

W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons, Corner of First and Howard Streets

Our Big New Store is crowded with the newest in Fall and Winter Merchandise and W. W. Hollingsworth & Sons bid you welcome. Come in, and take your time looking over one of the largest stocks of home furnishings in Yamhill county.

THINKING OF FURNITURE?

Furniture that has a lot to do with your comfort, and everything to do with your pride in your home. You will certainly be judged by your furniture. Buy your furniture carefully.

Here is the Best Way to buy it

IN THE FIRST PLACE—You don't want furniture that will soon go to pieces, or furniture that is ugly or that looks just like your neighbor's furniture. Therefore let us show you furniture that is well made, correct in design and exclusive.

SECOND—Select from our immense stock pieces that are comfortable and handsome in themselves and that harmonize with your rooms.

THIRD—Satisfy yourself that our prices are right (if you are in doubt) by comparing them with what others ask.

We have earned the reputation of carrying more furniture of the kind that every woman is proud to own. Naturally, you would prefer to buy this furniture if the prices are no higher than you are asked for the other kind.

All we ask is a chance to help you make a comparison.

FROM MR. PURDY

To Editor of Graphic:

You will kindly let me state to the public, through your valuable paper, that the recent adverse decision in the Supreme Court in my Winter's Deed Controversy was no more than I expected; and, as the Honorable Judge who wrote the decision said when starting in: "This is a remarkable case," therefore, he no doubt felt justified in deciding it regardless of the law or the evidence in the case.

I realized when I started in to litigate this deed that I had mountains to climb and many, many obstacles to overcome. But now I believe the worst is over. I am fully decided to stay in this little game until I get what I believe to be a decision based upon the law and the evidence of the case; and that too, from these Honorable Judges of Oregon Supreme Court. God bless them! but they are not infallible. If they were, this recall agitation would be less.

I believe I am carrying on an honest fight to get what is justly my own, and if, eventually, I lose, it will be nearly all I have of this world's goods, for it is not simply a gift, as some would wish the public to believe.

I am not a bit discouraged, for I honestly believe it Mr. Winters himself should appear on the scene in person and ask those who are lavishly spending his hard earned savings for his property and money, that he would be told to "go away back and sit down," for others had come in possession of it who had more of a right to it than he himself.

The reader might wonder who the others are. I will simply say it was never the intention of those in authority to have this property escheated to the State; but in the East a star shone, and from this direction an heir was born which is a little bit nearer kin than any other, and has a little bit better right to this property than Winters or any one else Winters might have decided it to. It matters not what nationality or color this heir is, his backing is sufficient, for he was predestinated even before the foundation of this case. But I will simply add, show me the color of his or her hair and I am ready for another scrap.

I hereby warn the public that my rights to this property will surely come before the courts on its merits as it never has to this date.

Will E. Purdy.

DUNDEE

Carol Warner, the little daughter of Thomas Warner, who suffered concussion of the brain from a fall from the hayloft, has nearly recovered.

Miss Elsie Stahl, of McMinnville, has returned from a visit with her aunt, Mrs. M. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Handley, of McMinnville, spent a few days last week at Glenfell, the Spencer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Groth spent Sunday at the Groth home.

Word has been received from the president of the College Equal Suffrage League explaining the failure of Mrs. Erhott to appear to deliver her promised lectures in Dundee. She was taken ill while on her lecture tour and was obliged to return to Portland. The League workers hope to send some one to speak in our village before the close of the campaign.

Julius Johnson, who lost his house by fire a few weeks ago, has rebuilt. His new house, a modern five-room bungalow, is nearly ready for occupancy.

Miss Maggie McWhinnie, of Portland, was a week end guest at Otterbrook.

Roe Robison spent two days at Yamhill last week.

F. C. Little, of Portland, was a Red Hill visitor on Sunday.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. K. L. Tangen went to Portland Tuesday to attend the National W. C. T. U. convention.

S. W. Childers left Tuesday morning for The Dalles on business expecting to be away a few days.

S. W. Newhouse has joined the bachelorhood of Chehalem Center as Mrs. Newhouse has gone to Portland to attend the National convention of the W. C. T. U.

Last Friday afternoon the class in agriculture held a corn show at the school house. They expect to show apples next month. H. L. Strait has a way of creating interest in the school work. He also organized a basket ball team which the older students appreciate very much.

Rev. John Shires and wife left on Tuesday morning for a visit at their old home town, Georgetown, Illinois.

E. B. Ridgeway and daughter, Ina, started Friday for Lake county, where they expect to take up land, going overland.

Mrs. J. C. Wills and Miss Mildred Wills went down last Friday to Portland to attend the state convention, and also to be in attendance this week at the National convention of the W. C. T. U., as Miss Mildred was sent as a delegate from Chehalem Center W. C. T. U.

The Bull Moose people carried the vote at the oyster supper at the church in West Chehalem. Chehalem Center has not polled her vote, but there are a number of women here who would like the franchise, and why not? The United States is not an ideal republic if we leave half the people irresponsible and unprotected. The country needs the working power of all its citizens. Vote 300 X Yes, ye voters, at the coming election.

MAKE WISE SELECTION

The award for bitulithic paving just made at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, indicates that the taxpayers of that city recognize and appreciate true value in a paving material, and that the rigid investigation made by members of the city council and others interested, confirmed every claim that was made for this high grade, economical, durable paving.

The committee selected for the purpose made a thorough investigation of the various kinds of paving used in the Pacific Northwest, including localities where conditions were most unfavorable. Surely if defects or weaknesses exist, they could have been discovered in the thousands of miles of bitulithic paving laid in the Northwest.

Other cities in that section of the country which have been awaiting the action of the city authorities of Coeur d'Alene, are planning to follow the example of this progressive city and pave their streets with bitulithic, the truly economical paving.
