Fernwood.

Portie Judd from Oklahoma is visiting with his brother, C. L. Judd.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Everest and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Groff last Sunday.

Mrs. Claude Riggs is visiting at home again.

Literary was well attended Saturday night. There were a number of visitors from Rex and Chehalem Center. A good program was rendered. There will be no more literary until further notice.

The educational meeting held at Rex was a success in every way. The forenoon was taken up by Mr. Gentle, of the Monmouth school; Mr. Larson and Mr. Arrant, of Newberg; Mr. Cary, of LaFayette; Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mrs. Olive Crumly. Their talks were all good and sensible and to the point. About 12:50 dinner was served and it did credit to the women who prepared it. About 2 o'clock the crowd was called to the church again by a few taps of the bell and a good program was rendered by the three different schools.

Mrs. Dolly Fessler and little one are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fessler.

Miss Leta Judd returned home from Portland last week.

Mr. Rex Brouillette was over to visit with his sister, Mrs. Boyes the first of the week.

Mr. C. L. Judd and brother, Portie went to Portland last Saturday.

Miss Agnes Powell visited on Chehalem Mountain over Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Perkins.

Eber Ross has three or four men busy hoeing his hops.

Willie Parrish is doing considerable work on the roads now, let the good work continue.

This rain is certainly making the grain and gardens look nice.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Woolston attended literary at Chehalem Center last Friday night and reported the program excellent.

Chehalem Center.

Mr. Childers went to Portland on business the first of the week.

The Misses Kaley who were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Childers returned to Portland the first of the week.

Mrs. Maude McGuire has a badly sprained ankle which is giving her some trouble.

Mrs. C. J. Jacobson was called to Portland last week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs.

Erickson. She returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. Archie Pickard and his mother and little brother are now residents of Chehalem Center, they having located on a strip of the land just south of the school house on what was the "Carter Farm."

Rev. Harvey D. Crumly gave a good interesting talk to the Christian Endeavor at the church Sunday evening. Mrs. W. E. Crozer will lead the meeting at next Sunday evening services.

Last Friday evening everyone gathered from far and near and the old school house was filled as for seating capacity as it was the last night of literary and the cantata "the Saving of Dada" was rendered. Mrs. Maude McGuire told of the hardships of a drunkard while he was trying to reform while a number of the Chehalem Center singers interspersed the story with singing in a very creditable manner.
