CHEHALEM CENTER

Miss Myrtle Walton attended the O. A. C. at Corvallis last week.

Scott Thayer is home again after being away for some time out to Condon, Oregon.

Elgin Thayer arrived home lately from Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Shires came home from their trip to their old home in Illinois Friday, a week ago, glad and better pleased than ever with their Oregon home.

Rev. E. Pemberton will assist Rev. Walter Wilson in holding revival services, beginning next Sunday.

Robert Hodges had a serious accident with his team last week in Portland. While driving down a steep grade with a heavy load of brick, the wagon ran onto the horses hurting one of them badly and Robert got his foot hurt in the accident.

S. W. Childers had the misfortune to get a fall off an electric car while in Portland week before last. He received a number of bruises and spent the week in the hospital, returning home Saturday not fully recovered yet from the fall.

Mrs. Clara Reetz and little Wayne and Vivian, of Amity, made a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. Christenson, Sunday.

The young folks who held the silver medal contest lately, went up to West Chehalem church and held their contest. All did well. Ellis Pickett was awarded the medal.

The C. C. Literary Club was organized last Saturday night, and they will take up their literary work. The following officers were chosen: Sylvan Strait, Pres.; Mrs. M. P. Johnson, Vice Pres.; Enda Everest, Sec'y.; James Hess, Marshall. Society will meet every two weeks on Friday nights.

The Chehalem Center W. C. T. U. held the December meeting at the home of Miss Nancy Atkinson. Miss Mildred Wills led the devotional exercises. There was not much business of importance, and after the social hour the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. W. Everest in January. Miss Atkinson served to the little company sandwiches, pickles, cake and tea.

J. D. Crater and S. W. Atkinson went to Albany Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Wright, of Carlton, sister of Miss Lillian Perkins, spent a few days visiting her, as Miss Perkins was on the sick list.

J. H. Hall took some of his fancy chickens to the Poultry Show at Dallas this week.

Miss Edna Everest invited a number of friends to be present at her home, December 10th, to give Miss Elsie Tangen a linen shower in honor of her approaching marriage. As Miss Tangen took her chair in the parlor under a white parasol, which was suspended from the ceiling by red ribbons, the parasol was caused to fall and a number of handsome gifts in linen and fancy dishes showered around her. After a merry time over the presents, they repaired to the dining room where the color scheme in red and white prevailed, as a red Japanese parasol was suspended over the table with streamers of white crepe paper reaching to the table from the parasol. Oregon red apples were hollowed out and fruit salad served in them. Wafers, cake and fruit punch were also served. All had a delightful time fixing up a scrap album for the prospective bride's future reference. Those invited were: Misses Helen George, Myrtle Walton, Lillian Perkins, Anna Tangen, Anna Pieser, Mildred Wills, and Nancy Atkinson; Mesdames K. L. Tangen, F. L. Strait, Earl Paulsen, Mabel Dixon and R. W. Everest.

On Wednesday, December 11, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Tangen and Miss Anna Tangen accompanied Andrew Christenson and Miss Elsie Tangen to McMinnville, where Mr. Christenson and Miss Tangen were married. The happy company returned home in the evening and R. W. Everest and family, A. V. Hendrickson and family and S. W. Atkinson joined them in a wedding supper. As the singing school met that night, they besieged the Tangen home and gave them a serenade, also a number of boys were present armed with shooting irons and tin pans. The groom passed the cigars. Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Christenson drove up to their home, eight miles from North Yamhill. A long life and a happy life is the wish of their many friends here.

DUNDEE

The "Farmers' Week" lectures at the O. A. C. attracted the following persons from Dundee: Messrs. W. S. Allen, Roe Robinson, W. A. Graeper, L. J. Eddens, A. D. Ainsworth, John Herring and Lester Warner. The largest delegation went from the Portland district, the second largest from Salem and the third largest from Dundee. In all, there were 460 farmers in attendance. It is reported that the lectures were well worth hearing and it is to be hoped more farmers will embrace this opportunity to get up-to-date instruction on the farmer's problems.

Miss A. L. Christopher is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. E. S. Greer returned from Tacoma, Washington, Tuesday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. P. Hodgins.

Mr. Thun, who was operated on recently for cancer, died at his home Sunday. The funeral was held Wednesday. The community extends to the family its sincere sympathy in their sorrow and loss.

MUCH BITULITHIC LAID IN ALBANY DURING SUMMER

Albany, Ore. Dec. 11, 1912. Over 60 blocks of bitulithic pavement are being completed this year.

The people are much pleased with gravel bitulithic, as used, and are looking forward to a long period free from repairs, as bitulithic has an excellent reputation for wearing.

Albany is now on a par with any city in the country as to the quality of its paved streets.
