COLLEGE CLIPPINGS

Several N. H. S. students took advantage of the vacation caused by the teachers' institute and visited the college last week.

Edgar Newall came up from Portland last Friday for a brief visit with friends at the college, prior to leaving for Berkeley, Cal., where he has a position. He intends to attend school part of the time.

Miss Florence Calkins has been out of school for the past two weeks on account of illness.

Miss Rene Owen has been confined to her room for several days with a sprained ankle.

The students and faculty have recently had the pleasure of listening to two interesting talks on the Indians and Eskimos of Alaska. December 3, Calva Martin (P. C. '98), who with his wife was stationed until a few months ago at Kake, gave a talk on the native work and customs in the southern part of Alaska, and the Friday following Professor York described the dress and implements used in the extreme north, where he was formerly engaged as a government teacher. He showed a number of the tools used by the natives and explained their construction and use.

The basket ball carnival held in the gymnasium December 6, was quite successful and a neat sum was added to the treasury of the Athletic Association. The Academy team won a fiercely fought contest from the College five by the score of 36 to 21, while in the second game the Faculty lost to the Alumni quintet to the tune of 17 to 14. Omer Gause, N. H. S., refereed both games.

Monday morning the devotional exercises were led by Elmer Pemberton, Yearly Meeting Superintendent of Evangelistic Work.

Tuesday, December 10, Supt. A. C. Stanbrough (P. C. '93) spoke in chapel on the "spoils system" and the steps which have been taken in the United States toward civil service reform.

The basket ball team will go to Mt. Angel December 13 to play their first game for this season. A hard game is expected.

According to present plans the local season will be opened with Chemawa, December 20.

A large audience attended the public recital given by the music department last Monday evening in the college auditorium. The program consisted altogether of instrumental work. At the second recital, which will occur next Monday evening, several vocal numbers will be given.

President L. T. Pennington went to Portland December 10, to attend a meeting of the temperance workers of the state. He was one of the speakers at the night session.

(The following notes were held over from last week.)

Ernest Thun is back in school, after an absence of several days on account of sickness.

Announcement was made November 27, of a new ruling by the Faculty in regard to the oratorical primaries. Instead of each student being required to write an oration as last year, the choice will be given of doing this or of appearing in a class public, to be held later in the year. Each student is to appear in public sometime during the year.

Thanksgiving vacation was variously enjoyed by members of the Faculty. Prof. and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Lewis and Miss Sutton sought relaxation from the "endless grind" by a trip to Newport, while Miss Beck visited friends at Gresham. The remainder tried to obtain the same result by a change of occupation instead of atmosphere and scenery.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting for December 4, was led by Prof. Johnson on the subject of "Giving." The Y. W. C. A. meeting for the same date was addressed by Mrs. Myers, her subject being "Mission Work in Alaska."

The valuable Shepherd dog belonging to Wesley Boyes, was found dead one day last week. He was valued very highly by Mr. Boyes.

A basket social will be given at the Fernwood gymnasium Saturday evening, December 21. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Schick visited friends in Dayton Sunday.
