

Locals and Personals

Elder S. B. Moffitt was up from Portland Wednesday.

W. J. Gordon, the Dundee merchant, was in town Wednesday.

Dr. C. A. Eldridge, of Hood River, has been in town during the week.

A Hood River fruit grower named Miller is in Newberg on business.

J. P. Hall, a brother of E. A. Hall, arrived here from Alberta, Canada, recently with his wife.

J. C. Smith, a brother of Mrs. J. C. Porter, is here from Eastern Oregon with his family on a visit.

Representative Wm. Chapman, of Washington county, was in Newberg on business last Monday.

Prof. Alexander Hull who has been laid up with the fever for several weeks, is able to be out again.

O. J. Sherman came up from Portland Wednesday evening to attend a meeting of the College Board.

Donald McPherson, a former Newberg man, was in town the first of the week, visiting with Tom Herd.

Mrs. Elizabeth Corby, of Salem, was in Newberg last week, visiting with her son, Attorney C. W. Corby.

Miss Eva Campbell and her mother were up from Sherwood last Saturday in attendance at Friends Quarterly Meeting.

Hugh Nelson has bought the A. J. Barrell place located a mile and a half west of Newberg and will engage in hop growing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Buel, Mr. and Mrs. Morley and H. L. Livingston returned from a pleasant trip to the Neakowin Beach last week.

George Stewart and family, of Portland, came up Saturday evening for a visit over Sunday with Joseph Halls. They were friends in Minnesota.

The Misses Carnille Lannon and Margaret Fowler, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, were in Newberg the first of the week, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards in company with their son, O. K. Edwards and family, made a four days' trip to Tillamook county, making stops at Pacific City, Netarts Bay, Tillamook and Garibaldi, returning Monday.

Will Thomas and family started out in their auto Wednesday morning on an extended vacation tour. They headed southward with no definite schedule and no time limit, but will probably cross the stateline into California before taking the back track.

W. S. Bean has sold his grocery stock to J. A. George and the latter's son-in-law, Mr. Sprout, who will conduct the business in the same building. The George and Sprout families came here recently from Nebraska and are very much pleased with Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin who have had charge of the Friends Indian Mission station at Kake, Alaska, for the past two years, are considering taking up work at Kotzebue in the far north where they have been offered school work by the Government.

Mrs. Anna Fogle, who is something of a chicken fancier, reports a Buff Orpington pullet hatched March 15, which began to lay July 19 and after laying 18 eggs volunteered to begin family life by offering her services for incubator purposes. If anyone can beat this record Mrs. Fogle will be glad to hear from them.

N. C. Christenson made a business trip to the county seat Friday.

Joseph Hall and C. H. Nichols with their families are off for the Nestucca Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hollingsworth spent last Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Frank Evans was down from Salem the first of the week, visiting with his mother.

Miss Ida Woods came up from Portland Saturday evening to spend Sunday at home.

E. L. Boles and family left here Wednesday evening for their home at Liberal, Kansas.

J. W. Moores drove down from over the mountain Tuesday to attend the Nebraska picnic.

Albert Hixson, of Vancouver, has been in town during the week visiting his grandfather, C. H. Dye.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Gardner have been visiting with relatives in Portland during the past week.

Frank Moore was over from the Laurel farm Wednesday, visiting with some of his former schoolmates.

Nels Nelson, of Los Angeles, has been about Newberg during the week and is greatly pleased with the country.

John Crosby returned from Newport Tuesday where he went to get his mother located in their cottage at Nye Beach.

Mrs. M. P. Elliott who has long been lame from a bad ankle had an operation performed upon it in Salem last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dickey, of North Dakota, who are taking a look at Oregon, spent a few days in Newberg last week visiting with former friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen were down from Salem in their machine last Thursday and took Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Jackson home with them for a visit over Friday.

I. E. Holt and family, accompanied by Ed's parents, J. S. Holt and wife, departed Friday for Morrow county where they are to take charge of the Parker farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Clawson, of Union Springs, New York, visited here Friday and Saturday with Rev. A. J. Weaver and family. They made a short visit here two or three years ago.

Mrs. Catherine Barefoot, Freeport, Illinois, who is spending a little time in our metropolis, came up from Portland and visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dodge.

Fred Thurn and family from South Dakota who arrived in Newberg last Saturday, have rented the Buchanan property for the present. They are friends of the Schick family who live out east of town.

The Weber Russel Canning Company, of Seattle, have written to Newberg parties that they intend to operate their big plant here next year anyway and that they may open it up for business this fall. Welcome to our city!

Rev. A. J. Weaver will preach at the union service at the Friends church Sunday evening. Rev. Rieker was to have had charge of the service but because of his near departure, will be occupied Sunday with his own farewell services.

The boys of the Christian Bible School met at the office of C. J. Leavitt a few evenings ago and organized a patrol of Boys Scouts. C. S. Sloan was chosen leader and Linden Leavitt, secretary. All boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen, and of good moral character, are eligible for membership.

Mrs. Jennie Galbraith, of Tualatin, made a short visit with Newberg friends the first of the week.

The Misses Nell and Lillian Reuter went to Eugene Saturday to spend a few weeks with friends in the university city.

Rev. John F. Lyon went over into the Carlton neighborhood Monday to spend a few days, rusticating with friends.

A. Bartholomew and son, Elmer left Tuesday on their trip to attend the National G. A. R. Encampment in New York.

The new boilers for furnishing additional steam power at the electric light plant arrived last week and are being put in place.

W. G. Bean, of Sauk Center, Minnesota, is visiting with his brother-in-law, C. S. Hulin and may spend the winter in Newberg.

The Graphic is indebted to Miss Jessie Britt for the spicy account of the Newberg picnic at the Punch Bowl, written in her usual felicitous style.

Mrs. G. B. Lyle and little daughter Zelma, of Glenwood, Washington, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Vernon Hinshaw and family.

Captain J. N. Graham of the U. S. Steamer Mathloma went out to Newport Friday to join his family on a little vacation, the second which he had taken in twenty years, he declared.

D. W. Cummins who was here from Modesto, California, cut his visit shorter than he had expected and left for home Wednesday morning, he having received word that his wife was sick.

J. R. Pleasant who was down from Willamina, Thursday, said he was expecting his brother, W. P. Pleasant, to return to Newberg in the course of a month, though he was not sure of his return so soon.

The Star Theater will give a benefit performance for the Newberg Band Monday night, for which Manager Brown promises an excellent program. All proceeds of that evening go to the Band.

Miss Alice Finley, of San Francisco, a cousin of E. B. Merchant and Mrs. Darwin Bokus, in company with a young lady friend, spent a few days here the first of the week. They will visit Yellowstone Park before their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osborne, of Champoe, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyes.

At the Friends parsonage on Tuesday evening, August 8th, Mrs. Minnie B. Warner and John J. Sutton were united in marriage by Rev. A. J. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker came in Tuesday morning from their Morrow county ranch, pleased at the prospect of becoming Newberg residents again.

T. B. Duncan and family returned from Meadow Lake last week where they spent considerable time on their forty acre tract of land located near the lake.

Mrs. C. A. Hodson and children returned home Saturday from their Tillamook visit. Miss Dorothy remained for a longer stay with her aunt, Mrs. Edna Lamb.

Mrs. N. C. Lugar, of Derby, Iowa, who was on her way home from Berkeley, California, stopped over here last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Westfall, former Iowa friends.

Mrs. Walter Bissell, of Oroville, Washington, who has been visiting here for some time with her mother, Mrs. S. M. Young and sister, Laura, went down to Portland Tuesday to spend several days.

Through the kind remembrance of Mrs. F. L. Ames, the Graphic can testify to the fact that some good cake bakers come out of Nebraska and that they were on the grounds with the goods at the Nebraska picnic Tuesday.

There have been persistent rumors for several days to the effect that L. M. Parker has bought out the Miller Mercantile Company. When accosted on the subject L. M. said that he had learned more on the street about it than he himself knew. While he didn't deny the fact that negotiations had been in progress he asserted that no deal had as yet been made.

Dr. W. L. Pearson, Biblical instructor in Friends University, Wichita, Kansas, was in attendance at Friends Quarterly Meeting in Newberg last Saturday and Sunday and gave excellent discourses at the different sessions. On Saturday night he also gave an educational address that was greatly appreciated by those who heard him.

Merle M. Chapman, a Golden-dale, Washington, undertaker, who had been attending an undertakers convention at Seattle, was in Newberg a few days ago in company with his sister, Miss Vera, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wright and other relatives.

The Fernwood Giants put one over the Dundee Pirates in a baseball game played on the grounds out east of town Sunday afternoon, to the story of 9 to 3. Manager Bruce Parrish proved a factor in the winning and made himself the favorite of the fair ones by catching a fly and walloping the ball like a Buddy Ryan!

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bales who returned to Hollister, California, a few weeks ago after an extended visit with relatives here, are again happy residents of Newberg. They made a sale shortly after their return south and got back to Newberg the latter part of last week. As soon as his kit of tools arrives, G. M. will be found pegging shoes at the old stand and humming "Oregon, Sweet Oregon."

Rev. G. J. Rieker, pastor of the German Methodist church, has resigned his pastorate and will preach his farewell sermon Sunday. He expects to be stationed somewhere in Southern California by his Conference, though no definite location has been indicated. Rev. Rieker has proven himself a progressive, enterprising citizen of Newberg and a decided factor in the development of the town. It is with regret that the departure of such men is chronicled.

Miss Carrie Brouillette who has been visiting in the Sound cities for the past month is now at Victoria, B. C. visiting Mrs. Brouillette's sister, Mrs. C. H. Lugin. The Misses Lugin have given several parties in her honor, and she has received many invitations to garden parties, among them one to a garden tea at the Governor's home. Tuesday evening the house party of Mr. and Mrs. Lugin were invited to a flannel dance at "Gled Holt" Esquimalt, which was one of the most delightful events of the season. Miss Brouillette leaves Victoria for Seattle Thursday of this week and will go from there to Olympia where Mrs. Ed Raymond will entertain in her honor.

Rev. Ralph Else, who was on his way from Middleton, Idaho, to Berkeley, California, where he will begin a four years' course for a Doctor's degree in Philosophy, spent last Sunday in Newberg.

In the list of those who passed the state medical examination given last month is found the name of Wilfred Pemberton of Salem, a graduate of Pacific College, who has many friends and relatives here.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott came down from Salem last Monday to visit her father, Rev. James P. Price. She and their son, John will leave for Whittier, California, the last of this month where they will spend the winter.

Elmer Buehler, Roy Stretch, Warren Cobb, the Misses Helen George, Violet Yarnell, Mabel McNay, Mabel Miller, Pearl Cobb, Grace Wilson in company with Mrs. Eva Sherwood, of McMinnville, and Erwin Pease, of Monmouth, made a merry party that went to Newport last Saturday, returning Monday. They report a most delightful trip and short visit at Nye Beach.

Bruce Henry came in from Timber, Washington county, where he has been working in a logging camp, Monday morning, carrying his head in a sling. On the preceding Monday, a rifle in the hand of a near-by companion was prematurely discharged, the bullet glancing from the ground and hitting Bruce in the forehead. It dropped him, but with no more serious injuries than an ugly scalp wound which will require some time to heal.

Austin Hummer, aged 22 years, who was working on the sewer ditch, was arrested by Constable H. R. Morris Wednesday on advices received from Denver, Colorado, where he is wanted on a charge of grand larceny. When in service as bell boy in a Denver hotel he recently relieved a guest of a diamond pin and $30 in cash. He was traced to this place by letters he had written. One detective from Portland appeared on the scene Sunday and located his man, another coming up Wednesday. Young Hummer was still in possession of the diamond. He will be returned to Denver as soon as requisition papers can be made out and acknowledged.

Local items continued on page 8

A Delight to the Home!

OF INTEREST TO ALL HOME FURNISHERS

Nearly every man, woman and child in Newberg, and people outside the city as well, are keenly interested in

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons store's handsome

Kitchen Cabinet and Dining Table which will be given away absolutely FREE on our

Opening Day, Aug. 19th

Every Man, Woman or Child Has Equal Opportunity

You have until August 12th to try for these beautiful pieces of furniture. IF YOU HAVE NOT A TICKET CALL AT OUR STORE for one and Detailed information.

Johnson's Famous Kitchen Cabinet

Solid Quartered Oak Dining Table, Golden Oak Finish, 6 foot

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

400 FIRST STREET.

NEWBERG, OREGON