Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Elizabeth Spaulding and Mrs. Walter Spaulding were down from Salem on a visit Sunday.

City Marshall, W. E. Thomas came out in a regulation police uniform the first of the week, looking as well as the most modern city "cop."

The Graphic is informed that the Democrats are going to write in the name of H. W. Parker on the ballot as a candidate for representative to the legislature.

Mrs. Hannon reports very satisfactory results in advertising a closing out sale of her fine stock of millinery. Sales have been good and buyers are still coming.

The N. Welter store was broken into on Friday night of last week and clothing to the amount of about $75 was carried away. No trace of the thieves has been found.

Mrs. M. P. Elliott, who suffered the amputation of one of her feet a short time ago, is getting on as well as could be expected, the wound being practically healed.

Edward Binford and family arrived here the first of the week from New Lisbon, Indiana, coming with the intention of remaining. Mrs. Binford is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gilbert.

On Monday evening, April 22, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Britt will present their respective pupils in recital at the Presbyterian church. No admission will be charged and everyone interested in music is invited.

L. M. Parker moved his grocery stock to the new Old Fellows building Wednesday evening where he is opening up a stock of general merchandise. The name of the new store is to be "Parkers Popular Price Store."

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Harnden, who sold out at Eugene a few months ago, recently returned from a visit to their former home in Kansas. They spent last Sunday visiting with former neighbors at Springbrook. For the present they will occupy property they own in Eugene but their intention is to buy another farm as soon as they can suit themselves.

Homer Maris, Carroll Wagner, Bishop Moreland and Ray Geisler, students of the University of Oregon, who were on their way down the Willamette from Eugene by canoe, made a stop of a couple of hours at Newberg Wednesday. After replenishing the larder they went on their way, expecting to reach Portland the day following.

Charley Cavil went to the county seat on business Wednesday.

E. S. Craven and son Will were up from Portland on business the first of the week.

Falley Rasmussen has been at home from the University of Oregon on a visit during the week.

Miss Edith Mills was married on last Sunday at 12:30 o'clock to Amos H. Cook, of Sellwood, at the home of her father, A. O. Mills, on Dayton Avenue, Rev. Charles O. Whitely, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Orr are again in the harness at the laundry, they having bought the plant back. Everybody for the trade they know, and they are at home in a steam laundry.

David W. Hazen, of the Evening Telegram force, spent Sunday and a part of Monday in Newberg. He came in for a hand shake and was found to be a very pleasant gentleman to meet.

Joseph Carr left here on Wednesday with his family for Bandon, Coos County, where he has some friends who have encouraged him to go there to engage in work at carpentering.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. George Sykes came out from Portland last Sunday in a machine and visited at the home of A. R. Mills and family in the Springbrook neighborhood.

The little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Saltus, of Middleton, fell into a tub of hot water last Monday and died from the effects of the burns. The little one was said to have been a very pretty and attractive child.

Cards have been received here from Santa Area, California, announcing the marriage of Miss Leora Lois Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Buchanan, former residents of Newberg, to Marston Harry Harris. The marriage was performed in that city March 28.

Fred Patterson and Miss Veda Dorrance quietly stole away to Portland last Saturday and were married without giving the newspaper man any intimation of their intentions. Mr. Patterson is the steady young man who works in the office at the Newberg Manufacturing Co.'s plant near the depot.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Pacific College has been invited to meet, in the next regular session, April 27, at the home of Mrs. L. T. Pennington, who will be assisted, in the entertaining, by Mrs. Berta K. Terrell and Mrs. McDonald. Further notice will appear in next week's issue.

Stuart Vaughan, of McMinnville, who was in town Wednesday said he was in line with thousands of other old-time republicans who were formerly admirers of Roosevelt, but who now think he has made the mistake of his life in butting into the present presidential campaign as a candidate. He is solid for Taft.

On last Sunday afternoon a bunch of small boys who were playing with a push car on the railroad switch between the brick factory and the sawmill, got a shaking up that they will not soon forget. In passing over the trestle at the canyon the car collided with a dog which threw it off with its load of five boys all making a fall of twelve or fifteen feet. The two small sons of Alfond Hanson were in the wreck and both were quite severely injured. The older boy had the ligaments of one leg pretty badly hurt, while the smaller lad sustained fractures of both arms, the bone of one arm protruding through the flesh.

Quite a Natural Mistake.

The teacher asked: "When did Moses live?" After the silence had become painful she ordered: "Open your Old Testaments. What does it say there?"

A boy answered: "Moses (4, 000.)"

"Now," said the teacher, "why didn't you know when Moses lived?"

"Well," replied the boy, "I thought it was his telephone number."

For Surveyor

62 X H. W. Herring

Cruelty to Animals.

"I don't mind practical jokes on human beings," said a practical joker, "but when it comes to animals I draw the line. Two artists were once bragging to each other.

"I painted up a lump of pig iron to look like cork," said the first artist, "and, by jove, when I threw it in the river it floated!"

"Now," said the joker, "there was no harm in that. But listen to the second artist. He said, with a cruel, unfeeling laugh:

"I painted a lump of pig iron once to look like a roast of beef, and my dog ate three-quarters of it before he discovered his mistake."

Forbearance of Pericles.

Once, after being reviled and ill spoken of all day long in his own hearing by some vile and abandoned fellow in the open market place, where he was engaged in the dispatch of some urgent affair, he continued his business in perfect silence and in the evening returned home composedly, the man still dogging him at the heels and pelting him all the way with abuse and foul language; and, stepping into his house, it being by this time dark, he ordered one of his servants to take a light and to go along with the man and see him safe home.—Plutarch.

A Time Honored Contest.

The man who was passing the baseball grounds paused interestedly.

"What's that row about over by the fence?" he asked of an undersized, spectacled lad who was looking on from a safe distance.

"Sir," replied the boy sedately, "you have no doubt heard of the age old conflict between the haves and the have nots?"

"Yes," returned the puzzled inquirer, "but what?"

"Well, this is merely a little skirmish between the have nots and the have knot-holes."—Exchange.
