

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Horton were up from Portland Wednesday.

Rev. A. M. Bray, of Rosedale, was in Newberg on business Wednesday.

Attorney Wm. M. Ramsey was down from the county seat on business Tuesday.

J. H. Wood, formerly a Newberg resident, was up from Portland on business Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Hannon went to Sherwood last Friday and remained until Monday.

Rev. F. C. Stannard traveling solicitor for McMinnville College, was in Newberg Tuesday.

J. Watson Baker is building a new fruit evaporator of good size on his fruit farm west of town.

Mrs. C. H. Wolf and two children from Tillamook are visiting with W. H. Galland and family.

Prof. Cramer, of Willamette University, spoke at the German Methodist church last Sunday evening.

R. M. Rosensteel, who is still looking for a location for the printing business, was in Newberg Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White came home from Newport the first of the week, bringing a good coat of tan and a grip full of agates.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Madson and Postmaster C. B. Wilson returned home Tuesday from a four days' fishing trip at the R. J. Booth ranch on the upper Willamina.

The American Woman's League will hold a special meeting on Tuesday, August 15th, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Mattie Hodson to nominate State Senator and Representatives.

J. O. Lyon has sold his home place on the corner of Ninth and Willamette streets to E. M. Haworth out east of town who is already occupying the same. Consideration $1400.

Miss Mina Langton, in company with her friends, Miss Edna Brown and Miss Martie Barber from Minneapolis, Minnesota, left Tuesday for a sight-seeing trip on the lower Columbia river.

Mrs. Jennie L. Parker, the well known nurse of Newberg, has secured a patent on a very useful nursery article which can be folded and carried in a hand bag. She expects to have it on the market before many weeks.

The Free Methodists are holding a district camp meeting at Hillsboro. Among those who are attending from Newberg are Rev. E. I. Harrington and family, Rev. N. Welter, C. H. Stoll and family, Miss Edith Graves, Mrs. Martha Rorabaugh and Miss Irene Adams.

Miss Nellie Whiffen, returned missionary from Santo Domingo, will deliver an address at the Free Methodist church, August 17, at 8 p.m. Her subject will be the manners and customs of that people, and will be very interesting. Some curios will be exhibited. Come and bring your friends.

County Commissioners Cummins and Calkins were here on Monday and let a contract to Robert Cook for grading down the hills at the bridge on Chehalem creek at the old mill. Dirt to the amount of 11,000 yards is to be moved and the contract price is 24 cents per yard. The grade is now 11 per cent and it is proposed to reduce it, on the south side to 5 per cent and on the north side to 4 per cent. This with the raise of two feet made in the new bridge will make a great saving in horse flesh and honk-honk juice.

Mrs. G. W. Cutts was up from Portland on business Tuesday. Mrs. W. A. Bitner, of Portland, is in town visiting with Mrs. E. Crede.

Robert McKern and Miss Emma Ashford, a Salem lady, were married last Sunday.

E. C. Lugar, a former resident of Newberg, was up from Portland on business Wednesday.

Axum Newby and family and A. P. Wallen and family left for the Nestucca Beach on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keller, the latter known in Newberg as Grace Haworth, were in town Sunday.

Frank Baird, son of J. W. Baird and brother of E. C. Baird the merchant, is here from Oklahoma on a visit.

Pres. Pennington is home from a ten days' trip in the Puget Sound country and British Columbia in the interests of Pacific College.

Mrs. M. P. Elliott, son Meade and daughter Mary drove up to Rosedale Friday to see her brother, L. M. Gilbert and family.

Mrs. E. J. Haworth and baby, of Portland, spent a few days in Newberg the first of the week with her brother, Prof. A. C. Stanbrough.

Mrs. J. B. Northup and her niece, Mrs. Florence Sage and son left Newberg on Monday for a visit with friends at Albany and Lebanon.

Henry Mills, of Pendleton, a friend of Henry Thorne, was in Newberg last Monday. He is a prosperous Umatilla County wheat grower.

L. S. Heacock who recently traded for a ranch at Stella Falls on the Little Nestucca, left here on Monday to take possession of his new holdings.

Robert Chown and family, recently from Sioux City, Iowa, came in Monday evening for a visit with their former friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hart.

Mrs. Emmet Newby and little son in company with her mother, Mrs. Samuel Gause, went to Grants Pass last Friday for a visit with Dr. H. C. Dixons.

Oliver Taylor and family, of Seattle, arrived in Newberg Wednesday evening for a short visit with his brother, J. F. Taylor. They came through by auto.

H. R. Morris is home from St Vincents Hospital, looking well and improving nicely. He is more than pleased with the surgical treatment he received.

Howard George, a son of J. A. George who lives on the corner of Fourth and Meridian Streets, arrived here from their former home in Nebraska last Sunday.

Arch Taylor who had been here on a visit with his brother, Jake Taylor, left for his home in Missouri last Friday. Mrs. Kyland went with him and will bring her mother-in-law home with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Smith, of Georgetown, Illinois, who are spending the summer with the latter's brother, John Shires, north of town, went on three days' trip to Newport Saturday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Shires.

Rev. S. P. Van Dyke of the Brethren church returned last week from Nebraska, where he has been for more than a year, and is again a resident of Newberg. Shortly before his departure from Nebraska he says he witnessed a rainstorm at Beatrice, when twenty inches of rain fell between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and two o'clock in the morning. Seventy-five bridges were washed away in one county and there was great loss of stock of all kinds by drowning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Otis visited with friends in Portland last Sunday.

Glen Macy was down from the county seat Sunday, seeing and being seen.

Miss Alice Christenson went down to Portland Saturday to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Henry Ehret and baby and Miss Dorothy went out on the three day Newport excursion Saturday.

County Assessor Martin Miller was a Newberg visitor last Saturday and attended the picnic across the river.

Mrs. Ella Stevenson, of Topeka, Kansas, arrived Saturday for a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. E. N. Hollingsworth.

Mrs. W. E. Allison and children took advantage of the over Sunday Newport rate and had their first view of the ocean.

Mrs. Maggie Littlefield, Master Hobart, Dr. H. A. Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ferguson went to Newport Wednesday.

S. P. Timberlake and family, C. C. Ferguson and family, Mrs. C. A. Crabtree, Mrs. Glen Gillette and Mrs. E. Dunbar went to Newport Monday.

Mrs. F. E. Davis and children, who had been here some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hawkins, returned home to Baker City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Strait and Mrs. Strait's mother were called to Aerial, Cowlitz county, Washington, Saturday by a telegram announcing the sudden death of the latter's son, H. J. Graham.

Rufus Davis, of Tacoma, a son of Sam Davis, a former resident of the Dundee section, has been in town during the week, visiting with Homer Parrett. Sam Davis is closing out his interests at Tacoma and will locate at Klamath Falls.

Dr. E. P. Dixon, Emmet Newby and Omer Gause went to Salem Thursday morning by auto where they took the train for Grants Pass for a hunting trip, and when Dr. Dixon is out in the mountains there is sure to be fresh meat in the camp.

The ladies' gold watch contest which has been on at the Star Theater for some time was closed last night. Miss Violet Slater was declared the winner with a vote of 2492, Miss Lillie Rich being a close second with 2291 votes.

Rev. Joseph Hepp was down from Salem Wednesday.

Mrs. J. I. Gharst and children, of Montesano, Washington, have been visiting for several days with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Trew.

Mrs. L. W. Harger and her daughter, Mrs. James McGuire, went to Oregon City Thursday. Mrs. Harger will remain for two weeks and visit relatives.

Prof. A. C. Stanbrough is expecting his mother, Mrs. Susan Stanbrough, and his youngest sister from Windfall, Indiana, in about a week. They are coming to remain here.

Miss Yeda Westerfield, daughter of W. I. Westerfield, editor and publisher of the Grass Valley Journal, is in town visiting her cousin, Miss Leona Westerfield.

Mrs. Lottie Gilbert and daughter, Miss Franc, of Portland, and Mrs. Genieve Pound, of Aumsville, were in Newberg the first of the week, visiting their cousin Frank J. Deach and family.

K. W. Shafford, of White Bluff, Washington, whose brother was one of the first station agents the railroad company had at Newberg, was here the first of the week, looking at the country with a view of locating.

James Harvey and Mrs. John David arrived in Newberg Thursday morning from Walhalla, North Dakota, and will visit for a time with their relatives and friends, the Harvey and Best families.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Cook left Saturday after visiting relatives here for a few days. They are spending a week or so in Portland before returning to their ranch home at Greenleaf, Idaho.

Mrs. Emma Hodgins and daughters, Louise, Irene and Harriet left for the coast Friday morning in company with the family of Zim Mills, of Springbrook. Siletz was the objective point of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibson and daughter, of Elma, Washington, left Monday for Twin Falls, Idaho after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hollingsworth.

The "Girl from the Golden West" arrived per schedule in her special Friday evening, but her "trousseau" having been mislaid, over the west side line, she was unable to make her appearance here as advertised.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Kelty went to Newport Thursday.

P. S. Hamrick, a teacher of Warsaw, Wisconsin, was in Newberg Tuesday, visiting with an old time friend, W. B. Cory.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Creshon, of Portland, visited over Sunday west of town with the latter's parents, Rees Craven and wife.

M. J. Jones and family have made a temporary move to Salem where he has a contract for remodeling one of the boats belonging to the C. K. Spaulding Logging Co.

Mrs. R. Eggers came up from Portland Wednesday evening and the following morning she and Mrs. M. J. Nash left for a two weeks' stay at Newport.

Attorney B. A. Kliks was in Newberg Wednesday, closing a deal for the purchase of the J. H. Wood property on Sheridan street. Mr. Kliks knows a good thing when he sees it.

D. W. Cummins, a former Newberg booster who has been living at Modesto, California, for the past two years, came in on the train Monday evening for a visit with relatives and friends and will remain a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Noah Heater, of Corvallis, passed through Newberg Monday on her way home from Sherwood where she went to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Hillman, who died suddenly after arriving home from an auto ride.

Henry Clemmens' prize sweet pea exhibit attracted much attention at the Ferguson drug-store Saturday. Forty-three varieties of the exquisite and dainty beauties were on display, of every conceivable tint. It was an eye opener to those to whom all sweet peas had looked alike.

W. H. Whitten has sold his lapidary business to Dennis C. and Foster Mills who will conduct the business under the firm name of Mills Bros. He will remain with the boys for some time and give them instructions in stone grinding and mounting.

Miss Margaret McCormick, of Lebanon, was in Newberg last Sunday, visiting with Mrs. W. W. Nelson. Last year she was principal of the Marshfield schools and was elected to the same position for the coming year, but resigned and will take a business course at the Behnke-Walker Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hinshaw visited with friends at McMinnville last Monday.

J. F. Steadman has been spending some time lately improving a two acre tract he has at Tigard on the Oregon Electric.

Mrs. E. J. Hoots who had been on a visit with one of her daughters at McMinnville, was in Newberg Wednesday on her way to Oregon City where she is now making her home.

The Misses Kate and Lizzie O'Brien, Evangeline Hanson and Jessie Cornell and John O'Brien and Orville Hanson left for the beach this morning. They expect to visit many different points before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Akeyson enjoyed a short visit the first of the week with old friends in the persons of Mrs. Mays, wife of Rev. M. T. Mays, of Kearney, Nebraska, and Mr. Bumont, of Grand Island, Nebraska, both of whom are on a summer tour of the Northwest.

Howard Marshall and family are recent arrivals from El Reno, Oklahoma, and are visiting with his parents. Mr. Marshall is a steam and electrical engineer by trade and will seek employment of that kind. He says the western part of Oklahoma has almost no crops this season on account of the drought.

E. R. Martin representing the American Sunday School Union as Superintendent of the Upper Coast District, which includes the vast territory of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, gave a highly instructive and entertaining address at the union service held at Friends church on last Sunday evening.

Miss Ella Nelson and her cousin, Miss Rebecca Gates were up from Portland last Sunday, visiting with Miss Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nelson. On Monday they went to McMinnville to visit their grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hoberg.

The Odd Fellows have arrangements about completed for the erection of a new brick building on their lot on the southeast corner of First and Main streets. The plans which have been approved call for a three story building 40x90 feet with full basement, and the estimated cost is $16,000. It is expected to have the work under way within a very short time.

A Delight to the Home!

OF INTEREST TO ALL HOME FURNISHERS

Nearly every man, woman and child in Newberg, and people outside the city as well, are keenly interested in

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons store's handsome

Kitchen Cabinet and Dining Table

which will be given away absolutely FREE on our

Opening Day, Aug. 19th

Every Man, Woman or Child Has Equal Opportunity

You have until August 12th to try for these beautiful pieces of furniture. IF YOU HAVE NOT A TICKET CALL AT OUR STORE for one and Detailed information.

Johnson's Famous Kitchen Cabinet

Solid Quartered Oak Dining Table, Golden Oak Finish, 6 feet

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

400 FIRST STREET.

NEWBERG, OREGON