Miss Sutton returned Monday morning from her home in Seattle where she spent Thanksgiving.

Florence Calkins and Olive Ramsey were also missed from the dormitory during Thanksgiving vacation, the former went to her home at West Chehalis and the latter to her home in Portland.

Several of the dormitory people ate Thanksgiving dinner with the Springbrook people at their picnic.

On Monday the second year Academy class appeared with little orange and black pennants attached more or less securely to themselves. Those fastened less securely have disappeared.

The Senior Academy class was entertained at W. E. Crozier's last Friday evening. They say they learned to play "Little Willie" and that President Pennington must be asked for an explanation.

The college football team defeated the town team Thanksgiving by a score of 6 to 0. A large crowd was present and much enthusiasm shown.

The college basket-ball men are practicing hard for the first game of the season with P. U. December 15, at Newberg.

Prof. Johnson gave the football men a banquet last Friday evening. After the banquet the boys were surprised to find a number of the girls waiting for them in the parlors. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Prof. Hawkins, Claude Lewis,

Mr. Wilson and Edgar Pearson are going to Salem December 8 to attend the annual Y. M. C. A. convention.

SPRINGBROOK ITEMS

A public Thanksgiving dinner was given by the people of the community at the cannery with a missionary meeting in the morning. A paper was read by Marietta Lewis that was instructive and inspiring, followed by a short talk on missions by Rev. Tallman; the singing was enjoyed by all. The big dinner was the climax of the day. In the afternoon the children of the public school gave an exercise that was very good.

Miss Ella Macy was a Newberg visitor over Thanksgiving, also Matilda Hoskins.

Marietta Lewis is confined to the house, threatened with pneumonia.

Prof. R. W. Lewis and wife attended Friends Meeting at Springbrook Sunday.

Mrs. T. Harlow Parker who was threatened with pneumonia, is slowly improving.

J. C. Hodson and children, of Newberg, were callers at the home of E. A. Hodson on Sunday afternoon.
