

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:45 A. M.	9:05 A. M.
8:46 A. M.	11:05 A. M.
1:10 P. M.	5:35 P. M.
4:22 P. M.	7:10 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Linville are home from Garibaldi beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hoskins were Newberg visitors last Sunday.

Enos Pressnall, of Salem, attended Friends church in Newberg last Sunday.

Mrs. E. A. Newby and son, Bernard, are down from Salem for a few days visit.

K. W. Shafford, the glove manufacturer, made a business trip to McMinnville Tuesday.

Mrs. Phariba Morris was up from Portland on a visit with friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Samuel Gause returned home the last of the week from a visit with relatives in Salem.

Worth Sims came up from Portland Saturday for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. C. B. Cummings.

A good roads meeting is announced for next Saturday afternoon at the Chehalem Center schoolhouse.

Mrs. George W. Range and small children were down from McMinnville on a visit with relatives the first of the week.

W. C. Woodward and his mother left for Indiana Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Woodward expects to be gone two months.

Malcolm and Marjorie Gilbert, of Rosedale, were here the first of the week visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert.

Tyra Hutchins, of the Portland postoffice force, who is off on his annual vacation, is out from Portland with his family on a visit.

Sheriff Watt Henderson was in Newberg Tuesday afternoon summoning witnesses in the McSherry case which will be tried before a McMinnville justice Friday.

Mrs. Florence Ewell Atkins, of Nashville, Tennessee, will speak in the Friends church next Sunday evening. The speaker is said to be eloquent, humorous and logical. Admission free, offering taken.

D. A. Hart and family made a trip to Jefferson last Sunday by auto. Mr. Hart says the more he travels over Oregon the firmer his conviction is that Newberg is located in one of the best sections of the state.

H. M. Williams received word from Tacoma a few days ago giving information of the death of his niece, Mrs. Margaret Williams Wright. The deceased was a student in the college here several years ago.

Born, on Friday, August 23, to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davey, a daughter. Mrs. Davey has been with her mother, Mrs. B. R. Bass, for some time and expects Mr. Davey to arrive from their home at Goldfield, Nevada, soon.

Mrs. T. W. Hester assisted the Doctor in celebrating his thirty-fifth birthday anniversary Saturday evening by giving a dinner, to which were invited Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Terrell and family and W. C. Woodward. Mrs. Terrell, and the latter were classmates of Dr. Hester in Pacific College.

A party was given last Saturday evening at the beautiful country home of J. A. George in honor of Miss Fay Price who expects to leave soon for her new home in Portland. The evening was spent very pleasantly by having an old fashioned taffy pull on the lawn. About sixteen were present.

Port and Miss Leta Judd went to Newport last Saturday, returning on Monday.

Allen S. Craven is doing some carpenter work for John Heaton on the farm near Scholls.

Tom Jones and one of his daughters were up from Portland on a visit the first of the week.

Station Agent, G. W. James, spent last Sunday with Mrs. James and the babies at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boswell were called to Portland last Friday on account of the death of a relative.

Jacob Wrage was up from Portland last Sunday visiting R. Pettyjohn, who is in very poor health.

Wm. Clemmens, who went to Tillamook last week to organize a G. A. R. Post, says he effected the organization with a good membership.

W. W. Hollingsworth received a wireless message from his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin, on Monday, from Kake, Alaska, stating that they would start for home next week. The cost of the message was $2.50.

Mrs. Ann Lamb of Berkeley, California, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Whiteis, over in Central Oregon for some time, returned to Newberg last week and will visit here with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Wight, several weeks before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards, Milton York and family, O. K. Edwards and family and other Portland parties returned home Monday from an auto trip to Tillamook. They say the city of Tillamook is making great strides in the way of hard surfacing streets and laying cement walks. So much in fact that it looks like the burden of debt would hang pretty heavy over the property owners for a time.

On Saturday night of last week, W. E. Allison gave his Sunday school class an ice cream and cake social, the members of the class consisting of Dale Butt, Harold Moore, Walter Bartlett, Lester Warner, Luther Muncle, Claude and Irvin Rader. After the boys had done justice to the eats, the evening was spent very pleasantly with music and singing, and the class is hoping for another such an evening's entertainment in the future.

Tracy McSherry will be given a hearing on Friday before Justice Hopfield in McMinnville, on account of an altercation he had with Marshal Thomas one night recently while under the influence of liquor. In making the arrest, the marshal seeing he held a knife in one hand, told him to throw up his hands. One hand only, went up, and the order was repeated and a shot fired in the air, but the other hand still remained down. The marshal then sent a bullet through the uplifted hand which caused McSherry to submit to arrest.

Harold White, of Pasadena, California, is in town visiting his cousins, W. E. and Clifford Terrell and Mrs. E. P. Dixon and Mrs. Thos. Hester. He spent the past two months in Alaska establishing agencies for an Oakland publishing house and is on his way home. He was a passenger on the steamer Seattle which was grounded on a sand bar in Alaska waters in a heavy fog a short time ago, which proved to be a novel experience. The steamer stuck fast and when the tide went out she was left high and dry. When daylight came the passengers went ashore and walked all round the vessel, but when the tide came in again she floated off without suffering injury.

Rev. George C. Round, of Co. burg, is in town.

Dr. Doolittle left on a business trip to Centralia, Washington, on Wednesday.

Charley Lapp has bought out his partner, Mr. Matthews, and will conduct the grocery alone.

Mrs. Della Rossett, a daughter of W. E. Allison came in from Tacoma, Wednesday evening, for a visit.

The next regular meeting of the A. F. and A. M. will be on Wednesday evening of next week. Work in the third degree.

Mrs. E. A. King, Mrs. George L. McPherson and Mrs. George O'Bryon came out from Portland Wednesday to visit W. A. King and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Surles were down from Albany the first of the week visiting with Mrs. Surles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryan.

J. W. Webber, the old soldier who was taken to a Portland hospital last week for surgical treatment is reported to be getting on nicely.

J. Watson Baker, of Fair Maple Fruit Farm, must have known of the tooth the Graphic scribe has for peaches, for he left a box of Early Crawfords on the office table Saturday that had a flavor in keeping with the fine appearance of the fruit. Next.

In view of the fact that all attempts to secure good water for the Chehalem Center school have been unsatisfactory, it was decided at a recent meeting held in that district to pipe water down by gravity from a spring some distance back on the hill. The cost will probably be about $200.

METROPOLITAN CONCERT CO. GREAT ENTERTAINERS

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, at Duncan's hall, under the management of R. L. Ross, the lyceum man, the Metropolitan Concert Company, composed of Miss Hazel Folsom, lyric soprano, Miss Grace Rosaeen, reader, Mr. Ingvald Wicks, violinist, and Miss Antha MacLafferty, pianist and accompanist, gave programs of high class entertainment.

Owing to a number of adverse circumstances the audiences were small, but the hearty cheering throughout, showed that the performers had their hearers with them, and inasmuch as Newberg audiences, as a rule, are none too free in demonstrations of approval, this was good evidence that the efforts of the visitors to please were successful.

As a pianist and accompanist Miss MacLafferty has few equals, and Miss Grace Rosaeen, the reader, would star in any city before any audience. Every number given was a good one and it is to be hoped that the Metropolitan Concert Company may return at some future time under more favorable circumstances.

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

John Pitts of West Newberg, was 75 years old August 27. About 25 of his friends and neighbors gathered at his home at 7 o'clock p. m. with well filled baskets and gave him a complete surprise. All he could say was "That he was glad the neighbors had brought them in something good to eat." After a hearty supper, including ice cream and cake, they spent a social hour in visiting until ten o'clock, when all wished Mr. Pitts many returns of the day and went to their homes feeling that it was an evening well spent. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ricks, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hulin, Mrs. John Wenger, Mrs. J. H. Comer, Mrs. Jimmie Ellis, Misses Bessie King, Janette

King, Daisy Comer, Edith Ricks' Mildred Ricks, Mildred Eisert, Mary Freeman, Messrs. Grosline, Jim Pitts, Willie King, Geo. King, Marvin Moore and Master Marvin Ricks.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY

BIOGRAPHIES.

Lodge—George Washington, 2 vols.

Lodge—Alexander Hamilton. Von Holst—John C. Calhoun. Morse—Thomas Jefferson. Morse—Benjamin Franklin. Morse—John Quincy Adams. Schurz—Henry Clay, 2 vols. Tyler—Patrick Henry. Sumner—Andrew Jackson.

POETRY.

Holmes Poetical Works. BOOKS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE. Holland—Historic Girlhood. Webster—Just Patty. Remic—Glenlock Girls Club. Davis—Stories for Boys. Barbour—Teammates. Earl—School Team on the Diamond. Seton—The Biography of a Grizzly. Seton—Monarch, The Big Bear. Seton—Woodmyth and Fable. Seton—Crag and Johnny Bear. Seton—The Trail of Sandhill Stag.

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN.

Paine—The Hollow Tree Snowed-In Book. Forman—Stories of Useful Inventions. Brearly—Animal Secrets Told. Hall—Handicraft For Handy Boys.

FICTION.

Sinclair—The Money Changers. Bennett—A Man From The North. Bennett—The Old Wives Tale. Bennett—Whom God Hath Joined. Hawthorne—Mosses From An Old Manse. Twain—Puddin' Head Wilson. Fitch—At Good Old Siwash. McCutchen—Brewster's Millions. Kingsley—Westward Ho. Harris—The Recording Angel. Wright—The Shepherd of the Hills. Westcott—David Harum. Page—Red Rock. Howells—The Sleeping Car and Other Farces.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Bennett—The Human Machine. Bennett—How to Live On 24 Hours a Day.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Last Wednesday Mrs. I. N. Campbell entertained some of the elderly ladies in honor of her mother, Mrs. Green. A very pleasant time was reported.

There will be a good roads meeting at the school-house Saturday at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Hicks of Hood River, made a few days' visit with her friend, Miss Maude Wills, the first of the week.

S. W. Atkinson journeyed to Portland Saturday.

Fred Harrison came out home from Portland for a visit Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wheeler of Portland, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wills.

Allen Campbell is back in our midst again.

The W. C. T. U met at the home of Mrs. Mary Palmer Johnson Wednesday, August 14. Nineteen ladies were present, president in the chair. Some time was taken up looking over the yearly reports after the regular devotional, then naming the delegates to attend the convention at McMinnville. Then followed a mothers' meeting at which Mrs. H. D. Harford gave a very interesting talk, Mrs. Maude McGuire a reading, which was highly appreciated, and Mrs. Carrie Johnson a reading. The hostess then served ice cream and cake during the social hour. Next meeting takes place at home of Mrs. Mary E. Hodges.

Miller Merc. Co.

Sole agents for such high grade lines of merchandise as:

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing.

Florsheim and Yale dress shoes for men.

Chippewa work and high cut shoes for men.

Utz & Dunn and Martha Washington shoes for women.

Nemo and Royal Worcester corsets.

Derby Kid Gloves, Wunderhose, Occident Flour.

Miller Mercantile Co.

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

Home Furnishers

Goods Sold on the Installment Plan

Liberal Discounts for Cash

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons

THE STORE OF QUALITY

Special Clean Up

WE WANT MORE ROOM FOR FALL STOCK

200 Pairs Ladies Shoes and Oxfords, values up to $3.50; Clean up price.....$1.00

100 Pairs Childrens & Misses Shoes, special clean up.....50c, 75c, $1.00 $1.25

WAISTS

Any white waist in the house, values up to $3.00, special clean up.....$1.00

DRESS GOODS

Our fall line is nearly all in. All the newest wide suitings and cloakings.....$1.50 to $3.00 per yd. Come in and look them over.

Hop Picking Gloves, per pair.....5c, 10c, 15c, 25c

J. C. Porter & Co.

The Newberg Manufacturing and Construction Co.

For the Best Prices on the Best Windows, Doors, Interior and Exterior Finish, Mouldings, Building Stone, Cabinet Work, Store Fixtures and General Mill Work

Kindergarten

Mrs. Hurlston will be pleased to receive on Wednesday, Sept. 4, 3 p. m., at the kindergarten any ladies who think of sending their little ones for the ensuing term as new pupils.

Socialist Speaking

B. F. Ramp, nominee for U. S. Senator, and W. S. Richards, nominee for Congressman from this district, will speak in Newberg, at 7:30 p. m., on First street, Thursday, August 29.