Mr. Earl Conrad has been visiting at Corvallis for a few days with his mother and sister.

Mrs. M. Ross spent last Thursday with Mrs. C. L. Judd.

Mr. John Groff took advantage of the cool weather and butchered three nice hogs last week.

Mr. Claire Tussler has just returned from a trip to Corvallis. It is rumored there may be a wedding soon.

Mr. C. L. Judd received word last week that his youngest brother, Portie Judd, was seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Robson, of Minnesota, who is on a trip to the Sacramento valley, stopped off here for a few days visit with his cousin, Mr. Farrel. He seemed very much impressed with Oregon climate.

A number of Fernwood people seem to have the Canada fever.

I wonder how many of the farmers of this vicinity wrote to representatives in regard to parcels post. Any one who neglected to had better do it at once as parcels post is something that we all need. March 18 was set aside as Parcels Post day.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The text of the sermon next Sunday morning will be: "Bear ye one another's burdens" and the evening sermon will have for its text the seemingly opposite statement of the same chapter, "Every man should bear his own burden." Subjects: "Helping Others with Their Faults" and "Minding Our Own Business." A special welcome for strangers.

Where did the house fly? We want our eggs fresh, but not the cook.

Light housekeeping is apt to make heavy bread.

The history of the average man is already foot notes.

It is much easier to write a note than it is to sing one.

The rent in the clothes will not pay the rent of the house.

Deafness can seldom be cured, yet many a man is given his hearing in the police court.

It is a good thing that a man can change his mind without being obliged to change his clothes.

All careful poultrymen stamp their eggs, but that does not entitle them to the privileges of the mails.

Some folks spend so much time in trying to preserve their dignity that they have little leisure for anything else.

Hens are great thieves, they are constantly stealing their nests; but then the housewife steals their eggs and thereby sets a bad example.

J. P. Morgan can raise $10,000,000 on his check any minute; but the man who is raising a large family on $9 a week is a greater financier than Morgan. From March Farm Journal.

The Test of Plumbing is in the service it will give in the future, not what it will do at the time of installation.

It is our policy to give plumbing service that will stand the test of time—that can be relied upon to maintain good sanitary conditions during years of service.

If you are a believer in the value of good plumbing, it will be to your profit to have us install a "Standard" modern bathroom.
