G. P. Skelton left for Los Angeles Wednesday morning where he will join his family. The Graphic will keep him posted regarding Newberg happenings.

M. M. Edwards was down from Dundee Wednesday shaking hands with his friends. He is getting older than he once was and this was his first visit to Newberg in several months.

Robert Jones, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county surveyor has been in town during the week. He is well known here and will doubtless get a good vote.

Wm. J. Nottage was over from Hillsboro the first of the week visiting with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dimond. He is foreman in the office of the Hillsboro Independent.

Hon. Milt. Miller, of Lebanon, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, will speak in Newberg at an early day under the auspices of the Jackson Club.

The slogan "back to the farm" has caught W. E. Terrell and as a result he is building a new residence on his Wynooki street tract, where he will have room to chase the chickens for after supper exercise, and where "Towser" can be sent for the cows.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morton, of St. Paul, Minnesota, spent a day here last week visiting with their former Minnesota friends, L. S. Otis and family. Mr. Morton has seen many years' service as a locomotive engineer on a Northern Pacific passenger train out of St. Paul and will soon be able to retire on the pension list.

Miss Ewing, of Portland, who was teaching the eighth grade in the public school took the examination recently for a position in the Portland Public Library, and on passing a successful examination was given a position. This made her resignation as teacher necessary and Mrs. Evangeline Martin has been elected to fill the place for the remainder of the year.

Carl Bartlett, the son of Mrs. Bartlett who lives on River street, died in an Astoria hospital on last Saturday after a very short illness, at the age of 23 years. The remains were brought home and funeral services were held at the M. E. church on Wednesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Reuter. The deceased had the reputation of being a very exemplary young man and the stay of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Honans went to Portland the first of the week to spend a few days visiting with one of their daughters.

L. G. Kneeshaw who left here in the Fall and who has been in California until recently, is now making a stop at Bradentown, Florida.

Newberg now has increased mail service. A closed pouch is brought out from Portland on the 11:15 a. m. train and one is sent out on the 1 p. m. train.

Dick Linville who stole the box of money from the Presbyterian church has been released from the county jail on parole and it is now up to him to make good.

Charles A. Morris has the excavations made for the basement and foundation for his new bungalow on Sheridan street, and the work is now well under way.

Prof. A. C. Stanbrough wrote a letter to State Superintendent Alderman recently, asking that the poultry car that is to be sent out by the experiment station at O. A. C. be sent to Newberg and he has received a favorable reply.

W. O. Robertson and family came from Lebanon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Robertson's father, A. M. Hoskins. They remained a few days to get Mrs. Hoskins' affairs in shape for her removal to their home in Lebanon.

On Saturday of last week L. S. Otis received a shipment of 15,000 peach trees of seven varieties, direct from Japan. They were packed in moss and arrived in perfect condition. The Japan peach trees set on his farm two years ago made a good growth the first season and he anticipates having like success with this shipment.

The committee appointed to represent the First and Main street property owners in making an investigation of the different kinds of street paving, spent Friday of last week in Portland where they were shown all over the city, gaining thereby much information that will be of value. The committee is continuing the investigation and will not be in a position to make a recommendation to the city council for several days.

The funeral of A. M. Hoskins, who died at his home at Lents, was held on last Sunday afternoon at the Friends church, the services being conducted by Rev. Charles O. Whitely, the pastor. There was a large attendance. The family desires that a word of appreciation be said for those who kindly gave assistance. Mrs. Hoskins will break up housekeeping and go to live with her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Robertson, at Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoskins arrived home in time to be present at the funeral of the brother of the former, which was held Sunday afternoon. They had intended to spend a short time visiting with Alva P. Macy at Chico, California, but came on at once in response to a telegram giving information of the death of the brother. They report a most pleasant trip and visit all round. At present J. L. is housed at home on account of a cold taken at the latter end of the journey.

Henry Austin is quite seriously ill at his home on the corner of Second and Center streets.

J. W. Moore was over from his Washington County farm the first of the week looking hale and hearty.

F. S. Morris, who has occupied the R. Pettyjohn property on north Main street for several months, on Tuesday of this week moved into the new residence recently built on his ranch west of town.

"Citizen" Parker, the president of the Jackson Club says he is a candidate for a Democratic nomination for the lower house of the Legislature on a platform containing a statement of fealty to a modified form of Statement No. 1. He says he believes he should be bound by the preference of the voters of the county in voting for a United States Senator, and not by the preference of the voters of the state at large. He says further that he would continue to give his support to the man endorsed by his constituents as long as there was any chance for his election, and thereafter he would consider himself free to use his own judgment in the matter.

City Marshal W. E. Thomas and Constable H. R. Morris rounded up a bunch of Newberg boys the first of the week who seem to have had a pretty well effected organization for carrying on petty thieving. Their line of endeavor included visits to the various stables about town for collecting gunny sacks, and also nightly visits to hen roosts. A central "depot" was arranged for storing what they picked up and sales were made from time to time to supply spending money for the crowd. The cat was out when W. H. Kramer fell in with one of the number on last Saturday, coming up town with a sack of chickens in each hand. The marshal was called and he had sufficient evidence to convict in a short time. On Monday Jesse and Willie Hyde, Clinton Flora, Alvin Wentz, John Shultz, John Dorrance, Walter Willis and Vivian Noyes were taken to McMinnville where they acknowledged their guilt. All were released on parole except young Schulz who was committed to the Reform School at Salem. He had been paroled a short time ago when he broke into the Newberg Hardware Co.'s store and stole a revolver and some knives. Willie Peters also belonged to the gang, but he lit out and has not shown up since.

Miss Pearl Wood, daughter of Rev. J. N. Wood, of Woodburn, is in town visiting among old friends and relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Emma Bell, who spent several weeks visiting with her son, Robert and wife at Touchet, Washington, returned home Thursday. Her sister, Mrs. Bankson, who had been visiting relatives at Eagle Creek returned with her.

Harlan Smith and family are up from Portland, making a visit with relatives, preparatory to going to Alaska, where Mr. Smith will do the carpenter work on a cannery building on contract during the building season.

Surveyor Stevens is making a new survey of the Ramsey Hill Cemetery and lots 20x20 feet are being laid out with streets 8 feet wide. The west half of the grounds will have five terraces which will give a pretty effect. The promoters are very much encouraged with the outlook for the sale of lots.

J. L. Ingle, who returned to Kansas in the Fall, got back last Friday after having spent a disagreeable winter. While on the way home he fell on an icy walk at a point in Wyoming where he stepped off the train to reach a lunch counter, and sustained a fracture of his left arm which he is now carrying in a sling.

PACIFIC COLLEGE

good account of herself this year.

On March 15, 16, 17 there will be a conference of the officers of the student Y. M. C. A.'s of Oregon held in Newberg under the auspices of the association here at Pacific. There will be about thirty delegates present, and they will be the very best men from their respective colleges. We want the students to co-operate with us as well as the people of the town, in making the conference a success. The sessions will be held in the Friends church.

Pacific will be represented in debate by Rae Langworthy, W. H. Wilson and Meade Elliott. The first debate will be with McMinnville, here at Newberg on the question, "Resolved that there should be a board with compulsory powers appointed to arbitrate in cases of dispute between employer and employee in the United States."

We are glad to note the way in which the H. S. defeated Albany High and wish them success in the game with McMinnville High School on Friday night of this week.

At a meeting held last Monday the Athletic Association decided to order suits for the baseball team.

Rev. Keim gave a very interesting talk in the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Wednesday of last week. He urged those present to consider earnestly the serious things of life.

Miss Lucile Davis, who will represent Pacific college in the oratorical contest Friday evening at Forest Grove, gave her oration Tuesday morning in chapel. The other schools may be well represented but we feel sure of a good standing.

The Intercollegiate Prohibition League of Oregon has been formed by colleges of the state. Pacific college will be represented by Walter H. Wilson in the oratorical contest to be held by this league at McMinnville March 15.

Marie Calkins has been absent from school on account of severe illness. She has the sympathy of the entire student body, who wish her speedy recovery.
