The Youth's Companion is For Everybody.

Of course if you are too young to read, or so old you have forgotten how, you may not enjoy The Youth's Companion. That is rather a sweeping statement, however, for hosts of children love to have the stories and jingles of the Children's Page read to them. There is many a grandfather and grandmother whose eyes are dim who like nothing better than to sit and listen to The Companion stories and articles. Many a blind person, and even those who in addition neither speak nor hear have been cheered by The Companion, its contents having been communicated to them through the finger tips of friends. The reading of The Youth's Companion is a pretty sure cure for all kinds of loneliness. Robinson Crusoe would have been a happier man if he could have had his Companion Thursday as well as his man Friday. Just send for the Prospectus for 1912 and sample copies of the paper.

We think you will agree, when you have read them, that no other paper, gives quite so much of such a high quality as The Companion, and it costs only $1.75 now for the 52 weekly issues. On January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.00.

The new subscriber receives a gift of The Companion's Calendar for 1912, in ten colors and gold, and all the remaining issues of 1911 free from the time the subscription is received.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Preparations for the meeting Friday evening at 7:30 are almost complete. Mrs. C. A. Morris, a graduate of the elocution department of the Peoria Conservatory of Music, who appears for the first time before a Newberg audience, will give some selected readings. Miss Ethel Morris also will give a reading entitled "A Modern Petition."

There will be a children's chorus from the Sunday School and the choir of the church will give some selections. Dr. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis will give an address that is sure to win, for Dr. Bell always makes good.

The Anti-Cants have charge of the decorations and the Ladies' Aid the refreshments. It looks like there is going to be some fun in picking the white elephant. Friends at a distance are remembering us and all the organizations of the church are prepared to subscribe liberally.

Even if you don't care to subscribe anything, you are invited to come and share in the good time.

The Sunday evening sermon will be the third in the series based on the sermon on the Mount. Subject: "The Waste of Worry." The choir has been outdoing itself each week of this period of special attention to the evening services and they are not satisfied yet. If you do not attend church elsewhere, a special invitation is given to you to be present.

The subject of the morning sermon will be "Consecrated Personality," with Gypsy Smith as a central figure.
