PUBLIC SCHOOLS CLOSE

Sixty Pupils Complete Eighth Grade and Nineteen Graduate From High School.

The Newberg public schools closed last Friday after completing a very successful year. The attendance, which was considerably larger than last year, maintained a high average to the end of the term. The scholarship requirements for promotion have been raised in harmony with the policy of the school that thoroughness is more important than passing to the next grade.

Sixty-six pupils completed the eighth grade examination and nineteen graduated from the High School. The enrollment in the High School has been almost one-third larger than last year, and this year's class is fifty per cent larger than any former class.

The baccalaureate sermon to the class on Sunday preceding their graduation, given by Rev. Chas. O. Whitely, was a scholarly and practical discourse on "The Parable of the Empty Mind." Several of the churches of the town dismissed their evening service and made it possible for a very large audience to have the opportunity to hear this splendid address.

On Tuesday evening the Senior Class Day exercises were held in the High School assembly room where the following program was given:

Vocal Solo.....Elmer Buehler
Class Prophecy.....Edna Dammon
Seniors' Advice to Juniors.....Ida Olson
Play—The Little Rebel
Class History.....Nyna Mills
Burial of the Relics
Class Will.....Violet Craw
Class Song.

The various numbers were well rendered, special credit being due to those who took part in the play.

On Friday evening the High School graduating exercises were held in the Friends church. The program is given below.

Invocation.....Rev. J. F. Lyons
Violin Solo.....Miss Neva Brown
Salutatory and Oration, Higher Function of the Judges and the Laws.....Prof. Wallace, of McMinnville College
Vocal Solo.....Miss Vera Seeley
Presentation of Diplomas.....Mr. C. J. Edwards, of the School Board
Benediction.....Rev. Chas. O. Whitely
Prof. Wallace's address was a masterful interpretation of the value and the meaning of an education. It was an appeal to the class to continue their education, especially urging them to attend the college in their own town.

Miss Edna Dammon having maintained the highest standing of any one in the class was awarded the Pacific College scholarship.

The class roll is as follows: Ethel Andrews, Earl Andrews, Agnes Anderson, Stella Badley, Elmer Buehler, Violet Craw, Edna Dammon, Virgil Fendall, Ada Fairbanks, Lula Forsythe, Omer Gause, Helen Hagedorn, Margaret Illig, Estella Launer, Nyna Mills, Raymond Moore, Ida Olson, Clifford Spaulding, Harold Weaver.

ANNUAL GATHERING OF FRIENDS CHURCH

The twentieth annual session of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends church opened this Thursday, morning and will continue with two business sessions a day and with devotional meetings at night, closing on Monday.

The principal speakers from outside this Yearly Meeting will be Dr. Sylvester Newlin, of Pasadena, California, and Rev. Chas. Replogle, of Everett, Washington.

A report of the various sessions will be given next week.

Dale Butt has gone to Grass Valley for a visit with friends.

One trouble you find with most ready-made clothes is that they don't keep their shape. It is not so with

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes

They are made of ALL WOOL fabrics; thoroughly shrunk; the tailoring in them is highest grade; the insides are as good as the outside. That is why they keep their shape.

Plea For A Home

"In my experience in hunting up positions for men, I am not often called upon to deal with a case such as the following," said Bert G. Mitchell, Assistant Advisory and Employment Secretary, of the Portland Y. M. C. A. "A young boy, 11 or 12 years of age, by name Raymond Clark, is looking for a job. His mother, Mrs. Lulu Clark, and her little girl, 9 years of age, came in to see me the other day. Mrs. Clark and children have no home but sleep around at any place that she can find, wherever she may be employed or wherever they can find a sleeping place. She is anxious to find a home in the country for her boy where he will have a chance to work for his clothes and keep. The only thing that she insists on is that the boy be under good influence, get an opportunity to attend school and that she may have the privilege of visiting him occasionally. She does not want the boy adopted because she wants him for her own. "If a place could be found for her as housekeeper in a country home with a privilege of keeping both her children with her, it would be a Godsend to her. I believe this is a very worthy case and will be glad to hear from any who may be interested. This is an opportunity to do some very practical philanthropy."
