

Locals and Personals

George Lutz went to Eugene Tuesday on a business trip.

Jesse Edwards made a business trip to Eugene the first of the week.

Miss Ethel Weed returned to her home at Vernonia the first of the week.

Little Martha Ehret went to Portland Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

Kenneth C. Hanson is taking a vacation and visiting the home folks at Silverton.

Miss Maude Lightfoot left here Wednesday morning for a visit with friends at Hermiston.

Frank Baird, Master Earl and Wiley McDonald have gone to Pacific City for a vacation.

J. L. VanBlaricon, his son Elgin and Roy Slater are off on a fishing trip in the Nehalem country.

Dr. Ida Inman of Portland visited in town Sunday and Monday with Dr. E. H. Ranck and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oliver, of Goble, are in Newberg visiting with the former's brother, N. R. Oliver.

A fire is burning in the logged off timber on the side of Parrott mountain and the Guddatt mill is threatened.

The sale of the Miller Mercantile Co. store to L. M. Parker was declared off after two days of invoicing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillispie, the latter a cousin of George L. Kelty, were up from Portland on a visit Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, former Minnesota friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse, were here on a visit Monday.

The Misses Medora Greer and Loraine Otis are camping for a week's outing at Otter Brook farm in the Red Hills.

Emmer Newby and family arrived home from their vacation at Grants Pass the first of the week. Their hunting party got four deer.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Kelty stopped off at McCoy for a visit with Mr. Kelty's father, when on their way home from Newport last week.

Miss Sibyl Woodward went to Tacoma Monday for a visit with her friend, Miss Gertrude Brewer. Her sister, Mrs. W. A. King went as far as Portland with her.

Mrs. N. C. Lugar who had been visiting with Mrs. W. A. Westfall left Wednesday morning for Longmont, Colorado. Mrs. Westfall went with her as far as Portland.

N. C. Christenson is fitting up the store room recently vacated by Hollingsworth & Sons and the first of September he will move his stock of farming implements to the new location.

Alfred Baker who has held a position for many years with the Blumauer-Frank Drug Co. in Portland, was in Newberg Monday and Tuesday visiting his brother John who lives on Dayton Avenue.

Herbert E. Barrett and family from Staples, Minnesota, arrived here on Monday and are visiting at the home of J. F. Pettingill. Mrs. Barrett is Mr. Pettingill's sister. They have been in Oregon before and doubtless they will remain this time.

Miss Ruth Otis Ensign, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, where she is a student in Smith College, has been visiting in town this week with her cousin, Mrs. D. D. Coulson. She came west in June in time to attend the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Coulson. Miss Ensign is a granddaughter of Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, editor of the Los Angeles Times.

Rev. H. Elmer Pemberton, of Salem, was in Newberg on business Monday.

Lewis T. McMillen died at his home at Rex on Tuesday at the age of 83 years.

Mrs. Ray Cudford, of Troutdale, is here visiting with Mrs. Herman Schultz.

Mrs. Willard Satchwell, of Whiteson, was in town Tuesday, visiting with Mrs. W. H. Hitchen.

Rev. James Moore, of Salem, was in Newberg over Sunday, attending a conference of the M. E. church.

Mrs. Helen D. Hartford went to Dallas Tuesday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the state W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Carroll Kirk and children returned home to Corvallis with Prof. R. W. Kirk and family Tuesday for a week's visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Byron Morris came out from Portland Tuesday to attend the Hodson-Lewis wedding at the Friends church.

The Misses Edith and Ruth Jackson, of Salem, visited at Springbrook the first of the week with their sister, Mrs. W. H. Wilson.

Mahlon Roberts arrived from his home in Iowa Tuesday evening and is visiting with his brother, Isaac Roberts, on Meridian street.

James Iverson went to Portland Tuesday on business connected with work on the road leading up Chehalem mountain north of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Edmundson were down from McMinnville a few days ago, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Clemmens and Mrs. Sarah Mackie.

T. B. Duncan will move his bicycle headquarters to his own building the first of September. Since the fire he has enlarged his building and has also made the lower floor into two rooms.

A. E. Peat who recently traded some acreage property located between Hillsboro and Cornelius for the Mrs. J. P. Dodge property in Newberg, was in town a few days ago closing up the deal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Marsh, Miss Eliza Marsh, Miss Grace Oliver and Mrs. C. W. Root went to Newport Saturday, returning on Monday. This was their first view of salt water.

Floyd Parker has returned home from the Morrow County ranch but has a far away look, indicating the longing he has for the free air of the short grass country east of the mountains.

N. F. Byers returned from the Sheppard Springs on the upper Columbia a few days ago where he went to take hot baths for rheumatism. He found great relief and says he can heartily recommend the springs for those who are similarly afflicted.

Pres. Levi T. Pennington attended Friends quarterly meeting at Scotts Mills last Saturday and Sunday and was kept busy at the different sessions preaching and giving addresses.

John Weed and party are home from their hunting and fishing trip in the Coast mountains and report a catch of two hundred trout—a very moderate fish story, considering John's ability. The deer they said were quite thin in flesh and they decided to let them remain in the woods until next season.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Jackson and babe who had been here for some weeks, left last Thursday. After visiting with relatives in Portland for a couple of weeks they will return home to Seattle where Fred will take up his work again as principal of one of the Seattle public schools.

Guy E. Bennett, of Vancouver, came in on the train Wednesday evening.

Everett M. Heacock, of Salem, was in Newberg a day or two last week.

Oscar Axom left here Monday for Beaver, Tillamook County on a hunting trip.

Ol Brown, of San Francisco, was in Newberg last Friday, visiting with A. P. Oliver.

The Fergusons, the Littlefields and the Smiths arrived home from Newport Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Gower went to Portland last Saturday to visit her former neighbor, Mrs. Corbett.

Rev. John F. Hanson, of Portland, preached at the Friends church at Chehalem Center last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heater, of Springbrook, arrived home from a trip to the beach the first of the week.

The Presbyterian Sunday School is holding a basket dinner picnic today, Thursday in the grove on the College campus.

Rev. N. Welter is putting a new addition to his residence on North street near the prune packing plant, 26x26 feet, aside from porches.

The Spaulding Logging Co. has the frame work up for a new barn at the sawmill, to take the place of the old one that burned a short time ago.

L. S. Otis and son, Ralph made a trip to Corvallis last week to arrange for the latter to enter O. A. C. at the opening of the new year. He intends to take a course in agriculture.

S. D. Strait in company with Everett and Arthur George started out Monday morning on a hunting trip in the Coast mountains. Erwin Pease, of Monmouth, was to join them on the road over.

Rev. A. J. Weaver left here Tuesday evening for Harvey D. Crumly's surveying camp in the Cascade Mountains in Washington, where he will spend a week fishing and communing with nature. Master Lorenzo Crumly went with him.

Attorneys D. P. and O. L. Price have both been up from Portland during the week attending their father, Rev. James P. Price who is sick again. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott have also been down from Salem.

Elliott and Fox are planning to occupy the store room on the corner of First and Main Streets, now the bicycle store, with their feed stock after September first. They also anticipate putting in a feed chopper for the accommodation of the farmers.

Col. J. C. Cooper, of McMinnville, passed through Newberg Tuesday evening on his way home from Stayton, where he went to attend the funeral of his oldest brother, who was the first of a large family of brothers to answer to the last call.

John N. Crosby has sold his auto business to L. E. Baughman, formerly from Fonda, Iowa, and a brother of Frank and Peter Baughman who have considerable interests about Newberg and Dundee. Mr. Baughman has had eight years' experience in the auto business and consequently will be able to take care of anything that may come his way.

J. A. Freeborough, proprietor of the Newberg Iron Works, is planning to put up a new building on a new location not yet fully determined on. There will be two buildings, one 40x60 feet for machine shops, and another 30x50 feet for the foundry. Mr. Freeborough has had all the work he could do since buying the foundry and is badly in need of larger and better quarters. The ground now occupied belongs to the Newberg Electric Light Co. and the Company is wanting possession of it for the purpose of erecting a new office building.

W. A. King and L. G. Kneeshaw were in Sherwood on business Tuesday.

Levi Lewis returned home Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives in Illinois and Indiana.

The American Woman's League will meet with Mrs. Voorhies on Monday night, August 28. Do not forget.

Dr. J. Ray Pemberton and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoffuell came down from Salem by auto last Sunday.

Mrs. Marion Brunson and two little children are up from Portland visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Strait came home from Ariel, Washington, last week where they went on account of the sickness, resulting in the death of their brother-in-law, H. J. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Christenson went to Goldendale, Washington, last Saturday to stay with their daughter, Mrs. G. R. Atkinson, while Mr. Atkinson is in Portland taking treatments at a hospital.

George Lea, the Cottage Grove water dispenser for various towns in the valley, was in Newberg a few days ago. He has recently been awarded the contract for putting in a water system at Carlton.

J. E. Holt who recently moved to the Parker ranch near Morgan, Morrow County came in on the train Wednesday evening and will remain for several weeks. He says the family are well pleased with their new location.

Charley Leavitt has traded some Dundee interests for Douglas County timber lands. He also reports the sale of the W. E. Wight property on Blaine street to S. R. Jones and a house and two lots in the Charley Cavil Addition to George Morris.

Mrs. C. N. Mackie is here from Ashland where they are located, visiting with her mother, Mrs. Irene Heater, and looking after some business matters. They did not take kindly to Santa Anna, California, where they went last year on account of Charley's health, and consequently they came back as far as Ashland where they are well pleased with the location.

Mrs. L. H. Shirley and daughters arrived from Springfield Friday for a visit with relatives.

Jacob Ricker, of Walla Walla, Washington, was in Newberg the first of the week, visiting with his brother, Rev. G. J. Ricker.

Attorney C. W. Corby says he found it very quiet about the court house, on a business trip to the county seat Wednesday.

Little Miss Wilma Klock returned home from Ontario some days ago where she had been staying with Mrs. F. H. Caldwell.

Mrs. L. E. Lewis and son, Paul left Wednesday morning overland for McPhillip's camp on the beach, where several Springbrookers are in camp.

A large number of the members of Shiloh Post are in attendance at the Yamhill County G. A. R. Encampment now in session at Sheridan.

Married, on Tuesday evening, August 8th, at the home of the groom's father, Miss Ethel Butler to Chester Miller, Rev. Geo. C. Ritchey performing the ceremony.

W. E. Terrells, Thomas Roods and John Hawthorths from here and Justin Hawthorths and E. R. Garners from Springbrook, took the overland route for the coast last week in the direction of Tillamook county.

Mrs. George Strait and son Robert, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Miss Erma Seydel, of Iowa City, Iowa, and Miss Irma Seydel, of Ladora, Iowa, are in Newberg visiting with Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Wallace on First street.

Prof. S. S. Duncan, for many years one of the leading public school teachers in Yamhill county, recently returned from Montana and is with Mrs. Duncan in Newberg, visiting with their daughters, the Misses Grace and Doris Duncan. He will beat the head of the schools at Yamhill the coming year and one of his daughters will be an assistant. His is a family of teachers. Besides himself, three daughters are following the profession, his son has been a teacher in the past and the younger daughter expects to take up teaching when she is through school. During the past year he has been with his son in Montana where they have a small band of horses.

D. W. Heston has removed with his family to Brush Prairie, Washington, where he has gone onto a ranch owned by his brother-in-law, Vin Vincent.

On Fifth street near Blaine, A. M. Dunlap has under construction a six room bungalow, aside from the hall, bath and porches. It will be supplied with modern fixtures.

M. H. Pinney is building a five room bungalow, 26x40 feet, on West Sherman street. It will have a basement 24x26 feet and will be fitted throughout with modern fixtures.

Prof. W. W. Wiley, who with his family has been spending the summer at Minneapolis, Minnesota, was in town today, Thursday. He will be at the head of the Athena schools next year.

Charles Fairbanks is working his residence at the corner of Eighth and River streets over and when completed it will be one of the most up-to-date residences in that part of town.

Henry Austin is laying in a winter's supply of wood at his residence on the corner of Second and Center streets, with the intention of moving over from the Marion County farm.

The benefit given by Mr. Brown of the Star Theater for the Newberg Band Monday night, netted $31.25. This will help very materially in the purchase of music and in defraying other necessary expenses.

Altho McKinney from New Concord, Ohio, a recent graduate from a law school who is looking the country over for a location for practice, is in town visiting at the home of Mrs. Eva H. Hull, his former music teacher.

Hans Olson and family are new arrivals in Newberg and are to be permanent residents. They came here from Carlton where they had resided a year or more but previous to that they had lived for some years at Detroit, Lincoln county.

State Forester, F. A. Elliott, who was in Newberg the first of the week, said August weather had been favorable this year and so far he has had little difficulty with forest fires. With the showers that have fallen in the mountains recently it is not likely that serious fires will break out.

Hollingsworth & Sons

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

Complete Furnishers of Home and Office. Liberal credit extended all home furnishers; lowest prices

A Big Carload of Iron Beds

We have just placed on our floor a carload of Iron Beds. All the new ideas in designs, as well as the very latest finishes, are to be seen in them—the most artistic combinations that have yet come to our store.

In the finishes the "Vernis Martin" is unquestionably the most popular, although there is good variety of other attractive finishes and combinations.

FULL SIZE BEDS AS LOW AS

$2.85

A Representative Showing

is ours of furniture for the dining room. The demand of every dining room no matter what proportions or schemes of decoration or what is set aside to be furnished it will be met here. Quaint craftsmen's designs in waxed oak continue to gain favor with artistic home furnishers.

Pedestal style dining table 6 ft. extension, golden oak or waxed oak from $14.25 Up

BIG STOCK RUGS AND CARPETS

Fall styles in Carpets, etc. we are showing are Beautiful, Splendid and Cheap. We have all sizes, large and small, and you will regret any purchase you make before seeing our beautiful and complete stock now ready. Besides, WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY

W. W. HOLLINGSWORTH & SONS--500 First Street