

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:45 A. M.	9:05 A. M.
8:46 A. M.	11:05 A. M.
1:10 P. M.	5:35 P. M.
4:22 P. M.	7:10 P. M.

W. A. King made a business trip to Seattle the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baird moved to their elegant new residence this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douglas visited with friends at Dayton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary E. Allen, of Eugene, visited in Newberg last Sunday with her niece, Mrs. E. H. Woodward.

George Howie, of Portland, spent Sunday in Newberg with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Howie.

Mrs. G. W. James and the younger children went to Newport Tuesday to see the ocean for the first time.

Mrs. J. O. Orchard and Mrs. John French, of Portland, have been in town during the week visiting with their brother, N. F. Byers.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford, Mrs. Welter and Miss Mildred Wills went to McMinnville Tuesday to attend a meeting of the county W. C. T. U.

Jesse Hobson and little daughter, and son Clyde and wife, of Portland, passed through Newberg Monday on their way to Tillamook by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Townsend, of Portland, visited last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Townsend's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bowman north of Newberg.

Miss Eunice Lewis went to Newport Tuesday to remain with her mother who went out last week. Mrs. Lewis has not been in good health for some time.

A. R. Mills, of Springbrook, left on Wednesday for the Siuslaw country where he will act as fire warden for the Southern Pacific in the timber belt for the next month.

City Councilman W. A. Westfall is wearing a smile this week that is warranted to wash. Mrs. Westfall arrived home from her Iowa visit last Sunday and he is not eating his own cooking any more.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Charles O. Whitely, who is away at the beach on a vacation, Miss Edith Minchin gave a talk at the Friends church on last Sunday morning which was well received.

Martin Cook, who for a number of years was a resident of Newberg, living on Wynooski street, has been prostrated at his home in Portland by paralysis for some time and his recovery is not expected.

Lon S. Hill, of Cottage Grove, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Hill and daughter, Miss Esther, who had been visiting here for two weeks. They left for home on Monday, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker going with them.

A. E. Davis, the grandfather of Dr. A. M. Davis, of Newberg, died at the home on the Davis farm in West Chehalis on Monday, at the age of 85 years and seven months. Interment was made at Forest Grove on Wednesday.

Prof. Melville D. Hawkins arrived home Sunday evening from a trip down the Siuslaw river to the seashore. At the close of his summer's work in the University of Oregon, he with another student started out on a hike to the beach on foot, stopping to camp and fish as they liked. A highly satisfactory outing was the result.

J. M. Lemon and family made a trip by auto to Portland Wednesday.

Rev. H. H. Keim is home from Pennsylvania after an absence of three months.

Rev. Ezra Hayes will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

The parents of George L. Kelty of McCoy, spent Wednesday night in Newberg.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Halford on Saturday, August 17, twin babies, a boy and girl.

Everett George and Russell Parker are home from the harvest fields of Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Madson made a trip to Creswell this week to look after their farm in that section.

Harry Crater and Lineas Christenson made a trip to Corvallis a few days ago to investigate O. A. C.

In the absence of the pastor, President Pennington will preach at the Friends church next Sunday morning.

Mrs. M. J. Parrett has been in Newberg for several days visiting her son, S. L. Parrett, and other relatives and friends.

Wm. Clemmens has gone to Tillamook to officiate in the organization of a G. A. R. Post, which is to take place on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith and son, Jay, came home from Newport the first of the week. They report very pleasant weather there this season but the crowds smaller than in former years.

Prof. Arthur K. Wilson, of the class of 1908, Pacific College, who is an instructor in the Harvard Military School, in Los Angeles, came out from Portland Wednesday for a visit with former Newberg friends.

Dr. Dixon says he has no intention of locating on his farm as indicated by the Dundee correspondent in the Graphic last week. The farm is leased to his brother for a term of five years, and besides he is well pleased with his location in Newberg and expects to remain here.

Miss Ruth Gilmore, who is cashier in a large grocery store in Oklahoma City, was in Newberg last Friday and Saturday visiting her aunt, Mrs. Albert Benson. She is off on a vacation and besides seeing the great Northwest country she is visiting relatives in different sections of the country. Portland furnished Miss Gilmore many surprises in the big stores she found there and she was much impressed with the country.

George H. Himes, of the Oregon State Historical Society, in company with Captain and Mrs. Pope, pioneers of the fifties, stopped in Newberg for a short time Wednesday while on the way to Tillamook by auto. While in town Mr. Himes took a little time with Hon. J. C. Nelson, in order to connect up a few links in the history of pioneer days in Oregon.

The local branch of the W. C. T. U. in cooperation with sister organizations of the state, is beginning preparations for the National Convention which is to be held in Portland in October. On Friday evening, August 30th, a banquet is to be given in Odd Fellows Hall at which the state president and others of both state and national repute will be in attendance. A spicy after dinner program is promised, with President L. T. Pennington wielding the gavel as toastmaster. A menu fit for a king is being prepared, say the ladies, and all for fifty cents per plate. As but a limited number will be sold, prospective banqueters should lose no time in getting their names in the pot.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore were over from Laurel Tuesday in attendance at the Nebraska picnic.

Mrs. Frank Zumalt, Master Clayborn Zumalt and Miss Kate Jones went to Newport Tuesday to hear the song of the Pacific.

President and Mrs. Pennington have gone to Scotts Mills on a short vacation and fishing trip, expecting to return the last of the week.

A number of local G. A. R. men, as well as several members of the W. R. C., are in Dayton in attendance at the County Encampment.

Rev. C. L. Hamilton, who came out from Portland Tuesday to give the address at the Nebraska picnic, was a caller at the Graphic office.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn B. Ferguson, Miss Ralston, a sister of Mrs. Ferguson, Dr. Harry Littlefield and Mrs. Maggie Littlefield, went to Newport the first of the week.

Seth Dodge is off on a vacation from postoffice duties, and in company with his mother, has gone to their former home at Puyallup on a visit.

State Printer, Willis S. Dunaway and wife, stopped in Newberg Tuesday evening for refreshments, while on the way from Portland to Salem by auto.

Mrs. M. J. Nash in company with her friend, Mrs. Eggers, from Portland, started on their annual outing at Newport Tuesday morning, looking as chipper as two girls in their teens.

W. C. Woodward expects to start back to Indiana Wednesday and will be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. E. H. Woodward, who will visit at her old home at Bloomingdale and other points for a couple of months.

Married at Coquille, August 12, Miss Bessie Williams to Roy Ballard. Both bride and groom were formerly residents of Newberg. They will make their home in Bandon where Mr. Ballard has a position with the Coos Bay Telephone Co.

S. L. Parrett has purchased 25 acres of the Everest donation land claim adjoining Newberg on the east. The tract, which belonged to Elmer Everest, includes the old Everest home, where Mrs. Parrett's grandfather, Richard Everest, settled in 1847. Mr. Parrett has sold his eight and a quarter acre tract at Dundee, including five acres of Bartlett pears and English walnuts, to Elmer Everest for $4,000.

While cash sales in real estate are a little slow at this season of the year, it is a good time to make exchanges and often it proves better than a straight sale. The latest is a deal between Mr. E. R. Switzer of this city and Amos Graves just out of town. In the trade, the former gets a nice little farm of 11 1/4 acres, out one and a quarter miles, and the latter takes a residence and two good lots in town.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Janey McE. Galbreath, indicted on a charge of obstructing a highway, returned a verdict of guilty and Judge Campbell imposed a sentence of $75 fine or 37 days in jail. The case grew out of a boundary dispute in the town of Tualatin, an incident of which was the firing of a shot at men employed by Road Supervisor Casteel to remove a fence claimed to be in the public highway.—Hillsboro Independent.

County Superintendent, S. S. Duncan who is out visiting the many school districts in the county, for the purpose of working up an interest in the School Fair, was in Newberg Wednesday. He says he finds a good degree of interest being manifested in all sections of the county and support is promised in many lines by the Indians of Grand Ronde, who manifest a willingness to show the pale faces what they can do. Mr. Duncan has great faith in the success of the fair.

Mrs. Roy Gardner and little daughter came over from Lebanon last week for a visit with Newberg relatives.

W. W. Hollingsworth went over to Forest Grove Wednesday where he had charge of the burial of A. E. Davis, whose death is mentioned in these columns.

Frank C. Mills has been sick for several days and his recovery seems quite doubtful, though his many friends who hold him in high esteem still hope that he may be restored to health again.

Mrs. H. L. Christenson received a telephone message from Goldendale, Washington, Tuesday evening telling of the sickness of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Atkinson, and in response she left for Goldendale the following morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Barrett, of Illinois, who are making a tour of the Coast, are in Newberg visiting at the home of Attorney Clarence Butt. Mr. Barrett is an uncle of Mrs. Butt. They will return home by way of Yellowstone Park.

J. L. Van Blaricom and son, Elgin, are off on a hunting and fishing trip in Columbia County. With them are Mr. and Mrs. Levi Van Blaricom and daughter, who are out on a visit from east of the Rockies, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bell, of Tacoma.

Prof. Alexander Hull, Mrs. Eva and Miss Dorothy Hull arrived home last week from Berkeley, California, where they have had a very pleasant summer in connection with their work in the University. They made their home with Rev. A. J. Weaver. Mrs. Weaver is spending the summer in the East.

DUNDEE

Miss Eleanor Harris, of Portland, is a guest of Miss Bertha Reed.

Mrs. Roe Robison spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Yamhill.

Mrs. Leon Cyr went to Portland last week to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Bertha Reed made a business trip to Portland on Monday.

Thomas Prince and T. W. Spencer spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harding are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little son.

So much has been said about the probable damage to crops by the recent rains that it may be of interest to the readers of the Graphic to know that farmers of this section are not worried over conditions. One of the largest grain growers in the vicinity says that only the outside of his grain has been wet and that, so far, it has not started to sprout. The hop men report considerable inconvenience from fallen wires but say the hop crop is as yet undamaged.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Hatch who for several years have made their home in the Red Hills have decided to move to Alabama where the Hatch Brothers have secured a large tract of land for a dairy farm. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch will leave about the third of September and visit relatives in the Middle West before going to the new home.

Nineteen dozen clothespins! "There's richness for you!" On account of the inclement weather the neighborhood picnic which had been planned to be held in the Allan Grove on Thursday was changed to an indoor picnic supper. As the day marked the fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Greer many of the neighbors braved the storm and gathered at Otterbrook for a social evening and to extend to the occupants best wishes for a long life of continued happiness. Many beautiful and useful articles of wood, besides the clothespins, were received by Mr. and Mrs. Greer to be cherished as reminders of the occasion.

Miller Merc. Co.

Sole agents for such high grade lines of merchandise as:

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing.
Florsheim and Yale dress shoes for men.

Chippewa work and high cut shoes for men.

Utz & Dunn and Martha Washington shoes for women.

Nemo and Royal Worcester corsets.

Derby Kid Gloves, Wunderhose, Occident Flour.

Miller Mercantile Co.

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

Home Furnishers

Goods Sold on the Installment Plan

Liberal Discounts for Cash

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

THE STORE OF QUALITY

Special Clean Up

WE WANT MORE ROOM FOR FALL STOCK

200 Pairs Ladies Shoes and Oxfords, values up to $3.50; Clean up price.....$1.00

100 Pairs Childrens & Misses Shoes, special clean up.....50c, 75c, $1.00 $1.25

WAISTS

Any white waist in the house, values up to $3.00, special clean up.....$1.00

DRESS GOODS

Our fall line is nearly all in. All the newest wide suitings and cloakings.....$1.50 to $3.00 per yd
Come in and look them over.

Hop Picking Gloves, per pair.....5c, 10c, 15c, 25c

J. C. Porter & Co.

Feeling His Oats

the wise animal picks out the right selection. It's all important to have the kind of feeding your horses and cattle will thrive on. We've selected our stock with judgment gained from experience, and can supply the best in grain and feed, any quantity, at bottom prices. That's what's wanted. Orders receive prompt and careful attention.

Frank Zumwalt
Flour, Feed and Poultry Supplies

