. Charley will make a short stay, but will leave the family there.

George Barringer who sold his acreage property on Dayton Avenue some time ago, and who recently returned from a trip to Minnesota and Wisconsin, was in Newberg Monday. He said he had a splendid visit with his old time friends.

Attorney Ralph Williams, of Dallas, who is making semi-monthly visits to Newberg to plead a case, was in town last Sunday. It is currently reported at this end of the line that he is likely to get a satisfactory verdict without having to take an appeal.

Thos. Herd & Son have just completed the plans and have been awarded the contract for remodeling and building an extensive addition to the J. C. Wills residence in the Chehalem Center neighborhood, which will make it one of the best residences in that section. Work will commence immediately.

Mr. Howard Williams and sister, Vinnie returned the first of the week from Bellingham, Washington, where they were called on account of the death of their niece, Mrs. Bessie Avery Lewis who passed away after a brief illness of only two days, leaving a husband and two little daughters. Mrs. Lewis will be remembered by many young people in this vicinity as a school-mate in Pacific College.

The Heaton brothers who were over from Scholls this, Thursday morning gave information of the supposed drowning of Percy Jaquith in the Tualatin river near Scholls on Tuesday night. He left his home at 10 o'clock at night, and as he had not returned the following morning a search was made and his bicycle and clothes were found on the bank of the river. A large force of men spent the day dragging the river without finding the body. He is about 22 years of age and has been considered one of the best young men of the community. He is a son of a prominent family and has been a student of O. A. C. It looks like a case of suicide though no motive has been mentioned by his friends.

On Friday, beginning at ten o'clock, a W. C. T. U. institute will be held at Chehalem Center. In the evening a silver medal contest will be held. Bring a well filled basket and enjoy the day's exercises.

On last Friday morning a quick response to the fire call saved the R. B. Bass residence on East First street from destruction by fire. Fire from the cook stove caused the chimney to burn out and a spark set a blaze going on the shingled roof, which, with only a little more time would have been tanned into a flame that would have proved disastrous. Within a very few minutes from the time the fire whistle blew a stream of water was playing on the blaze and as a consequence the damage was slight; though some of the rooms were pretty well soaked with water.

Mrs. M. E. K. Edwards went to Sheridan last Saturday to conduct the funeral of Mrs. C. H. Baker who was one of the victims of the railroad wreck in Eastern Oregon. Mrs. Baker came with her family from Paoli, Indiana seven years ago, where she was a member of the Friends church. Up to two weeks ago they had lived at Sheridan when they left for the Deschutes country where they had purchased land. While on the way they were caught in the wreck. Since the death of the mother one of the boys has died from his injuries, Mr. Baker is hardly expected to survive, and a little daughter is also severely injured. Only last year Mrs. Edwards was called to Sheridan to conduct the funeral of a twin brother to the lad who was killed in the wreck.

Friends to the number of about thirty-seven either by intuition or otherwise gathered at the beautiful home of Grant Litchenthaler last Friday evening. It was a complete surprise to the family, but they soon sized up the situation, and like the Rocky Mountain bear hunter deciding that a retreat was impossible, permitted the intruders to take possession. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wright assisted in directing the evening's entertainment, and Earl Jones added to the same by giving two humorous recitations in his usual pleasant manner. Light refreshments, music, and a general good time preceded the "good nights," and "come again" from the smiling host and hostess.