Mrs. Anne Newall and Mrs. Florence Sage have opened a Woman's Industrial Exchange in the room near the post office formerly occupied by Attorney Corby. They will handle coffee, tea, spices, toilet articles, etc.

The Newberg Hardware and Plumbing Co. is installing a Leathe Water System for Ray Bremmer who lives up the valley. With systems of this kind those who live in the country can have water pressure to supply their homes and they are proving so satisfactory that many plants are being installed throughout the country.

The ladies of the Pacific College Auxiliary are very cordially invited to the home of Mrs. L. M. Parker, on Saturday, p.m. at 2:30 to a thimble-party. Each member is also requested to bring a number of her favorite tested recipes, of all kinds, for the cook book, soon to be published. The regular monthly business will be transacted at this time.

K. W. Shafford who came here recently from over on the Sound in Washington is arranging to open a canvas glove factory in Newberg as soon as he can get satisfactory quarters and install his machines, which will be run by an electric motor. Mr. and Mrs. Shafford have had experience in the business and say there is a big demand for canvas gloves, and consequently it is not a venture of amateurs. The gloves retail at five and ten cents and are worn by laborers for protection to the hands. Four machines will be put in as a starter and women will be employed to run them. Mr. Shafford is a brother of J. W. Shafford who was formerly about Newberg a good deal, but who now lives in Portland.

Mrs. J. T. Smith has a well selected line of Irish linens which will interest the ladies. She receives a small shipment and at the end of one week the stock remaining is returned, and in a short time another shipment is sent out from the house. This gives customers new patterns to select from, from time to time.

Mrs. Jesse Edwards went to Sherwood last Sunday where she conducted the funeral services of J. C. Smock, who died on Friday at the age of 63 years. The deceased had been an honored resident of that section for a long term of years where he reared a large family of children. Sherwood was first named Smock, in his honor but the name of the town was changed to Sherwood some years later by the Southern Pacific. He was the principal merchant and all round business man of the place for a number of years and at the time of his death was mayor of the town. Being a man of strict integrity he held a large place in the hearts of the people of the community, as was evidenced by the very large attendance at his funeral.

Typewriters Given Away.

The Emerson Typewriter Company of Woodstock, Ill., have recently given away over 400 of the highest grade, wholly visible Emerson Typewriters made in the world. They have gone into every state and territory in the United States. There may be some in your town. They are giving them away everywhere to men, women, boys and girls, over 18 years of age, on surprisingly liberal conditions.

If you could make any use of a $100.00 typewriter, providing it did not cost you even one cent, then in a letter or on a postal card addressed to Frank L. Wilder, President, Woodstock, Ill., simply say, "Mail me all your Free Offers," and by return mail you will receive their Free Offers, the names of over 400 who have recently received typewriters free, and you will learn on what easy conditions you can get one of their typewriters free right away.

The Emerson Typewriter is one of the highest grade, wholly visible typewriters made in the world. Many who have used the "Emerson" and other makes pronounce the "Emerson" superior to any $100.00 typewriter on the market. It is a wholly visible machine, has every new, up-to-date feature, looks like other high grade $100.00 typewriters, though it sells regularly for less and on terms of $1.00 down and 10 cents a day until paid for. The "Emerson" has every new improvement, universal keyboard, back spacer, tabulator, two-color ribbon, everything the best; is the ideal machine for beginners as well as for the most expert typists and stenographers; just the typewriter for the smallest or largest office.

If you could possibly make any use of a high grade typewriter, even though it didn't cost you one cent of money, then be sure, on a postal card or in a letter addressed to "Frank L. Wilder, President, Woodstock, Ill.," say, "Mail me your Free Offers." 27
