

Locals and Personals

Mrs. J. D. Gordon has been visiting in Dundee this week.

J. L. Hoskins and wife went to Portland Friday for a few days' visit.

A. R. Cumpston, of Sellwood, was in town on legal business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore joined the pleasure seekers at Newport Tuesday.

Geo. L. Kingsbury, the Portland architect, was up on business the first of the week.

Attorney B. A. Kliks of the county seat was a business visitor in Newberg Saturday.

The Misses Emma and Julia Held, of Portland, visited in town Sunday with their brother, Chris. Held and family.

Pres. L. T. Pennington went to Rosedale, Marion County, Saturday where he preached at the Friends church Sunday.

Lois and Wendell Wilson went to McMinnville Monday evening to spend a few days with their aunt, Mrs. Cecil Hoskins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newby and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hoskins at Lents, the latter being an aunt of Mrs. Newby.

Christopher Mills and wife, of Portland, spent the day here Tuesday with old friends in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Finley.

Mrs. O. D. Pike and three children, of The Dalles, are visiting here this week with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pike.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of a son, William Allen, on July 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Metcalf at Eugene.

Mrs. Orlando Winslow, now of Goldendale, Washington, spent Sunday and Monday at the home of her brother, L. M. Parker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White took a very opportune time, Monday morning, for their departure for the cool sea breezes of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Range were over from Silverton the first of the week visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Range.

The Misses Esther and Iona Ellis took a vacation from the telephone service last week and enjoyed a few days' visit with friends in Portland.

Miss Hattie Rich, of Piedmont, California, who has been making a tour of the Northwest, visited here the first of the week with her uncle, John Illig.

The first of the union meetings of the summer will be held in the Friends church next Sunday evening. Rev. Geo. C. Ritchie of the Christian church will preach.

Mrs. Eva Miller Sherwood, who has been assisting in the Miller store during her father's absence, returned to her home in McMinnville Tuesday morning.

Charles E. Thornton who was formerly connected with the Newberg Hardware and Plumbing Company, was up from Portland on business the first of the week.

F. T. Keys, patriarch of the Red Hills, came down to town Tuesday and had a surgical operation performed on his hand for the removal of a cancerous growth. A little matter like that didn't seem to worry him in the least, despite his eighty years.

Traveling Freight Agent H. A. Hinshaw, of the Southern Pacific, was up from Portland Monday. He was accompanied by his son Harold, whom he expects to place in Pacific College in September.

Miss Mary F. Barber left for Central Oregon Tuesday, where she will spend some time with a sister.

W. O. Robertson and family, of Lebanon, are here visiting relatives and friends in their old haunts.

Mrs. J. E. Smith went to Milwaukie Saturday to stay a fortnight with her daughter, Mrs. Eva Mattoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. York and baby daughter, of Sellwood, were visitors at the Jesse Edwards home Sunday.

Prof. John B. Weed and family, of California, who are spending the summer vacation out at Springbrook, spent Sunday in town with Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Stanbrough.

Dr. Nelson Morrison came up from Sellwood Saturday to spend a few days at home with his family. Mrs. Morrison who had been ill for some weeks, is steadily improving.

Wm. Chapman, or "Uncle Billy" as he was familiarly known, pioneer citizen of Sheridan and one of the few surviving Cayuse Indian war veterans, died Saturday night.

Rev. R. H. Kennedy, of Gervais, and his father-in-law, F. L. Fornshell, of Salem, were here Wednesday sizing up the town and vicinity. The latter contemplates locating in Newberg.

The Newberg Baptist church, which has been without a regular pastor since the departure of Rev. F. C. Stannard, extended a call Sunday to Rev. Lovett, now of Action, Massachusetts.

B. G. Mitchell and family, of Portland, have been here for some days during the illness of Mrs. Mitchell's mother, Mrs. Joseph Langellier. Mr. Mitchell is connected with the Portland Y. M. C. A.

Geo. H. Himes, Oregon's general utility historian, made a hurried auto trip up into these parts from Portland Friday afternoon with an orchardist friend, but took time to make his accustomed call at the Graphic office.

Mrs. W. Chapman with Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Jones and son Junior, of Portland, and Miss Alice Himes, of Norman, Oklahoma, came down in Mrs. Chapman's auto Saturday and spent the day with the Misses Laura and Alma Craig.

At the close of the season J. Carl Nelson reports that he has shipped fifteen thousand pounds of cherries from their orchard. He says that with another young cherry orchard just coming into good bearing, their output should soon be fifteen tons.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright, old residents of Newberg, have been spending the summer with relatives in Indiana. A local paper from Union City, that state, is at hand telling of the celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wright at the home of a sister of the latter.

Miss Amy Hinshaw, of Goldendale, Washington, who was a student in Pacific College six years ago, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. E. Wright for the past ten days, the latter accompanying her to Portland on Wednesday. Miss Hinshaw will spend some time with friends in Hillsboro before returning home.

W. W. Beebe, of Castle Rock, spent the day in Newberg Thursday with his aunt, Mrs. J. A. Hughes. He came to get his little daughter Isal, who had been visiting here for some time. Mr. Beebe is a druggist by occupation and was so well pleased with surroundings here that he expressed a strong desire to return if conditions permitted.

L. G. Hulin, a Eugene business man, spent Wednesday here very pleasantly with his brother, C. S. Hulin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Coulson have moved into the new Walter Inman cottage on Fifth, between College and Edwards streets.

J. D. Gordon, accompanied by Editor Shaver, John Larkin and Geo. Kelty, made the trip by auto to Bay Ocean the first of the week.

Miss Clara Frossard returned from Portland Saturday in company with her friend, Miss Mitchell from Kansas. The young ladies expect to spend several weeks with the former's sister, Mrs. J. L. Parker.

The Baptists held an interesting outdoor service Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Behnke. An excellent discourse was listened to from Rev. R. G. Duncin, pastor of the First Baptist church of Baker City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stretcher, of Elwood, Indiana, who have been spending a few weeks in Portland, came up here the last of the week with Mrs. M. M. York, who showed them some of the attractions of Newberg and vicinity.

Mrs. M. Terrell, of Newberg, whose husband died recently, came in by auto Tuesday for a visit with her children, L. B. Charles and Mrs. Alice M. Noel, of Fort Rock, and L. W. Charles, of Silver Lake.—Silver Lake Leader.

It will pay any one at all interested in such matters to stop in at the workshop of Edmund Senn on east First street and see him at work in clay modelling. Mr. Senn is a sculptor of no mean ability, as well as a skilled wood carver, having mastered his profession under proficient instructors in Vienna and Berlin. At present he is working on two large figures representing music and the drama which will later be found in position in the archway of the new Star theater. Mr. Senn is an enthusiast in his profession and takes pleasure in showing visitors what he is doing and has done.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. H. Greer returned Monday from a very enjoyable two weeks visit around Puget Sound. During their absence they took in the Golden Potlatch at Seattle and attended a Washington Pioneer reunion at Steilacoom. At Tacoma they visited their son, M. W. Greer. Mrs. Greer was a pioneer educator in Tacoma and Pierce County, in which she was at one time county school superintendent. Both at Tacoma and at Lakeview social functions were given in her honor by old time students of hers.

Traveling Salesman Lerchen, representing the W. P. Fuller Paint Company of Portland, was in town Friday for the first time since the fatal automobile accident in which he was involved, on June 19th. He and his wife, together with a friend and wife and little one, while out in his new machine, were run down in South Portland by the fast going Oregon Electric. All were seriously injured and taken to the hospital, where Mrs. Lerchen died. He had been out of the hospital but a short time and is still lame.

On Sunday after church the Hoosier friends of N. F. Gilbert and family, of Wabash, Indiana, gathered in the shade of the oaks on the college campus and ate picnic dinner together. In the company were Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert and daughter, Miss Belle, M. P. Elliott, D. J. Gilbert, Albert Benson, Mack Kaufman and Rev. A. J. Weaver and their families, Mrs. Levi Pennington and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rood. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Gilbert and sons, Lemoyne and Marvin left on the afternoon train, accompanied to Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Rood. They took the scenic trip up the Columbia river on Monday.

Rev. F. C. Stannard was down from McMinnville the middle of the week.

Mrs. B. A. Shaver visited at Monmouth Sunday with her sister.

Silas Wallace of the Fair store went to Hood River Wednesday to visit his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Christenson went to Hillsboro this morning to visit their daughter, Carrie Duncan.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding moved the family headquarters to their Newport Cottage to-day for the remainder of the summer.

Arthur Baird received a rather serious injury at the sawmill Tuesday by getting a hand and arm drawn into the edger and severely crushed.

J. G. Bennett, of Vancouver, came up with C. J. Edwards in the latter's auto yesterday afternoon, spent the evening with friends and returned this morning.

The man in Newberg who has been detected trying to induce boys to drink intoxicating stuff, had better desist or leave town, else he will be kicked out. First warning.

Dr. Ranck, of Portland, a chiropractic, has come to Newberg to locate for practice, and is opening up office rooms in the quarters formerly occupied by Dr. Spang, on First street.

Miss Miriam Wright, of New-castle, Indiana, who spent the winter in Southern California, visited a day here on her way home the last of the week with her cousin, D. D. Coulson and wife.

Messrs. B. Clapham and W. E. Clapham, brothers, one an attorney and the other a business man, of Columbia City, Indiana, who are land prospecting, are looking at the country in this vicinity.

Chas. Morris, the jeweler, has purchased a lot of J. H. Wilson on Blaine street, opposite the C. K. Spaulding home. He contemplates building later, for renting purposes he says, "in the usual way."

Rev. Geo. C. Ritchie, pastor of the Christian church, made a trip to Eugene the first of the week to confer with Pres. Sanderson relative to the interests of the Christian Bible College there.

After a few days indisposition, Jasper Smith died suddenly Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock at the Smith home six miles up Chehalis Valley. The funeral services were conducted at the undertaking parlors this afternoon at 2 o'clock after which interment was made in the Ramsey cemetery. Happily, the various members of the family, who had been separated rather widely, were at home at the time.

Chas. Clark, of Iowa, stepped off the Portland morning train and hailed a few friends Monday as he was going through. He is on a summer trip to the Coast and had been up in Benton County, visiting his sister, Mrs. Claud Calkins and family. Mr. Clark will be remembered by several as a student of Pacific College some eight years ago when he was a member of the college debating team.

The editor is away, laving his feet in the wavelets of the Pacific. With the temperature ranging around ninety, the editor's traditional fighting togs prove irksome to the man at the desk. In the absence of the boss therefore, all old scores and grievances presented for settlement must be heavily discounted or else they will be submitted to The Hague. All complications arising under the present temporary administration, the pro tem man will stand responsible for on this one condition: that the difficulty must not be presented for adjustment before the middle of September. With a start of a few hundred miles between us and trouble, we're good for any man!

$4,000 TO $12,000

TO LOAN

On Improved FARM LAND

Apply to

F. J. COOK

206 Hamilton Building, PORTLAND, OREGON

U. S. G. Miller who went back to his old Nebraska home several days ago to see his mother who was ill, telegraphed the news of her death yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chambers and daughters, Rachel and Dorothy, of Williams, Pennsylvania, spent the fore part of the week here, looking at town and country.

The members of the Vesta Rebekah lodge gathered at the home of Mrs. Will Nelson Thursday evening for a social time. During the evening a token of appreciation was presented Mrs. W. L. Robertson for past services rendered in a musical way.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Reuter, their daughters, the Misses Nell and Lillian, Dr. Reuter's niece, Miss Sue Reuter, of Nashville, Illinois, who is visiting them and Miss Katherine Romig, went on a little picnic excursion up Lovers Lane into the Red Hills yesterday afternoon and evening. The drive was "personally conducted" by Frank Baird.

Ralph Cook and Bert Miller went out into the foothills of the Coast Mountains last week to hunt and fish. After the first night's refreshing sleep about a campfire, Bert awoke to find that it would take very little time for him to arrange his toilet—when he reached for his clothes and they were not! He had hung them too close to the fire the night before and none were left to tell the story. The boys resolved themselves into a committee on ways and means, the sequel of which was that Ralph loaned his togs to Bert and remained in bed while the latter took a ten mile walk in search of a "Gents Furnishing" sign. No insurance—loss complete.

DUNDEE

A. A. Parrett and wife have been spending a week or two at the coast.

Mrs. Charles Burgess and two sons, of Fossil, Oregon, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cyr.

Mrs. M. F. Spencer and daughters have broken camp at Otterbrook and have returned to their home in Portland.

Grandpa Keyes who was kidnapped by two of his granddaughters a few weeks ago, has been returned to his home, looking as though enforced automobile rides and double weddings of grandchildren were conducive to health and happiness.

Uncle George Robison, of North Yamhill, and Miss Winnifred Tilton, of White Salmon, were recent visitors at the Robison home.

Mrs. Mary A. Hatch and Miss Helen Hatch, of Portland, are visitors at Otterbrook.

Miss Carmen Wall, of Sherwood, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Keyes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chipman, of Gresham, and Mrs. James Jones with her daughter, Allie, spent a few days with the Misses Christopher and Young last week. Mr. Chipman is one of the rural mail carriers, of Gresham and during his vacation is making an automobile trip and surprising his friends and relations.

BIG BLAZE STARTLES

Continued from page 1

itself thoroughly on the occasion. With four streams of water playing for over an hour the water line in the tanks was lowered but three feet.

The fire companies had no little trouble in making the mile run to the river. The direct route down River street was obstructed by the open sewer ditches, sewer pipe, etc. and in making various detours one or two squads got lost in the suburban districts of the city. We choose to note this as a good advertisement of our growing city, rather than any reflection upon Newberg's patriotic and efficient Volunteer Fire Department.

Really, of more interest than the "awful holocaust" itself, was the immense crowd of people which found its way thereto within a few minutes. We were moral sure the census returns didn't give Newberg its dues and now we know it. It was the biggest audience that had ever been brought together in this town before. Indeed as it began to break up fears were entertained and expressed that lodging could not be found in Newberg for so many people!

REFERENDUM INVOKED

Continued from page 1

"and various other things too numerous to mention" according to the different angles of objection.

"Up to the people it goes then," declared the much harassed and long suffering city fathers. To buy or not to buy—that is the question which will accordingly be settled in a special election to be held Saturday afternoon, August 12th, at the City Hall, between the hours of one and six o'clock.

The Council has ordered the capacity of the Otis springs measured by an engineer that it may be more clearly known what is involved in the proposed purchase.

The Way Charlemagne Was Buried.
Charlemagne died in the forty-seventh year of his reign and the fourteenth of his title "emperor of the Romans." He was buried at Aix-la-Chapelle. His body is said to have been disposed of in the following manner: He was seated upon a throne of gold, clad in his imperial habits. He had a crown upon his head and was girt with his sword. He had a chalice in his hand, the book of the evangelists upon his knees, his scepter and gold buckler at his feet. The sepulcher was filled with pieces of gold, perfumed and sealed, and above a triumphal arch was raised with this epitaph: "Here rests the body of Charles the Great and orthodox emperor, who gloriously enlarged the kingdom of the French and governed it happily for forty-seven years."

Not a Cheap Skate.

They were seated at the breakfast table.
"John, dear," said the young wife, "this is my birthday."
"I'm glad you mentioned it, darling," rejoined her husband. "I'll buy you a present the first thing when I get downtown."
"Well," she said, "I hope you won't get any cheap ninety-eight cent affair."
"Of course I won't," he replied. "Why, I would be ashamed to present you with anything that cost less than a dollar."—Pittsburg Press.