"Grandpa" Keyes had the surprise of his life Saturday evening when friends and neighbors came to celebrate his eighty-second anniversary. An impromptu musical entertainment was given consisting of several piano selections by Miss Bernice Keyes, vocal solos by Master Francis Keyes, a duet by Misses Carmen Wall and Bernice Keyes and violin music by Fred Jannsen. After the refreshments were disposed of, the guests departed wishing "Grandpa" many happy returns of the day and promising to assist him in celebrating his century anniversary eighteen years hence. Those present were: "Grandpa" Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keyes, Miss Bernice Keyes, Francis Keyes, Miss Carmen Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts, Fred Jannsen, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allan, Mrs. J. P. Bryant, Louisa, Isabella, Ray and Jimmie Allan, Misses Christopher, Young, Spencer, and T. W. Spencer and E. S. Greer.

Friday evening, November 29, a basket social and entertainment was given by the public school children for the benefit of the school library. An address was given by Prof. R. W. Swink followed by recitations and music. At the conclusion of the program the lunch baskets were auctioned off at a lively rate by W. S. Allan and at a good price. The affair was a success both financially and otherwise.

It is reported that Mr. Thun is recovering from his operation for cancer of the stomach.

Miss Bertha Reed, with some Portland friends, spent the week end on her Red Hill ranch.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Rev. Crocker and family are now occupying their newly built residence which they built on the land they purchased just north of the Paulsen home.

School began Monday in Miss Perkins' room after having several days holidays as Miss Perkins was on the sick list.

Archie Pickard is in Hood River at present.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the school house Thursday and listened to a splendid Thanksgiving sermon by Rev. Crocker and then all enjoyed a grand big Thanksgiving dinner served on tables in the primary room. After doing justice to the feast all enjoyed the afternoon in a social way while they watched the basket ball games by the school boys and girls.

A crowded house full of people listened to the Silver Medal contest Saturday evening at the church. Those taking part were as follows: the Misses Edith Minchin, May Smith, of Dundee, Anna Tangen, Helen George and Ellis Pickett. All did well, Miss Helen George receiving the medal. Prof. Hawkins, of Pacific College, gave two of his humorous readings and the college quartet gave a number of their songs, which were highly appreciated and Prof. Hawkins and the quartet will be welcome this way again at any time. The contestants, singers and all who participated in the evening's program were invited to the home of Miss Mildred Wills, superintendent of the contest work, to a reception. The evening was passed very pleasantly with singing by the quartet, Prof. Hawkins giving two readings. Miss Vivian Allen, of Monmouth, also gave some readings. The hostess served ice cream and cake to the company. This contest will be repeated with several other contestants added, Friday evening, December 13, at the West Chehalis church.

Gilbert Grimes and family spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Tangen.

Miss Vivian Allen and Miss Maude Wills returned to the Normal school at Monmouth, Sunday evening.

The W. C. T. U. held their meeting at the home of Mrs. K. L. Tangen Wednesday. There were a number of ladies present, the president in the chair. Miss Edith Minchin led the devotional and a few of the superintendents gave in their reports. Miss Mildred Wills gave a good full report of the National and State convention which all enjoyed. Miss Minchin also gave a report. The union voted $9.23 out of the treasury for current expenses. The next meeting will occur at the home of Miss Nancy Atkinson in December.

POLITICAL FORTUNES

are very uncertain—often made by chance, sudden popularity, divided opposition or by a winning issue. Financial fortunes are created in but one way. They are built upon the solid foundation of persistent saving. The small beginning may result in the large saving. Begin now and save while you can. $1 starts an account.
