FROM FERNWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Baker went to Newberg Saturday night to hear the Jubilee singers.

On Friday evening, January 19, a number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Brouillette gathered at their home, taking them completely by surprise. The evening passed off very pleasantly in a social way, after light refreshments were served. The company went home with the feeling that they had been royally entertained.

C. J. Judd has been on the sick list for the past few days, but is at work again.

There will be a shadow social given at Fernwood school house next Saturday evening. There will be a programme before the supper. Ladies are requested to bring baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. Brouillette went across the river to their farm Monday.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Subject of the sermon next Sunday morning is "Why We Believe." The evening sermon will be the third in the series in "A Christian's Social Life." Subject, "Receiving Attentions." John 3, 1-21. Strangers are always welcome.

Gumption on the Farm.

Here's wishing you the best year yet!

Ever notice how easy it is for a man to get married who isn't able to support a wife?

What is the use of sucking a filthy roll of tobacco called a cigar, anyhow? Be clean!

The self-made man is never finished until some woman gets busy and polishes off the rough edges.

Footprints on the sands of time are all right, but be careful not to make them on mother's clean kitchen floor.

The thing that uses a man up and makes him old before his time is to stop work and turn into a first-class loafer.

Some folks sell out and move every time they get into a tight place. That is jumping out of the frying-pan into the fire.

Good warm clothing is a capital way to save doctor's bills. See that the wife has her share. A warm coat will last for many years.

When your husband wants a hammer in the house, just take him yours. He will bring you home a better one the next time he goes to town, see if he doesn't.

When the producer and consumer are one man, then, indeed, the distance between them is reduced to a minimum. Raise everything possible for your own use on your own farm.

Took Her at Her Word.

A woman came into the general store with a jar of butter. She desired to exchange it for another jar of butter. In churning her butter she had discovered a mouse in the churn.

"It didn't injure the butter," she said to the storekeeper, "and to any one who did not know the circumstance it would taste all right."

Taking the woman at her word, the merchant carried her jar into the back room, transferred her butter to another jar, and the gratified customer took back her mouse butter with a thousand thanks for the accommodation.

There is a great deal of needless trouble in the world on account of squeamish sentiment.—Milwaukee Journal.

Cupid's Effective Darts.

Once upon a time Cupid called on Vulcan.

"Friend Vulcan," he said, "things have been a little slow with me of late, and I have been missing a lot of marks. I want you to make me a new lot of darts and tip each one of them with gold."

Several days afterward Mercury appeared in a great hurry before Vulcan with this note from Cupid:

Dear Vulcan—Those last darts didn't miss once. Make me 10,000 gross more gold tipped ones at once. I am doing the greatest work of my life.

Moral.—Aim is made more effective by the judicious use of gold.—New York Herald.
