CHEHALEM CENTER

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wills last Wednesday, April 10th, as Mrs. Page was sick and could not have the meeting take place there. Mrs. M. J. Johnson led the devotional meeting. The usual routine of business was carried on and later the representatives who attended the county institute gave in a good report of the meeting which was enjoyed by all. The Misses Maude B. Wills, Mildred Wills and Edna Everest attended the institute. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Ella Hendrickson, May 8th. A nice lunch was served during the social hour.

The Chehalis Center Literary will hold its last meeting Friday, April 19. There will be a cantata "The Saving of Daddie."

Rev. Harvey D. Crumly will have charge of the Christian Endeavor services next Sunday evening.

DUNDEE

Mrs. C. H. Crause, of Minnesota, has been visiting Mrs. Dearborn. Mrs. Crause is so well pleased with Dundee that she contemplates locating here.

Mrs. Harold Prince went to Portland Tuesday.

William Ray is very ill with a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parrett and family spent Sunday at the Hunter home. Mr. Parrett has made arrangements to move back to Dundee as soon as the Newberg schools close for the summer vacation.

Thomas Prince left last week for an extended eastern trip. He expects to return via Washington, D. C. and New Orleans.

An interesting game of baseball was played Sunday with a team from Champog, the score being eleven to seven in favor of Dundee.

Mrs. Bernhard Groth has recovered from a threatened attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore, of Portland, spent Sunday at the Herrings.

Mrs. Fred West, of Portland, is visiting friends in Dundee.

Edward Howe is combining business with pleasure in a visit to his home at the coast.

Messrs. Prince and Dearborn went to McMinnville on business on Tuesday.

Miss Edith Minchin attended the meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Amity last week.

Mrs. Julia W. Little and son, Francis C. Little, of Portland, were week end guests at Otterbrook.

Mrs. Hurd and daughters, of Newberg, drove up into the Red Hills Sunday to enjoy the prune trees which are in full bloom this week.

Several local fans attended the opening game of baseball at Portland.

William Hill and family have returned from a week's outing at Corvallis and Newport. Mrs. Hill promised to have a fish story for the Graphic but since she has not sent it in we suppose it is the same old story of "the biggest fish that I just came near catching."

Several residents of the Red Hills drove to Newberg on the sixteenth to hear Senator La Follette.

Dr. Walter Spencer and son, Theodore, Mr. and Mrs. Darney and William Refenberg, of Portland, and Raymond Spencer, of Thateher, came out in an auto from Portland Sunday to spend the day with Theodore Spencer and Miss Jessie Spencer, and to help Mrs. E. S. Greer eat her birthday dinner.

Mr. Newman who thinks some of locating in Dundee, spent Sunday with his brother's children.

"The enfranchisement of women from a Moral Standpoint" was presented in a most logical and eloquent address by Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh at the church on Sunday evening. Mrs. Unruh is one of the best speakers Dundee has ever heard and those who failed to hear her missed a rare treat. A male quartet furnished good music for the occasion.

David Turner and family and two eastern friends spent Easter Sunday in Dundee in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mayor H. B. Powell and wife.
